DEATHS.

We regret to announce the death of William Evans, Esq., which took place at his residence, Carana House, Wood Lawn, county Galway, on Saturday, the 26th ult. The deceased gentleman was the only surviving brother of John C. Evans, Esq., of Cross House, and for some years Barony Constable of the district, the duties of which were discharged with a leniency and feeling which will not soon be forgotten by those with whom he had to do. As a friend and neighbour he was deservedly esteemed and respected, and in the domestic circle the bereavement must be long and deeply felt. He was a loving father, a sincere friend, and a true Christian. When told of his approaching end, he said, "I know that my Redeemer liveth—I have no dread, no fear," and peacefully he fell asleep in Jesus. His funeral, which took place early on Tuesday morning, was attended to the family burial-place at Ballymacward churchyard, by a large circle of the neighbouring gentry and friends.

On the 3rd inst., at Kagenagh Rectory, Omagh, the residence of her son-in-law, the Rev. James Byrne, Eliza, widow of the late Benjamin Friend, Esq., of Boskill, county Limerick, and Rocklow, Fethard, aged 76 years.

On Tuesday, at her residence, Roxborough-road, after a short illness, Eliza, wife of Mr. Thomas Noonan, overseer of the locomotive department, Waterford and Limerick Railway, very much regretted.

At Keylong House, near Caher, co. Tipperary, Fanny, wife of Garrett Richard Carey, Esq.

At Thomond-square, Cork, Ellen, wife of John J. Tangney, solicitor.

At Sandymount, Dublin, Thomas John Reilly, Esq., of Carne House, Balmullet, county Mayo.

At Aghrlin-street, Dublin, Richard Boycott Gregory, Esq., Staff Commander R.N.

At Mountpleasant-avenue, Rathmines, Dublin, Mr. Patrick A. Tommins.

At Trim, Mrs. Elizabeth Wood, widow of Robert Alexander Wood, Esq., late of Athboy, county Meath.

At Athol-street, Belfast, Mr. James Callender.

At Carrickfergus, Henry G. E. H. Andrews, son of the late James Andrews, Esq., solicitor.

At Grosvenor-square, London, Colonel Plunket Burton, late of the Coldstream Guards.

At Carnoustie House, Forfarshire, Ann Oliphant, daughter of the late G. Kinloch, Esq., M.P.

At Newton Hall, Northumberland, Dorothy, widow of the late Captain S. E. Widdrington, R.N.

At Port Royal, Jamaica, Commodore Peter Cracroft, C.B.

At Naples, Robert Wallaston, M.D., formerly one of the Civil Physicians attached to the Scutari Hospitals.

At St. Elmo, Malta, John Hewitt, son of the late John Hewitt Burgess, Esq., of Carlow, solicitor.
