comfort. M. J. M'Donnell, P.P., V.F., Listowel, Kerry."

(From the Rev. M. KENNIFECK, P.P.)

"Allow me to express my satisfaction for the Spectacles supplied by Mr. SOLOMONS; I have great comfort with them. They enable me to read with most perfect ease, creating a refreshing coolness, without the slightest sensation of pain or lassitude to the eye.

"MAURICE KENNIFECK, P.P.

"Rathcormac, county Cork."

The REV. PATRICK M'KEON, P.P., having suffered for a very lengthened period from extremely impaired sight, occasioned by constant reading, applied to Mr. Solomons for a pair of his celebrated spectacles, which have rendered so much service to his eyes as to cause him to be grateful—his sight is much improved.—The Rev. Mr. M'Keon is happy in thus being able to discharge a duty to the public by confirming, in his own case, the opinion so universally entertained of "Solomons' Spectacles," as he had previously experienced much injury and annoyance from glasses and pebbles purchased at other houses.—Drumlish, Longford.

Mr. E. SOLOMONS' Spectacles have been used by eminent members of the Faculty, the Nobility, Clergy, &c., including—The Lord Chief Justice of Ireland, Lords Clonbrock, Crofton, Dunboyne, Athlumney, the Deans of Ossory, Drumore, Clogher, Waterford, &c., &c.

The limits of an advertisement preclude the possibility of publishing the numerous Testimonials which are in Mr. SOLOMONS' possession, from other distinguished persons, and from eminent members of the Faculty of the United Kingdom.
