

first introduced simple modification worn, pre- a small cottage so much as the tain is a small ed an imitation lled on the bon- home-made ap- opted by any one nt in straw than m can be applied e usually made. eans disappeared y for young ladies rhaps, rather too me much altera- variety than ever s are often placed the hat ; they are se broad brim, is rs, fruit, or straw ered so dressy as amings are gene- ribbon or velvet inconvenient to t to arrange grace- they are called, hall be very sorry would not be for onvenient in wet e generally made ithout any hem ; likely be hemmed, ip to keep the veil ed tulle are still are happy to find ercents, and coins h on the decrease ; of course, adopted ny time sufficient lady of good taste st of the Highland portamen, so much ilt to find anything sport hitherto, not- been capital. Mr. er Auchnafree and ell shot on Garrows, airns, M.P, had 34 adicting a rumour ry the Princess Isa- hand is intended for gest uncle married a a that all the details peror and the Queen that their Majesties be 10th.

MARRIAGES.

At the Roman Catholic Church, Milltown, county Kerry, Richard Harrold, Esq., M.D., Castleisland, to Ellen, daughter of Cornelius Murphy, Esq., merchant, Milltown.

At the Roman Catholic Church, Gort, John M'Dermott, Esq., Salt-hill, Galway, to Anne Mary, daughter of James Slator, Esq., Gort.

At Monkstown Church, county Dublin, Shephard Jones, Esq., of Ballycauew, county Wexford, to Matilda, daughter of the late Wm. Nicholson, Esq., of Rathmines, Dublin.

In the Centenary Chapel, Dublin, Mr. John C. Craig, to Mary A. Jepson, both of Dublin.

In Fisherwick-place Church, Belfast, John Arnott Taylor, Esq., son of David Taylor, Esq., J.P., Bertha House, to Annie E. Walton, daughter of Dr. Samuel Browne, R.N., Donegall-square, Belfast.

At Londonderry, the Rev. John Kinnear, of Letterkenny, to Mary, daughter of the late Wm. Osborne, Esq., of Springtown House, Londonderry.

At St. Mark's Church, London, James Good, Esq., Staff Assistant Surgeon, to Laura Mary, daughter of Cammissary-General Drake, C.B.

At Thornton Magna, Suffolk, the Rev. Frederick John Ramsden, Rector of Uffington, Lincolnshire, to Anna Cassandra, daughter of the late Rear-Admiral the Hon. M. Hen- niker.

At St. Paul's, Hammersmith, London, Richard Millish, son of the late Henry Power, Esq., of Melbourne, Australia, and grandson of Thomas Power, M.D., of Cork, to Ellen Fanny Gleave, of Gresham Villas, Dalston.

At Auckland, New Zealand, Matthew D. Spriggs, Esq., late of Newcastle-on-Tyne, to Catherine, daughter of Alexander Bradley, Esq., late of Saintfield, county Down.

DEATHS.

At Clonmel, Jane, wife of Richard C. Chute, Esq.

At Mallow Edward Farmer, Esq., solicitor, Chairman of the Town Commissioners.

At White's-lane, Perry-square, in the 85th year of his age, Mr. Andrew O'Kennedy, mathematical teacher, for many years engaged in the education of youth in this city.

On Sunday morning, Mrs. Hogan, of Kilmastilla, Birdhill, county Tipperary.

At Templemore, Mr. Patrick Kirwan, son of Mr. Michael Kirwan, pawnbroker.

At Blackrock, Cork, Miss Catherine Wigmore

At South Anne-street, Dublin, Anne, relict of Patrick Fogarty, Esq., of Cebra Castle, co. Tipperary.

On the 26th inst., at No. 9, Richmond-place, Rathmines, Dublin, aged six months, Arthur Albert, the infant son of Charles Owens, Esq.

At Raglan-road, Dublin, Elizabeth, widow of W. Stewart, Esq., late Major Donegal Militia.

At Westfield Lodge, Blackrock, co. Dublin, Mary, daughter of the late Dr. Allen, of Gardiner-street, Dublin.

At Clontarf, Captain Lawless, R.N.

At Great Britain-street, Dublin, the widow of Lieutenant Thomas Hill, R.N.

At Great Brunswick-street, Dublin, Mary, wife of Mr. P. Brennan.

At Dundalk, Anne, relict of John Byrne, Esq., solicitor, and Coroner for the county of Louth.

Mrs. Parkinson Ruxton, of Red House, Ardee, widow of the late W. Parkinson Ruxton, Esq.

At Everton-terrace, Crumlin-road, Belfast, John Aickin, Esq., surgeon.

At Constantinople, of cholera, Joseph Brabazon Grant, M.D., son of the Rev. Joseph Brabazon Grant, Rector of Rathconrath, county Westmeath.

At Gordon House, Isleworth, the Honourable Mr. Justice Haliburton.

At Carlton Park, Northamptonshire, Sir John H. Palmer, Bart.

At Weymouth, John Archer, son of Henry S. Collins, R.N.

At Etham, Dr. David King.

At Homburg les Baines, Nathaniel Crumpe Bland, Esq., late of Randall's-park, Surrey.

At Nainee Tal, Bengal, Lieut.-Colonel M. B. Whish, of the late 29th Bengal N.I.

At New York, James Taylor, Esq., son of the late Rev. John Taylor, Rector of Rossory, co. Fermanagh.

At Nelson, New Zealand, Marmaduke, son of the late Com- mander Sellon.

August 22.

WANTON OUTRAGE.—The Southern R that on Sunday evening, while the congr assembled for service in the Scotch Cl street, Cork, and when the minister had a most impressive part of the discourse, son hurled a stone through one of the win fortunately, only struck a lady on the s caused the utmost consternation in Every effort should be made, and a rewa discover who it is that can be capable of s Only a short time since nearly an enti the same building was demolished.

THE ARREST OF AN ALLEGED FENIAN E The Kilkenny Moderator says that on last, an arrest was made by the Instioge strange circumstances. It appears that ning a man named Robert Knox, residr in that district, went to the barracks, and Sub-constable Mellon—who has been for charge of the station during the absence the constable—and reported that an att made on him, and a severe wound infi previous evening, at a place called Ed had been employed as a harvest reape named Henry Hayes. Hayes, it was engaged amongst the reapers in an ac and came to accuse Knox, who is a pensi a Government spy against him, and of using at the time the most insulting language towards the Queen and Gov ending by inflicting a severe cut upon h reaping hook. Sub-constable Mellon at the complainant to Dr. Thompson, to examined, and so far the statement was as the doctor pronounced the wound to long and half an inch deep, and stated not certify the man's life not to be in services of A. Hamilton, Esq., J.P., in requisition, and that gentleman ha informations of Knox, issued a warrant of his assailant. Mellon, then, taking constables Fennelly, Molony, and E in pursuit of the accused, and that ni ceeded in apprehending Hayes, in bed, district, named Ballinakill, On Sat brought before Mr. Hamilton, who dec bail for his appearance until the doc nounce his patient out of danger, an the prisoner was remanded to Thomast for further examination, where he still

That portion of the Enniskillen, I Sligo line that connects the Irish Nort way at Irvinstown-road station will expected to be opened in the course of

At Chelmsford petty-sessions, Mr. respectable farmer, was fined £10 for recent order in council, by not causi had died of the cattle plague to be bu mises, Mr. Seabrook pleaded igt order of council.