At the residence of her husband, at Kilbreehy, in this county,
 on Saturday night last, aged 30 years, Bridget, the beloved wife of Mr. John Naish, and second daughter of Mr. Thomas Meehan, of Crossagalla Cottage, near this city, whose eldest sister (in religion Sister Genevieve) has devoted herself to the worship of God, in the Presentation Convent, in this city.
 The deceased was mother of six children, five of whom are living; she was an attached wife and an affectionate parent, whose loss is deeply regretted by her family and a numerous circle of relatives and friends. The funeral cortege, which passed through this city yesterday, for the family burial ground at Donoughmore, attested the esteem in which Mrs.
 Naish was held, being the largest in extent witnessed for many years. The Roman Catholic clergymen in attendance were—Rev. Mr. Power, P.P., Stonehall; Rev. Mr. Bourke, P.P., Kildimo; Rev. Mr. Meagher, C.C., ditto; Rev. Mr.
 Molony, P.P., Donoughmore; Rev. Mr. Reeves, C.C., ditto;
 Rev. Mr. Malone, St. Michael's; Rev. Mr. Dore, O.S.A.;
 Rev. Mr. Hanrahan, O.S.A.; Rev. Mr. Mulcahy; Rev. Mr.
 Hayes, C.C., Croom; Rev. Mr. Ryan, C.C., Adare; Rev.
 Thomas Nelan, Ardagh; and Rev. Patrick Meehan, D.D., Administrator of Glenroe, a relative of the deceased.
