

aphatically calls into question what my letter." I return the complicance, though he is ready to "swear are" that all he states is perfectly gentleman must have recourse to in declarations" for the veracity of e must, indeed, be in a sad plight, nd well-minded portion of the pub-
the word of any honourable or honest
"I must have been blind not to have nd deaf not to have heard one of rike his friend's hat." I am really y man in his senses could have ha-above lines, and I am at a loss whe-
a them as the aberrations of a dis-
a tissue of wilful falsehood.

eral cars upon the road, all going at yet, riding as I was, at "one side,"
g at full speed—the people shout-ave heard a stone strike his friend's fr. Gault! Again, "four bloody struck him were on his side of the ere all thrown from "behind," and ording to the ordinary laws of ave fallen upon the road—at least n contact with his chin and hand.
dy stones" must have each inflicted
—or all must have fallen upon Mr.
erwise how could they have been nd!

staff—
'd by miracle—I am eight times doublet, four thro' the hose—my gh and through—my sword hacked

ecce signum—

Behold my Chin!

torical flourishes may do we for th, for the true blues of Stockport, Exeter Hall—but I promise him,
for what they are worth, by the ant clergymen and gentlemen, who
Mr. Gault will, I am sure, visit e April meetings, and exhibit, to ation of his admirers, the wounds ers of the Redemptorist Fathers at the mission; but one drop of e golden bottle will cure for him—
t hoc genus omne":—

e choleric and the phthisic."
uch men—for it is to such men,
ch men—the very best of physick."
tters states that about "five hun-ompanied the Fathers on leaving my puts down "thousands." Such a ers proves the recklessness of their ows that "the window breaking—g, and all other insults offered to ould be received with caution and tion to the parties who have made hat instead of a tirade of abuse and I expected letters of thanks from ners, whose future productions on ill not condescend to notice.

Your's truly,
JAMES HICKEY, P.P.

In the parish church, Randalstown, county Antrim, Mr. Wm. Price, Portadown, to Lizzie Shaw, daughter of Gustavus Tew, Esq., Feebogue Cottage.

At Croydon, Charles Denis Potts, Esq., late Lieutenant 93rd Highlanders, son of the late George Potts, Esq., M.P., Barnstaple, Devon, to Mary, daughter of the Rev. Henry Mitchell, of Croydon.

At St. Stephen's, Paddington, London, Major George Stoddart Whitmore, late 62nd Regt., to Isabella, daughter of the late Wm. Smith, Esq., of Roxeth, Harrow.

At Wolbrough, Devonshire, St. John Vincent Day, C.E., of Glasgow, son of the late Captain Day, 11th Regt., to Charlotte, daughter of W. J. Watts, Esq., J.P., Forde House, Newton Abbot.

At Brisbane, Queensland, John Taylor, Esq., son of Andrew Taylor, merchant, Edinburgh, to Eliza, daughter of the late D. Hennessy, Esq., of Raheen, county Cork.

DEATHS.

Yesterday, at his residence, in Bowman-street (Vise's Fields), aged 35 years, Doctor Timothy O'Kelly, an old and respected inhabitant of the city. In former years he carried on one of the most extensive apothecary establishments in Limerick.

On the 21st instant, at Waterloo-avenue, North Strand, Dublin, after a short but painful illness, John de Courcy, only and beloved son of P. de Courcy Sheehy, Esq., formerly of this city.

At Corrig-avenue, Kingstown, after a few hours' illness, of congestion of the brain, Ellen, youngest surviving daughter of the late John Lee, Esq., of Limerick.

At Kingstown, Doctor Ferdinand John Jencken.

At Kingstown, Catherine Louisa, relict of the late Captain James Wolfe, Royal Navy.

At Kingstown, Frances Margaret, daughter of Francis Brown, Esq., R.N., Commander of H.M.'s cutter Stag.

At Harrington-street, Dublin, Susan Sabina, widow of the late Rev. P. Malone, and daughter of the late G. Colgan, Esq.

At Phiborough-road, Dublin, Kate, daughter of John Dignam, Esq., Rathfeigh House, county Meath.

At Richmond-hill, Rathmines, Fanny, wife of Stephen A. MacIvor, Esq., and daughter of the late Castleton Maw, Esq., M.D., of Seaview, Gorey, county Wexford.

At Blackhall-street, Dublin, Patrick Joseph, son of the late Mr. Richard Hart, of that city.

At Merrion-avenue, Blackrock, county Dublin, Frances, wife of Mr. Wm. Carter, builder.

At Tuam, Bella Jane, only child of Henry A. Blake, Esq., Sub-Inspector of Constabulary.

At Mountmellick, Frances, relict of the late Digby Odium, Esq., of Ballybrittain, King's County.

At his father's residence, Lisburn, Mr. Richardson Bell.

Suddenly, at Hoxton-square, London, Thomas Duthoit, Esq., late Principal of the Bank Stock Office, Bank of England.

At Cole-green, Hertford, Lieutenant-Colonel Charles Bailey, late of the Royal Engineers.

At Bath, Colonel Henry Madox, K.H., formerly commanding the 6th Inniskilling Dragoons.

At Edinburgh, the Hon. and Rev. John Sandilands, rector of Coston, Leicestershire.

At Lower Sydenham, Kent, Colonel W. C. P. Elliott, late Royal Marines.

At Ovington Rectory, Essex, Mary, wife of the Rev. Chas. J. Fisher, and daughter of the late Rear-Admiral Sir E. Travers, K.H.

At Surbiton, Captain Francis Harrison, late of the 1st Bengal Fusiliers, son of the late Richard Harrison, Esq., of Gray's Inn, London.

At Lindores House, Fifeshire, Dame Catherine Connor or Maitland, relict of the late Admiral Sir Frederick Lewis Maitland, K.C.B.

At Armathwaite Castle, Cumberland, F. Shawe, Esq., late Captain 17th Lancers.

At Inglewood, Australia, Frederick W. Owen, son of the Rev. Frederick Owen, of Aghold Rectory, county Wicklow.

At Boulogne-sur-Mer, France, Caroline Mary, relict of Claude Carrie, Esq., late Physician-General H.M.'s Madras Army.

At Dacca, Bengal, John Palmer Hampton, Esq., son of the late Major-General Robert Hampton.

On his passage home from Calcutta, on board the ship Trafalgar, Edward John Algernon Smith, Esq., 97th Regt.

Killed in the defence of the Fort of Dewangiri, Shooter, John Henry Drouhart, Lieutenant Royal Engineers, son of the late Adam Drouhart, Esq., Sheriff of Wiltown.

Limerick, 22nd Ma

PIANO

HARRI

SALE

CORBET

INVITE attention
and extensive St Improvements. Amor
finished Three ur Upright
PIANOS, IN WA

all wit
Broadwood, Coll
Ab FINE FOR
by the best
A L
SECOND -

At ve
A
NEW AND SECON
by Al
TO BE SOI

Two London 7
NEW MUS
Music
108, G E O

To all who w
Ma

G L O R N E Y ' S
Has long b
PURITY, PUNGE
F

THE ONLY A
Manufactu

THE encourage principle upon w depends, and should
all who uphold this d

THE BROWI
Are the qualities spec
at the rate of 2s. 4d.,
MANUFACTOI

To be had of all Gr
A trial of Glorn
respectfully solicited,
January 28.