

... are being added to the thoroughly its principles and safety should act with discretion and lukewarm membership. All should be animated by pledge of membership ought not by each candidate before they be held to strict account of perjury or bad faith members of this organization prominently before all parties.

The duties of membership every true Irishman. These in attendance and prompt each member should enlist, or y true Irishman of his act. We must have the indimber, his faith, his earnestness that the work may progress standing' after the month of had officially to the organization.

ve faithless to the pledge we convention. us; we rely upon you. regard, we are in fraternity

O'MAHONY, H.C.F.B.
C. MACCARTHY, Deputy."

... to the Times, remarks that e pastures the fields of our producing districts would be ke, it should be known that r producing meat independent acre of either wheat, barley d crop, will, if properly pre- produce a large quantity of d by a moderate quantity of treat our corn crops as we do ime them on the farm, the ction are left with us—not so

If the sythe were supplanted Bull would no longer have to plies and dear meat. The hat 7lb of grain will produce cher's weight. As wheat is neat is at 8d to 9d, it is clear on record a singular justifica- e Legionary cross to a rural : Marchand, of the 2nd Brigade : sixteen years of military ser- paigns and one wound, is now ty for having had the energy police the Mayor of Montreuil- ked up his daughter, while no ct dared to initiate proceedings e." Such simple fact describes functionaries exercise in the ething awful to question the 1898.

memorial statue at Como; Ro- n libre tlists, a bust,

MARRIAGES.

At Auckland, New Zealand, Wm. G. Stack, Esq., Captain in the 1st Waiatke Regiment, to Ann, daughter of the late Rev. Charles P. Coote, Rector of Doon, county Limerick.

At the Friends' Meeting-house, Lurgan James Kennell, Esq., of Glenlee, son of the late William Fennell, Esq., of Rehill, co. Tipperary, to Jemima Sarah, daughter of Thomas Christie Wakefield, of Gleneyre, county Down.

At Donnybrook Church, Frederic L. Morgan, Esq., Bally- corry, to Annie Linda, daughter of Isaac Williams, Esq., of Pembroke-road, Dublin.

At Kingstown, James, son of Andrew McClane, Esq., of Dublin, to Johanna, daughter of the late Hugh Duffy, Esq., Kingstown.

At Ballybrack, county Dublin, Benjamin Hannan, Esq., of Riverstown, county Westmeath, to Mary Eliza, daughter of Francis O'Higgins, Esq., Rock House, county Dublin.

At the Parish Church of Kells, Richard, son of William Hutchinson, Esq., Killeny, to Louise, daughter of the late Mark Belcher, Esq., Kells Lodge, co. Kilkenny.

At Bath, Francis Charles Annesley, first cousin of the present Earl Annesley, and son of James Annesley, Esq., British Consul-General at Amsterdam, to Matilda Caroline, daughter of Colonel Cowper Rochfort, Madras Army.

At Plymouth, Wm. Edward Montague, Lieutenant 94th Regt., to Alice Lumsden, daughter of Phillip Mitchell, Esq., Plymouth.

At Bearsted Church, Charles J. Roper Tyler, Esq., Captain 80th Regt., to Catherine, daughter of W. F. Dobson, Esq., of Bearsted House, near Maidstone, Kent.

At Hove, Brighton, Robert Barclay Reynolds, Esq., to Evelyn, daughter of John Davidson, Esq., late Captain 2nd Life Guards.

DEATHS.

At Dundalk, in the 78th year of her age, Mary, wife of John Huggard, Esq., and last surviving daughter of the late Paris Anderson, Esq., of Rathkeale, county Limerick.

At Cook-street, Cork, Mr. John T. Archer.

At Great Britain-street, Cork, Mr. Mathias Johns.

At Leinster-road, Dublin, Helen Jane, youngest child of James Fitzgerald Windle, Esq., of Tarbert, county Kerry, solicitor.

At Kilcock, county Dublin, Henry Colgan, Esq. Sept. 21, from injuries received by an accidental discharge of his gun, Charles Edward, son of the Rev. Richard Clarke, Rector of Geashill, King's County.

Mr. Thomas Fleming, bookseller, Eden-quay, Dublin.

At Hillview-terrace, Clontarf, Mr. Joseph Mannin.

At Castle-avenue, Clontarf, Anne, relict of the late Thomas Wallis, Esq.

At Maryborough, Queen's County, Wm. Kelly, Esq.

At Mullingar, Mr. John Dawson Green.

At Eccles-street, Dublin, Eliza Maria, daughter of the late James Molloy, of Charlestown, King's County.

At Navan, Mr. Patrick Buchanan, son of the late Mr. Thos. Buchanan, of Macetown, county Meath.

At Keelstown, county Westmeath, Susan, widow of John Swift, Esq., formerly of the 84th Regt.

At Richelleu, Merrion, Catherine, widow of Charles Tottenham, Esq., of Ballyany, county Wicklow.

At High-street, Kilkenny, Francis, son of the late Thomas Shearman, Esq.

At Kevin's-port, George Guy Carleton L'Estrange, son of Christopher C. L'Estrange, Esq.

At Arthur-street, Belfast, Elizabeth Jane, daughter of Mr. Joseph M Cracken.

At Woolwich, Major George Bayly, Staff Officer of Pen- sioners.

At Delamere-terrace, Hyde-park, London, Isabella, wife of Rear-Admiral Denham, F.R.S.

At Erith, Colonel Charles Hoggs, C.B., Royal Artillery, and Member of the Ordnance Select Committee.

At Woolston, the Rev. Wm. Chesborough Le Peer Ken- nedy, son of Major John Mackenzie Kennedy, Staff, Royal Victoria Hospital.

At Southampton, Lieut.-General Henry William Gordon, Colonel Commandant 3rd Brigade Royal Artillery.

At Gibraltar, Eliza Josephine Ellen, wife of Major William Townsend Barnett, Royal Artillery.

At Hamilton, Canada West, Lieut. Arthur Ewen Stabb, Adjutant 1st Batt. 18th Regt.

The town of Headford moment. The hotel, front a guarded by squads of police nate man who has arrived h- ing, from Connemara as a ferry of Knock near Clyda; policemen from Oughterard parish priest, called to see th " Sir, I am sorry to see such to-day. I regret to see so in your position just now. I not that I sympathise with cause I sympathise with an fering. I will ask you no qu you want food or drink, or to you I will be but too hap The supposed Fenian th warnly. Mr. Burke is h result is not yet known.

FIVE O'CLOCK.—The may closed, and the dreaded Fen less a personage than the Pt ran-quay, Dublin, the Rev. I tleman on leaving shook han and thanked him most grat Evening Post.

A MILITIAMAN CHARGED Dugannon correspondent, v —The authorities have arre our county regiment, the Re he now lies in the bridewell a member of the Fenian Br the prisoner is Brady, and I been in the employment of ments of late have been ve alleged that he has been eng near the Lough shore. A fe bourhood at the present tim certain individuals require to —Belfast News Letter.

Bologna will be the first I "L'Africaine." Musical as always remarkably slow i prefer old loves to new acqu A French theatre is to l ence at New York. They l stone with it ; between that idea there seems to us to be Leslie, styled the Americ ing across the streets of Br an old woman in his arms. woman ? An esteemed Italian co from an excess of grief from necessary to amputate the hi a pupil of the Military Sc serious accident. The French critics have : Mr Charles Mathews, who One of them, says the tete "but his capabilities were pidation "