

most accurate manœuvres they continued to the ground. of the county the evening o'clock. The he determined he fields in the not far from d far he saw two hundred who was on a d, stopp'd him had come and d or to stay the hint and hin a quarter It is very well night in large ity. A gentle- on several oc- arge parties of his house at wing the blind equivalent in y of infantry, ho represented lual gave each edience to his ation without y that a good have been ex- fect discipline. ir informant; e small hours as a matter of istance to the ilitary tactics n drills. His a good view ds, and Sun- he has seen taught the ing, forming which go to ing is the tes- and from so e not a doubt rganised, and He the police, stratiwenness of determina- tary exercises unity for their this idea has umbers of the : confidently it to be only ng time either e above the Griffin, Esq., born in Dublin.—No cards.

At St. Kevin's Church, Dublin, Wm. Mathews, Esq., of Everton, Liverpool, son of William Mathews, Esq., retired Receiver of Inland Revenue, to Olivia, daughter of Hugh Morrison, Esq., of Belgrave-square, Rathmines.

At St. George's, Hanover-square, London, Major Hugh Stewart Cochrane, 7th Royal Fusiliers, to Amy, daughter of John Bell, Esq., of Rushpool Hall, Yorkshire.

At St. George's Church, Ramsgate, Edmund Bower, Esq., M.D., of Windsor, to Amelia Thomasina, daughter of Captain Henry Wilson, late of the 13th Hussars.

At Kildown, West Kent, the Hon. Hallyburton G. Campbell, son of the late Lord Campbell and the Baroness Stratheden, to Louisa Mary, daughter of Mr. and Lady Mildred Beresford Hope.

At Salisbury, the Hon. and Rev. Lewis Denman, Rector of William, Herts, to Frances, daughter of the late Colonel Armytage, Coldstream Guards.

At Gittisham, Devonshire, Henry Albert Fuller, 83rd Regt., to Louisa Mary Beaumont, daughter of the late Edward Lloyd Kenyon, Esq., late of Pen-y-lan, Denbighshire.

At the Parish Church, Edmonton, Captain Dyer, Madras Staff Corps, to Ellen, daughter of John Geary, Esq., of Hyde Side, Edmonton.

At Birkenhead, Edward Patten, son of Wm. Jackson, Esq., M.P., Manor House, Birkenhead, to Margaret, daughter of George S. Sanderson, Esq., Green Bank, Birkenhead.

At St. Budeaux, Devon, Charles Hensman Heycock, Esq., 75th Regt., to Mary Jane, daughter of Wm. Wheaton Chard, Esq., of Mount Tamer, Devon.

At Woolhampton, Berks, Captain A. W. Cobham, late 44th Regt., to Celina Kate, daughter of James Blyth, Esq., of Woolhampton House, Berks.

At Neufchatel, Switzerland, Cornelius Fox, Esq., R.N., to Fanny, daughter of the late James Jarvis, Esq., of Sedbury, Herefordshire.

DEATHS.

At his residence, Upper Roche's-street, in this city, of decline, Mr. John O'Brien, chandler, brother of the late Rev. James O'Brien, P.P., St. Michael's.

Yesterday, after a short illness, Mr. Patrick Shanahan, of All Hallows College, aged 22 years, brother of the Rev. Timothy Shanahan, R.C.C., St. Michael's.

At Ballyheigue Rectory, county Kerry, the Rev. Thomas Exham Hiffenan, Rector of Ballyheigue.

At Skibbereen, Mrs. Catherine M'Sweeney, relict of the late Edmond M'Sweeney, Esq., Roaringwater.

At Skibbereen, Mr. Jeremiah O'Sullivan.

At Blair's Hill, Cork, John Windele, Esq.

At Kingstown, Lieut.-General H. F. Salter, C.B., Indian Army.

At Fitzwilliam-place, Dublin, John B. Henderson, son of Wm. C. Henderson, Esq., Q.C.

At Airfield, Donnybrook, Robert Robertson, Esq., Sheriff Substitute of Stirlingshire.

At Cliff Castle, Dalkey, Caroline Sarah, daughter of W. D. Tottenham, Esq.

At Maryborough, Queen's County, Wm. Morgan, Esq., of the Bank of Ireland, son of P. Morgan, Esq., County Inspector of Constabulary.

At Seafort-avenue, Sandymount, John Wright, son of Mr. Bernard Wright, of Summer-hill and Patrick-street, Dublin.

At Lower Sherrard-street, Dublin, the infant son of William Smyth, Esq.

At Rutland-place, Dublin, Mr. Wm Lynch.

At Athy, on the 20th instant, Lizzie; and on the 27th, Theresa, children of Mr. Wm. Fogarty.

At Athlone, Bernard Kelly, son of William Kelly, Esq., solicitor.

At Liverpool, James Sealy, Captain, Unattached, late of the 4th West India Regt.

At Curdridge, Botley, Hants, Mary Ann, wife of John Ward, Royal Navy, H.M.'s Dockyard, Portsmouth.

At Twickenham Green, Major T. C. S. Hyde, formerly of the Madras Army.

At Suez, Major-General Terence O'Brien, commanding the troops in Ceylon.

At Ahmedabad, Bombay, Mary Ellen Elizabeth, wife of Henry Nicholas Reeves, Esq., Bombay Staff Corps.

Tuesdays and Thursdays, from 8 to 10
Admission—ONE SHILLING
HENRY PARKINS
Secretary and Cou

June 10.

GUINEA SHER

SCARR BROTHERS,

WINE MERCHANTS,

DIRECT public attention to their Stock carefully selected from the Best Ship

ESPECIALLY TO THEIR

PALE, OR GOLDEN SHERB

at One Guinea per Dozen.

AND TO THEIR

FULL BODIED CLARET,

at 12s. per Dozen, Nett Cash.

SCARR BROTHERS

Direct Wine Importers,

15, PATRICK STREET

LIMERICK.

May 20.

REDUCTION

IN PRICE OF

Taylor's Celebrated Parlour

GENERALLY SOLD AS

O R R E L L .

THE LIMERICK STEAM SHIP CO

(Limited) have just imported a large of these favorite COALS.

PRICE (in Lots of 5 Tons and upwards)

18s. per Ton.

They are also selling other first rate Coals

Wigan, Orrell, Wallsend, and Scotch Coals

at low prices.

Housekeepers should take advantage of low prices to provide their winter's supply of excellent Coals.

Steam Ship Office, New Docks,

Limerick, 28th Aug. 1855.