

M. Ashton, Esq; A. Esq, &c, &c.

porary (the Northern entation of Carrick- that a very large and olders and freemen of n. Lane Joynt, Esq., d at the approaching n has had to decline ressure of other d that there is a wide- the borough at the l over by Lord Down- strong and vigorous Torrens. Mr. Joynt, great ability, wonder- persuasive eloquence His great experience ue liberality and sound a fitting representa- ment. We are, how- at Mr. Thomas Alora and a banker in the on, has been invited to e is plenty of time for ir man, as Mr. Torrens is canvass. There is itself from the charge ord Downshire."

WANT CLUTTER- SILLIERS.

e of the above officer wn, under the circum- e, led to an ineffectual day; but on Tuesday verstown Constabulary, e four boats given by o'clock in the forenoon, ace described by King Clutterbuck, he saw low in a deep hole in e head inclined towards with assistance and a ody, but the head kept but after a longer drag in raising up the body except his shirt. A the back portion of the away, about the size of ur, the direction of the right ear. There were e body. His brother on the spot. The body hindarra, and carried soldiers.

few sovereigns about gun, &c., is the only ed the murderer.

private telegram from e has excommunicated so.

of a son, DECEASED.

At Meerut, India, the wife of H. E. Kossit, Esq., 19th Hus- sars, of a daughter.

At Calcutta, the wife of Arthur George Macpherson, Esq., Judge of the High Court, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

July 8th, at St. Stephen's Church, Dublin, by the Rev. George Stoney, assisted by the Rev. A. C. Threlkott, Captain Samuel John James Burns, 24th Regt., to Jane Peacock, second daughter of the Rev. Robert D. Robinson, of Bally- navan Castle, co. Tipperary, and widow of Captain Henry MacDonald Burns, 24th Regt.

In Clonmel, Robert Daniell, Esq., of Rathmines, Dublin, to Ellen, daughter of Alderman Hackett, J.P., Clonmel.

In Monkstown Church, county Dublin, Philip Reginald Pigott, Esq., M.A., barrister-at-law, to Miss, daughter of Denis O'Connor, Esq., J.P., of Corrig-avenue, Kingstown, and Ballagh, county Roscommon.

In Stillorgan Church, county Dublin, Robert Wm. Hillas, Esq., of Seaview, county Sligo, and Beaufield, county Dublin, to Alice, daughter of the late Rev. John Grant.

In the Roman Catholic Church, Lucan, Thomas Woodlock, Esq., of Dame-street, Dublin, to Emilia Jane, daughter of Wm. Moran, Esq., of Mountjoy-square.

In Ballinasloe Church, Wm. Cleary, Esq., Doerpark Mills, to Kate, daughter of the late Simon Sharpe, Esq., of Ballina- sloe.

In Ballinasloe Church, Robert Nugent, Esq., of Mullingar, to Margaret, daughter of Robert Sharpe, Esq., T.C., P.L.G., Ballinasloe.

In St. George's, Hanover-square, London, Colonel the Hon. St. George Foley, to Augusta Selina, daughter of H. C. and Lady Charlotte Stuart.

In All Saints Church, Oldham, Timothy Fetherstonhaugh, Esq., late 15th Hussars, of the College, Kirkoswald, Cumber- land, to the Hon. Maria Georgiana Carleton, daughter of the Hon. Guy, Lord Dorchester.

In St. Andrew's Church, Clifton, Major George Thomas Dick, of her Majesty's Indian Army, to Parisina Lavinia, daughter of the late Paris Thomas Dick, Esq., M.D., of Bed- ford.

DEATHS.

Yesterday morning, Rose, the youngest daughter of Mr. T. B. Hamilton, George-street, aged 18 months.

On the 17th March, at Melbourne, Victoria, Edward H. De Burgh, fifth son of the late Rev. John H. De Burgh, and grandson of Chief Baron Hussey Burgh.

At Thurles, Thomas Bourke, Esq.
At Ashgrove, Miss Longfield, daughter of the late Colonel Longfield, M.P., of Castlemary, county Cork.

At Killecoleman Park, county Cork, Anne, wife of the Rev. Walter Lamb, A.M.

At Ballylegan, county of Cork, Anne, daughter of John Roche, Esq.

At Passage West, Cork, Mrs. Elizabeth Southwell.
At Annagh, county Wexford, John Egar, Esq., aged 91.

At Pembroke-road, Dublin, Loftus A. Bryan, Esq.
At Waterloo-road, Dublin, Wm. Geraty, Esq.

At Leinster-road, Rathmines, William Henry, youngest child of J. H. M. Eaton, Esq.

At Percy-place, Dublin, Edmund Waldemar, the youngest child of the Rev. Zachary Barry.

At Amiens-street, Dublin, Miss Mary Howard.
At Tullow, county Carlow, Miss Mary Anne Dwyer.

At Southsea, Hants, Wm. M. Keogh, Esq., Clerk of the Crown for the county and city of Kilkenny.

At Grosvenor-street, Belfast, Mr. David Clarke.
At Beaulieu, co. Louth, Fanny Maria Adelaide, daughter of Richard T. Montgomery, Esq.

At Ruth Gael House, Bangor, county Down, Richard Rose, infant son of Richard Rose Cleland, Esq.

At Kilve Court, Somersetshire, Edward Fownes Luttrell, Esq., son of the late Colonel Luttrell.

At Illinois, United States, America, Isabella Rebecca, widow of the Rev. Charles Taylor Wade, and daughter of the late Henry Hamilton, Esq., of Ballymaooll, co. Meath.

At Sandhurst, Australia, John Bryson, son of Andrew Picken, Esq., of Hazelbanks, Randalstown, co. Antrim.

John Madden
Michael Sheahan
John Sheahan
Patrick Ryan, senit
Patrick Ryan, junior
Cornelius Hogan
William Hanrahan
ST. JOHN'S.

John O'Brien
Rodger Hart
Bryan Hanrahan
John Hart
John Sheahan
Thomas Donovan
James Keane
Richard Wallace
Bryan Foley
ST. MUNCHIN'S
John Lillis
Patrick Lillis

July 13.

PROTES OF THE

Brushmakers of LI

WE, the undersigned Brushmal with astonishment our flag Spaight's Committee Room, beg to been obtained without our sanction repudiate the attempt of identifying Candidate.

George Waller,
Denis Cooney,
James Dwyer,
Michael Connors,
Patt Hickey,
Frank Quin,
Patrick Browne,
John O'Brien,
John Callaghan,
Peter Ryan,
Stephen Regan,
Thomas Foley,
Denis Cooney.

July 13

The Times says that the probability Government will be considerably rein the Opposition will have to confess and its elaborate organisation hav bring round the people of the Unite side.]

DR. PRITCHARD.—The following Dr. Pritchard's diary:—"17th F Died here at one a.m., Mary Jane, wife, aged 38 years; no torment su side, but, like a calm, peaceful lamt Minnie away. May God and Jes one in three, welcome Minnie. Pra mine be o'er, everlasting love. Se thy dear Son."