

ing the present in firm inmates allowance of 2s. a week out-door d from Mr. Delmege as to the should receive out-door relief.

people sustain themselves outside classes whom he (Mayor) cone out-door relief were struggling r more legitimate children de-persons incapacitated by accident from contributing to their own ort.

at three out of a hundred who ef ever applied for admission to ffered it their answer was, "To house; we have a house of our y we want."

I., concurred in almost all the eport. He entirely concurred in g to building. Building had been there was really danger of over-and limited space they had to e bread, he entirely agreed with supply could be continued equal mitted, the second quality was As to skim milk, it was given in ouses, and was found to reduce he question of tea for the infirm en the board and the doctor. He n further, except to say that it was e estimates, but the difficulty re-actual reduction of the expendionly be accomplished by the most ny of the details (hear, hear).— anticipated reduction in the numnsidered Dr Parker's calculation er way would be to take the ave-house during the past year, as ame period last year. The con-gain, when stated in an off-hand id 9 bottles for two months, no ge, but after all it was only ten sh, with 700 patients in hospital, e a quantity as at first sight it Bourke then proceeded to answer rks with regard to the estimate ng that they were founded upon atter of account with a matter of they would find that the electoral charged with 5½d a week, which r and tear of clothing.

impress on them the necessity of would enable them to meet the without having to go, from quar-g from their treasurer.

l into some explanations respects regards some of the minor elecveen the estimated rate for the t for the year gone by. As to of expenditure he calculated that

Wynyard, son of the late Lieut.-General Wynyard, C.B., to Gertrude Maria, daughter of the late Major J. England, 76th Regiment.

At Leigh, Worcestershire, Wm. George, son of the Hon. V.
Coventry, of Earls Croom Court, Worcestershire, to Francis Cecilia, daughter of Thomas Norbury, Esq., of Sherrid, House, same county.

At Barnstaple, John Alexander Clements, C.E., to Charlotte Elizabeth, daughter of the late Wm. Mannix, Esq., of Mahon Abbey, county Cork.

At Angel-town, Brixton, Alfred John, son of Wm. Henr.
Flood, Esq., formerly of Dublin, deceased, to Ellen, daughter of Charles Cobby, Esq., of Brighton.

At Bishops Lydeard, Somersetshire, Cuthbert E. Buckle, Esq., Lieutenant Royal Navy, to Mary Charlotte, daughter of the late Henry Gardiner, Esq., H.E.I.C. Civil Service.

DEATHS.

Suddenly, at his residence, Clontibret, in the 82nd year of his age, the Venerable John A. Russell, Archdeacon of Clogher, son of the late Abraham Russell, Esq., Sheriff of the City of Limerick in 1799. This worthy old gentleman lived esteemed and died regretted by his many friends and relatives.

May 2nd, at the house of her son-in-law, Francis McG.
Eagar, Esq., Anna Sarah, widow of F. J. Holden, Esq., Mus.
Doc., aged 70 years.

At 22, Wellington-road, Dublin, after a tedious illness, Maria, widow of the late Bindon Blood, Esq., Deputy Lieutenant, Cranaher, county Clare.

April 23, after a short illness, Robert, third son of Robert Crawley, Esq., Minister-place, Kilkee, deeply regretted by all who knew him.

In Clare-street, on Friday, Mr. James Morony, late Clerk of the Limerick Markets.

At 88, Windsor-road, Holloway, London, on the 27th April, John, eldest son of the late James Denniston, Esq., formerly of O'Brien's Bridge.

At Hull, on the 28th April, Gertrude, and on the 1st May, Edith, aged 5½ months, twin daughters of Thomas Colgan, Esq., of that place.

At Porchester-square, London, Emma Crosbie, daughter of the late Hon. Lindsey Burrall, of Stoke Park, Ipswich, and wife of Wm. Talbot Crosbie, Esq., D.L., of Ardferd Abbey, co. Kerry.

At Clonmel, the Rev. Wm. Newstead Faulkner, late rector of Newchapel, county Tipperary.

In Mary-street, Clonmel, Miss Susan Keily.

At Killaloe, Mr. Sylvester Hurley, aged 73 years.

At Carmelford, county Cork, Patrick T. Hennessy, Esq.

At Shanakiel, Carrick-on-Suir—the residence of his uncle, John De Courcy Hearn, Esq.—Lionel Stephens.

At Fethard, county Tipperary, Mr. James Dwyer.

At Flesk, Killarney, Mr. Laurence Cronin, aged 98.

At Richmond-hill, Dublin, Maria, widow of John Lane, Esq., of Bowerville, Donnybrook.

At Belgrave-square, Rathmines, Dublin, Captain M'Intyre, late of the 86th Regt.

At Wellington-road, Dublin, Agnes, daughter of the late Patrick Cartan, Esq.

At Coolayna, county Kildare, Frederick Evandale Gettin, son of Frederick Fownes Hamilton, Esq.

At Antrim, the Rev. Alexander Mackey.

At Park-square West, Regent's-park, London, W. Williams, Esq., M.P. for Lambeth.

At St. Lawrence, Kent, Lady Charlotte Ashburnham, eldest daughter of George, third Earl of Ashburnham.

At Douglas, Isle of Man, Isabella, wife of Capt Anderson, 32nd Light Infantry.

At Napier, New Zealand, Captain Octavius J. B. Marsh, late 65th Regt.

At Bombay, Frederic, son of George Smith, Esq., of Lower Baggot-street, Dublin.

At Bombay, Harriett, wife of Norman Washington Oliver, Esq., Senior Magistrate of Bombay; also, Norman Washington Oliver, Esq.

HAS received instru going to reside in Unreserved Auction, at 53, THOM (whither they have been

ON THURSDAY

The following Val
Very handsome walnu back and panels; 6 ver elegantly upholstered in nut drawing-room cent chimney glasses in gilt hair cloth and American carved mahogany pedest and work tables, very h first class Brussels, and rugs to match; mahogai robes, presses, dressing basin stands and ware, c and clothes horses, mah quality feather beds a quilts, blankets, and cou bath; oil paintings, eng variety of useful sundries

Sale at

Terms at Sale.

EDM

A very excellent new, by Smith & Co., improvements.

May 4

Sherif

RICHAR

PL

WILLIAM

Def

BY Virtue of her
FACIAS to me on Saturday, the 6th day Set up and Sell by Public sidence, at Patrick-stree
STOCK

AS

As also a L

FUR

Seized by me Dated this 3rd day of

She

Term

May 4.