

corresponding advance in prices—say, 10s to £1 a head on the former, and 2s to 3s each on the latter, with an early clearance throughout. We quote top beef 60s to 63s, and 65s per cwt.—6½d to 6¾d per lb; do. mutton, 8½d to 8¾d per lb. Wool still quiet; no quotations, holders not yet giving way.

Number at market. — Nov. 9—Fat beasts 2,297; sheep, 4,058; calves, 89; store—beasts, 95; calves, 80. Nov. 2—Fat beasts, 2,785; sheep, 5,236; calves, 56; stores—beasts, 69; calves, 50.

GANLY AND CO'S CIRCULAR.

NEW CATTLE MARKET.—Sales more briskly conducted, but prices not higher in general. Ewe mutton turned out last market, improved slightly in price. The supply of beef still continues seasonably large, but a large proportion are not well made up to market. The store market is being better supplied since the new concession of taking stock to the country at half price by the Midland Great Western Railway has been made. Wool is without alteration in value, but staplers and manufacturers are running down their stocks rapidly. Short skin wool from 1s 4d to 1s 5d; fleece nominally at 2s to 2s ¼d for mixed parcels. Corn seems to have come to a level, recent advanced prices including supplies to market. We can now point to the fulfilment of our assertion in bygone times—that “free trade has done its worst on our tillage farmers”—prices then ceasing to encourage exports from foreign countries. The extraordinary exports of manufactured goods in autumn reported by the Board of Trade accounts for the rise in the prices of money and meat. Machinery in full work in all parts. Money in demand for trading purposes, and a healthy tone exists.

CORK CORN MARKET.

White wheat, 10s 6d to 11s 6d; red wheat, 9s 6d to 10s 7d; barley, 6s 0d to 7s 4d; black oats, 7s 0d to 7s 6d; white oats, 8s 2d to 8s 8d.

CORK BUTTER MARKET—THIS DAY.

Firsts, 126s; seconds, 123s; thirds, 114s; fourths, 109; fifths, 96s; sixths, 81s. Mild cured—Firsts, 131s; seconds, 128s; thirds, 120. 1,840 firkins in market.

Amongst the intending passengers by the outgoing American steamer on Thursday, at Queenstown, was a young man named Donoghue, son of a publican in the neighbourhood of Skibbereen, who had eloped with a young woman from the same district. He had helped himself from his mother's exchequer, and when he was about to embark, with his fair companion, the indignant parent appeared upon the scene, and had him arrested on the charge of stealing £10 from her. He was brought before Mr. Beamish, J.P., but the steamer having by that time departed, and with it the deluding fair one, the mother refused to press the charge, and was glad to take her “boy” home with her.

Head-constable John Turner, for many years stationed at Queenstown, has retired from the force on long service pension. He had been in the Constabulary for nearly thirty years, for a great portion of which term he occupied the rank of first-class Head-constable.
