

if they had to leave the city at the workhouse for relief, in such extreme destitution as possible for the afflicted to pre-poor-house. The Inspector that in one instance a poor had been only just put to able for that creature to pre-rouse (hear, hear.) The some board could subsequently e was happy to say that the thing they had done to relieve ay of whom were suffering poor-house was situate at town that it would be a most e a large number of people to ask for relief, and then to hear, hear.) The committee hey could be inspected by the would be granted to them, ify their acts (hear, hear) that the guardians would be ications for outdoor relief in he relieving officer had power as well as the guardians, and nmissioners was only another siness from the circumlocution not be right to place unlimited hands of one man.

I; but if a number of gentle- and say the relieving officer rs conscientiously, are we not n.

only objection is in the name. ie from "relief committee to This is only another objection said by the circumlocution

—The whole amount expended not exceeded £10 for the two en in operation.

first week; £5 15s 6d for the esuns 196 persons have been y that no board of guardians licretion than we did in our relief.

ery well while it is in its in- le," until it progresses.

discussion on the matter, the guardians could not alter the t in the board room, and give commissioners for leave to sit the commissioners stated that ould meet in the board room.

would be impossible to bring a g for instance from the city.

at he had read the Commis- had not quoted any law to dsory on the committee to sit merely said that it would be do so. He would therefore he effect that the relief com- is now going on.

Feb. 21, at St. Anne's Church, Dublin, Henry Butler, third son of the late Henry Butler, Esq., of Castle Crine, in the county of Clare, to Margaret Louisa Bonyng, relict of the late John N. Bonyng, Esq., of Rathorpe, and daughter of the late Major Creagh, of Carrigarry, in the county of Clare. No cards.

At the Church of the Catholic University, Morgan John O'Connell, Esq., of Ballylean Lodge, county Clare, and the Temple, London, to Mary Anne, only surviving child of Charles Bianconi, Esq., D.L., Longfield, county Tipperary.

At St. James's Church, Dublin, Thomas Clarke, Esq., J.P., Farren, county Cork, to Lizzie, daughter of Wm. Ruddell, Esq., James's-street, Dublin.

At the Church of St. Andrew, Westland-row, Dublin, P. Fallon, Esq., Lower Gardiner-street, Dublin, to Mary Helena, daughter of the late Thomas O'Gorman, Esq., of Meginston, county Tipperary.

At Ballinrobe, county Mayo, Edward Joseph Boulton, Staff Assistant-Surgeon, son of the late Captain Thomas Boulton, 5th Dragoon Guards, to Bessie, daughter of Dominick E. Blake, Esq., Ballinrobe.

At the Roman Catholic Church of Kilbrin, Charles, son of the late Daniel Duggan, Esq., of Liscarroll, county Cork, to Honora, daughter of Mr. Patrick Daly, of Curras.

At Ahabogue, county Cork, Mr. William O'Brien, Head Constable of Constabulary, Rathdrum, county Wicklow, to Julia Josephine, daughter of Mr. Patrick Carroll, Kilcoleman House, county Cork.

In Wexford, John Barden, Esq., Coolcliff House, to Lizzie, daughter of the late Nicholas Devereux, Esq.

DEATHS.

At his residence, Ballingarry, on the 14th inst., in the 56th year of his age, Robert O'Dell, Esq., M.D., sincerely and deservedly regretted by a large circle of friends and acquaintances, by whom he was much and justly esteemed and respected. Dr. O'Dell was connected by ties of relationship to almost all the families in the neighbourhood; to whom he was endeared, not only for his ability and skill as their principal attending physician for the last twenty-seven years, but also for his courteous and gentlemanly manners. As a professional man Dr. O'Dell possessed the rare qualities of making many friends through life, whose confidence he retained unshaken to his death. His remains were interred in the family vault, Ballingarry, on the 17th inst., attended by his many personal friends.

At Cardigan-street, Carlton, Melbourne, Victoria, in her 48th year, Rachel, the beloved wife of Mr. John Lee, formerly of Limerick, deeply regretted by all who knew her. Her end was peace.

At Bournemouth, Richard D. Grubb, Esq., of Castlegrace, Clogheen, county Tipperary.

At Teignmouth, Devon, T. T. Abbott, Esq., late Coroner of the county Tipperary.

At Rathmines-road, Dublin, Wm. White, Esq., of the Bank of Ireland.

At Blackrock, near Dublin, Charles Holmes, Esq., J.P., of Lansdowne-parade, Cheltenham, and late of Prospect, King's County.

At Stoneville, Rochestown, Colonel Pratt, H.M. 11th Foot, retired, son of the late General Pratt, of the Royal Irish Artillery.

At Comber, county Down, Robert Andrews, Esq., Q.C., LL.D., of Mountjoy-square, Dublin.

At Carlow, John Hancock Haughton, Esq.

At Kilmainham Wood, county Meath, Elizabeth, relict of the late Rev. Thomas Forster.

At Sydney, New South Wales, James Atkinson, Esq., of Monkstown, county Dublin.

At Emilla, near Dingle, Mr. Michael M'Donnell, P.L.G.

At Portadown, Eliza, widow of the late Henry Clendinning, Esq., Wheatfield, county Armagh.

At Coolehill, county Cavan, Mr. Francis A. Finlay, late of the Inland Revenue.

At Killeshandra, county Cavan, Sarah A. Clemenger, wife of Mr. Wm. Clemenger.

At Unicarville, Comber, Eliza, widow of the late William Graham, Esq., of Lisburn.

At Brighton, Frederick Hampden Phillips, son of Lieut. Colonel Henry Phillips, of Sproughton, near Ipswich.

At Trinidad de Cuba, Wm. Sidney Smith, Esq., her Britannic Majesty's Vice-Consul for that place.

to Listowel, between the en presentment road in Tullig from Abbeyfeale to Glin, in rony of Glenquin—No. 4—

Feb. 23

TO BE

FROM THE 25TH

For such terms as may HOUSE AND DEMESNE

In the County

Near the Post Town of

THE HOUSE, which the River Shannon, Harbour, consists of Draw and Study, en suite, with and hall on first floor; six up stairs; a basement stor- vants' rooms, and several u-

The Out-Offices consist of House, and another large of a Stable, if required, and large well-stocked Kitchen high wall, one side of which with several fine Peach tree

About thirty Acres of la would be let with the Hou

There is very good shooti in the neighbourhood, and Application to be made to

DR. RICHARD

Clare View, Feb. 16th,

Feb. 18.

TO BE

THE HOUSE, No. 9, LIME

WITH STORE AT RERE, well requiring spacious accommo

Store, 36 feet long, and th Dwelling by a Closet and

per annum. Application to EDWARD S

September 15.

County of

TO BE

With Parlian

A YEARLY FEE FA (subject to a head

able out of the Lands of Fe of Lower Connelloe, and C

Lands contain 197a. 2r. which Griffith's Valuation

Apply to

Messrs ROC

February 23.