

ce, none of the horses having all kept in close order, Topsy il about the second last fence rd shot ahead and won easily. d took place between Topsy it Topsy, well steered by Mr. a length.

f the race, Mr. Dexter was he shoulders of the people, o his carriage, which, we un- respect to which that gentle- consequence of his kindness of ents, the enthusiasm of the s great.

TH RACE.

miles; 3 sovs., 50 added.

hleen, 6 yrs.

Fill, 6 yrs.

a Boy, 6 yrs.

f the Mist, 5 yrs.

lymore, 6 yrs.

ild Deer, late May Fly, 6 yrs.

se, and well contested between e Mist, and Ballymore. The

the first place, the Maid run- more third.

day's sports, and all quitted ore seven o'clock, in a most anner.

-BY TELEGRAPH.

Race—Maid of the Mist, 1st.
ling Wall Race—Nancy Till, ycoree Stakes—Dunsany, 1st.

a—Arrah-na-pogue.

a case came before the Mayor e most revolting in its details e notice of a magistrate. Ed- ly clad young boy of about 16 ght up in custody of Constable n committing a criminal assault ttle girl, named Ellen Barrett, tally blind. The girl with her ce, and having been led to the erly, presenting a most abject ce. His Worship asked her e nature of an oath. Her re- t, she was sworn, and described offence, which, she alleged, had r by the prisoner. From the the poor little creature, it ap- n her mother's house about two soner came in, and sent away o was present; he then offered e refused, after which he vio- bolical purpose. His Worship r for further examination.

the 31st March last, as appears ment just published, the duty amounted to £6,115,997 16s. 1d. sale employees in the Treasury ngton at present, of which num- disabled soldiers. Some 500 employed.

Rmo, Queen's County, to Anna, daughter of Eyre Odium, Esq., Kilmurry, King's County.

At Kingstown Wesleyan Church, Mr. James M'Kenzie, of Benburb, county Tyrone, to Lizzie, daughter of Mr. William Beattie, of Holywood, county Down.

In Westminster Abbey, Lord Henry Montagu Douglas Scott, son of the Duke and Duchess of Buccleuch, to the Hon. Cecily Susan Stuart Wortley, daughter of the late Lord Wharncliffe.

At St. Gabriel's, Warwick-square, London, Cecil Dermer, son of the late Elhanan Bicknell, of South-place, Herne-hill, Esq., to Matilda Anne, daughter of the late Captain Bazalgette, R.N.

At Widcombe Church, Bath, Charles Henry Philip Abbot, son of the late Hon. Philip Henry Abbot, and nephew of Lord Colchester, to Maria Lear, daughter of the late Rev. John Comyns, of Wood, Bishopsteignton, S. Devon.

At Wargrave, Berks, the Rev. John Climensson, LL.M., to Emily Jane, daughter of the Hon. Spencer Dudley and Anna Louisa Montagu.

At Willey Church, Warwickshire, the Rev. Evan Yorke Nepean, rector of Bucknall, Lincolnshire, and son of the late General Wm. Nepean, to Maria Theresa, daughter of the Rev. F. Morgan-Payler, rector of Willey.

At Cookham, Colonel Wm. Paston Purnell, C.B., to Elizabeth Susan, daughter of the late Sir George Young, Bart., R.N., of Formosa, Berkshire.

At Christ Church, Daylesford, George Jay, Esq., son of the late Captain Thomas Jay, Royal Navy, England, to Margaret, daughter of Nicholas Matchett, Esq., late of Poyntzpass, county Armagh.

DEATHS.

August 8, at the residence of his grandmother, Mrs. Molloy, 5, Grosvenor-terrace, Rathmines, Dublin, Daniel Molloy, third son of the Rev. Clement Richardson, M.A., Rathkeale, county Limerick.

On Tuesday evening, at his residence, Robert-street, Mr. Richard Purcell (victualler), aged 74 years. Deceased was uncle to Rev. R. O'Brien, P.P., Cahircornish, and Rev. M. O'Brien, P.P., Knockany. His death is much regretted.

Last evening, at William-street, aged 21 years, Mr. Charles Brennan, assistant draper, much regretted by his business companions.

At Upper Johnson-street, Clonmel, Mary, wife of Doctor Edward Phelan, J.P.

At Tipperary, Emma Catherine, daughter of Dr. Nadin.

At his residence, Ballyhorgan House, Tralee, J. D. Supple, Esq., J.P.

At Marino House, Bantry, Goodwin, youngest son of Wm. Young, Esq.

At Farnane, county Waterford, Mr. Nicholas Walsh.

At Monkstown-avenue, Dublin, Thomas Birmingham, Esq.

At North King-street, Dublin, Mr. Michael M'Evoy, late of the Ordnance Department, Lower Castle Yard.

At Upper Ormond-quay, Dublin, Mr. John Walsh.

At Leixlip, county Kildare, Wm. Price, Esq.

At Abbey-view, Bray, Sarah, widow of Edward Sterling O'Reilly, Esq.

At Wexford, Robert C. Crean, Esq., M.D.

At Taghmou, county Wexford, James Rainor, Esq., J.P.

At Abbey-view, county Longford, Sarah, widow of the late Wm. Coates, Esq.

At Tuam, Dr. John Prendergast.

Mr. Pierce Somerset Butler, claimant of the Mountgarret title and estates.

At Dock-street, Belfast, John Collins, Esq., formerly of Cookstown, co. Tyrone.

At Eglinton-street, Belfast, Mr. John Thomas.

At Ormeau-road, Belfast, Mr. Joseph Maxwell.

At Corn-market, Belfast, Mr. Richard Searson.

At Thornhill, Portglenone, co. Antrim, Lizzie, daughter of Mr. James M'Fadden.

At Richmond, Surrey, the Countess Dowager of Shaftesbury, aged 91 years.

At Kenilworth, Warwickshire, Elizabeth Louisa Maria, daughter of the late Sir John Cave-Browne-Cave, Bart., of Stretton-en-le-Field, Derbyshire.

In India, James Henry Butler, Esq., Deputy Inspector-General of Hospitals, Bengal Army.

At Kurrachee, India, Margaret, youngest child of Lieut.-Colonel Faussett, 44th Regt.

On board the ship Grand Bonny, on passage home from the west coast of Africa, Dr. James Bland;

Ranges, Grates, &c.
AND PROPERTY OF
On which, when required, will made, without charge for One fixed Rate of SALES WILL
EVERY ALTERNATE
Throughout
By Strictly Unreserved
When a General Clearance
Payments made for goods

THE NEXT
Will be
SATURDAY, AUGUST
When a very Large Collection party will be brought Sale to commence

It must be distinctly understood the condition of Unreserved
party will be received.

The attendance of parties
property for sale is in all instances may be convenient, that the impartially these sales are Country Buyers will at very desirable effects for such occasions. They will have specification, and for a moderate cases safely packed and delivered Canal Stores.

Valuation made for Particular
Terms.
Auctions attended in to Stock and Produce Sales
Policies of Assurance, Lands, Reversionary and of the same unremitted attention
October 22.

KILKEE !!
IMPORTANT
WILLIAM
TEA, WINE, SPIRITS
GRO
Has, owing to the increased ment, made extensive pur-ments of the first families
His Stock of TEAS, have been bought and sold
able circumstances.
His Port, Sherry, Claret
will be found equal in quality South of Ireland. His selection
the West End, is equally Town; and his Bakery is
A trial from those visiting
Place is respectfully solicited
July 15.