

great many members the motion. It would be poor by banishing reliance.
 ed the board in order g heard the Mayor's ett's proposition, he e for the latter.
 riminal out-door re-persons disabled by ions disabled by sick-poor widows having he experiment for a sive, while it would resent existed.
 ion, during which se-selves on the question is resolution, accordabbett, and make the months.

n, as adopted by the

Spaight, J Hall, P Synan, J Gubbins, J
 an, Z Myles, J Drys-
 :Donnell, John Ryan, Gubbins, F Nolan, R
 han, J O'Shaughnessy, Courcy, W Howley,

, R Brown, T McM.
 hon, R Gabbett, E H
 cy, W Phayer, P
 wyer, E Bernard, P
 J C Delmege, J W
 ently—23.
 otion carried.

se relief should be in a committee was ap-

is understood, com-onday next. The list eight peerage cases.

hdrawn from the re-
 , for which the writ
 the writ for Tralee.
 aster, died suddenly ie Parisian cream of h and chapped hands

 n is (from experience)
 whitening the skin, ffects of exposure to he sun and sea breeze ch; the latter equal W. Laird, Chemists, hants, 118, George-House)

of. Corbany, Esq., Tralee, to Sarah Louisa, daughter of
 At St. Peter's Church, Dublin, Alexander M'Combe, M.A., solicitor, Armagh, to Anne, daughter of Wm. Mayne, Esq., of Warrenpoint.
 At Taney Church, Alfred, son of William Bewley Illerton, Esq., of Killiney, county Dublin, to Caroline Elizabeth, daughter of W. J. Egan, Esq., Rockville, Dundrum.
 At Moville, county Donegal, Nicholas Gosselin, Captain and Adjutant Caval Militia, late 23rd Royal Welsh Fusiliers, to Catherine Rebecca, daughter of Wm. Haslett, Esq., J.P., Londonderry.
 In London, Captain Arthur Swann Howard Lowe, F.R.A.S., to Louisa Rutha Harris, the adopted daughter of Samuel Cortauld, Esq., of Gosfield Hall, Essex.
 At the British Consulate, and also at Trinity Church, Boulogne-sur-Mer, Captain George Carlyon Hughes Armstrong, son of the late Colonel Armstrong, of H.M.'s Indian Army, to Alice Fitzroy, daughter of the Rev. Charles J. Furlong, minister of the said church.
 At Weston-super-Mare, Andrew Pagan, Esq., 65th Regt., to Sarah Gordon Fergusson, daughter of David Fergusson, Esq., of Glasgow.

DEATHS.

At the Deer Park, county Tipperary, John Hare, Esq., in his 90th year.
 Suddenly, of disease of the heart, while at dinner with his family, at his residence, Barnakyle, near Patrick's-well, on Tuesday evening, Mr. William Dundon, an opulent and respectable farmer, whose family connections were most numerous, and whose unexpected death has caused a sad gloom in the vicinity where he resided, as well as throughout the county generally, having been held in very high respect for his affable manner and upright business dealings.
 At Lissanisky, county Cork, John Berkeley, son of George Vincent, Esq., of Wellington-road, Dublin.
 At Bantry, co. Cork, Betsy, daughter of Charles O'Connell, Esq., R.M., and grand-daughter of Daniel O'Connell.
 At Waterford, Samuel B. Ardagh, Esq., apothecary.
 At Listowel, Richard, son of Mr. Richard O'Connor.
 At Rathgar, Dublin, Eugene Brown Quirke, son of the late Edward Quirke, M.D., Newtown, Kilcock.
 At Charlestown-road, Rathmines, W. Dean, Esq., merchant, of Dublin.
 At Irishtown, Dublin, Henry Hussey Vivian Dunbar, Esq., son of the late Major John Killebrew Dunbar.
 At Belvidere-place, Dublin, Catherine, wife of Frederick O'Carroll, Esq.
 At Old Kilmainham, Dublin, Mr. Wm. Andrews.
 At Rath Vale, county Meath, Mary Margaret, relict of the late Christopher Drake, Esq., Roriston, same county.
 At Denmark-street, Belfast, John G. O'Niall, son of Mr.
 Joshua O'Niall.
 At Ballymacarrett, Belfast, Agnes, wife of Mr. Jeremiah Wilson.
 At Newtownhamilton, John Armstrong, Esq., of the Belfast Bank, Castleblayney.
 At Rossbegg, Westport, Emma Murray, daughter of the late Major James Grant.
 At Ballinasloe, Maryanne, daughter of Mr. T. M'Namara.
 At Hampstead, London, James Abbott Crowe, son of the late Charles Crowe, Esq., of the county Fermanagh.
 Lieut.-Colonel Neville, Military Knight of Windsor.
 At Brighton, Sir John Thomas Briggs, formerly Commissioner of the Victualling, and Accountant-General of H.M.'s Navy.
 At Devizes, Rachel Henrietta Matilda, wife of Major J. F.
 Harman Brown, late 5th Regt. Madras N.I.
 At Southdown, Weymouth, Fairlina Euphemia, wife of Captain Lord, R.N.
 At Cheltenham, Anne Brodie Macpherson, widow of Col.
 Duncan Macpherson, formerly of the 78th Highlanders.
 At Blackheath, General Sir Edward Nicolls, K.C.B., late of the Royal Marines.
 At Southampton, J. M. Hoffmeister, Esq., Paymaster R.N.
 At Florence, Lady Lee, widow of the late Sir Francis G.
 G. Lee.
 At Malta, Captain Plomer J. Young, late of the 14th Regt., son of the late Major-General Plomer Young, K.H.
 At Lausanne, Switzerland, Edward Archer, son of Captain Abbott, R.N.
 At Jamaica, Miss Emily Price, daughter of the late Sir Ross Price, Bart., of Trenowelton, Cornwall.

damaging to the parties implicated signed by the poor woman in her m her name by her first or second ma circumstance, on which so much str admits of a very simple explanation.
 not write, and the party who drew u knew her merely as the mother of th and so the name to which she affi presence of myself, was Mary Will Mary Lewin.

"Her youngest child was baptized Protestant) of St. Mary."

No doubt the writer considered th contradicted something in the decla why would he make it? Why, it be ration. The mother states that all baptized in the Catholic Church, an is asserted that the youngest was ba testant Church. Both statements are therefore, does not upset the former another statement of hers, namely, get support she was compelled th act against the dictates of her consc why should she send her child to b Catholic Church? It is sad to thin be a party to the profanation of a deavouring to obey the voice of co commands of her paymasters. I th testants and Catholics should unite this demoralizing system.. Truly an be long upheld by such means.

5. She is charged with baseness, mendacity—baseness because she the voice of conscience. Ingratitu no longer bears her children to Mendacity, because she tells the duced her to hand over her child trafficked on her conscience. I ha the last thirty years. I am the spo children; and I know that she oter on account of the bargain she ma always inclined to leave them as She would never sign any paper rights over her children. She is hear such words as baseness, ing dacity. She has been accustomed terms applied to Catholics. The Antichrist or the beast. St. I. saints of the Catholic Church we teaching falsehood and perjury. Th were said to be full of blasphe "harlot" was even applied by la Catholic Church. She heard the r spoken of in most disrespectful ter master or mistress heard an interc guage between the servants in th not be tolerated; and this poor v obliged to hear it from those wh better. But it is now all over. so again. It was, no doubt, amia the writer to share the blame with do not think that he served their ca

I am Sir,
 Your obedient

February 7th 1866.