

argument of some weight had, perhaps, been omitted, and might be properly introduced into the memorial. The depreciation of railway property arising from the absence of uniformity and mutual co-operation had the effect of checking railway enterprise, and thus injuriously affected the interests of the labouring poor.

Thirty-four Irish Members voted in the division on Mr. Newdegate's motion for a Select Committee to inquire into the existence, character, and increase of Monastic and Conventual establishments in Great Britain.

There were against the motion 24—viz, Francis Bernard Beamish, Richard Montesquieu Bellew, John Aloysius Blake, Sir George Bowyer, Dr Brady, Viscount Castlerosse, Sir George Conway Colthurst, Right Hon. Chichester Fortescue, Major Gavin, John Greene, William Henry Gregory, Colonel Fulke Greville, John Pope Hennessy, Nicholas Philpot Leder, Robert Longfield, Edward M'Evoy, John Francis Maguire, Nicholas Daniel Murphy, Sir Patrick O'Brien, Right Hon. Richard More O'Ferrall, Myles William O'Reilly, William Pollard-Urquhart, Francis W. Russell, Vincent Scully.

For the motion, 10—viz. Captain Mervyn Archdall, Hon. Henry Cole, Hon. John Lowry Cole, Samuel Gibson Getty, Lord Claud Hamilton, Hon. Major Stuart Knox, Anthony Lefroy, Edward O'Neill, Robert Torrena, John Vance.

THE UNION BANK OF IRELAND.

A Drogheda correspondent supplies the following:—

TESTIMONIAL.—W. C. Joyce, Esq., who is at present manager for the Union Bank at Limerick, and who occupied a like position in the Belfast Bank here for the last eighteen years, was waited on by appointment in Mr. Simcock's hotel, by a number of the merchants and gentry of Drogheda, on the part of a large number who subscribed to a testimonial in the shape of a very beautiful service of plate, purchased from West and Son, of Dublin, for the purpose of presentation to him as a mark of esteem and respect.

Amongst those present were—James Matthews J.P., Mayor; C B Powell, R Richardson, J Deane, J J Young, J Bolton, R Petland, M.D, R Rugelzy, W Singleton, R B Dayly, N. Greer, W Emerson, P Ternan, J.P., P. Verdon, J.P., T. Hammond, J.P. &c. &c.

The plate consisted of teapot, coffeepot, sugarbowl, cream-ewer, and a magnificently chased salver, on which was an inscription.

Added to this was a beautifully illuminated address, which did great credit to the eminent firm of Marcus Ward and Co, Belfast.

The address, at the request of the Committee, was read by Mr K B Daly, T C, after which Mr Joyce received the congratulations of his friends, and replied in a suitable manner.

A sumptuous dejeuner was then partaken of.

Blackwell, Esq., Toureen Cottage, Ennistymon, to Margaret Mary, daughter of the late Joseph Barrett, Esq., of Ennis.

At the Roman Catholic Cathedral, Plymouth, W. Connolly, Esq., M.D., Royal Marine Light Infantry, to Jessie Catherine, daughter of B. Townshend, Esq., of Stoke Devonport, Superintending Civil Engineer H.M.'s Naval Establishment, Devonport and Keyham.

At St. James's Church, Plymouth, Edward C. Smyth, Esq., R.N., to Mary Mackenzie, daughter of Captain L. Roberts, Royal Navy.

At St. Mary's, Bridgewater, W. L. Farmer, Esq., Assistant Surgeon 29th Regt., to Louisa Ann, daughter of W. Webb, Esq., Hereford.

At Cheltenham, Captain W. Graham, R.N., son of Major-General J. Graham, to Florinda Mary Cobbe, daughter of W. D. Littledale, Esq.

At Walcot Church, Bath, C. E. Martyn, Esq., the Carabniers, to Gertrude, daughter of the late W. Hudleston, Esq., Madras Civil Service.

At Brockenhurst, Captain F. G. Ravenhill, Royal Horse Artillery, to Alice, daughter of N. B. Smith, Esq., of Brockenhurst Lodge, Hants.

At Bridstow, Herefordshire, L. P. Walsh, Captain R.A., son of Major L. Walsh, R.A., of Datchet, Bucks, to Lydia, daughter of the late R. Allen, Esq., sergeant-at-law.

At Bellary, Madras, Captain J. T. Daubuz, 11th Brigade Royal Artillery, to Julia Mary, daughter of the late Francis F. Tuke, Esq.

At St. Thomas, Danish West Indies, Wm. Charles Lamb, son of Robert Boyd Lamb, Esq., Her Britannic Majesty's Consul, to Clara, youngest daughter of Sigismund Rothschild, Esq., K.D.

At Futteghur, India, W. H. Tyrrell, Esq., of the Bengal Civil Service, to Julia, daughter of the late Lieut.-Colonel Wakefield, of the Indian Army.

DEATHS.

January 6th, at Delhi, India, in the prime of life, deeply regretted by his brother officers and numerous friends, Richard White, Esq., M.D., Assistant-Surgeon 23rd Royal Welsh Fusiliers, youngest son of the late John White, Esq., solicitor, North Great George's-street, Dublin, and grandson of Henry White, Esq., formerly of this city.

In George-street, very much regretted, Anastatia, the beloved wife of Mr. John Walsh, watchmaker and jeweller.

At her residence in Thomond-gate, Mrs. Kenyon, mother of the Rev. John Kenyon, P.P., Templeberry.

At Passage West, co. Cork, Anne, wife of D. Heagerty, Esq.

At Nile-street, Cork, Eliza Percy, daughter of the late Mr. James Percy, of that city.

At Evergreen Cottage, Cork, Louisa Daly, daughter of Mr. Denis Daly.

At Barrack-street, Nenagh, John Barr, Esq.

At the Presentation Convent, Bandon, Fanny Murphy, in religion Sister Mary Agnes John.

At Peafield-terrace, Blackrock, Dublin, Mary, relict of the late Captain Browne, of the Cork Militia.

At Pitt-street, Dublin, Mrs. Teresa Logan, wife of Mr. Wm. Logan.

At Seville-place, Dublin, Margaret, wife of Mr. Henry Jebb Jones.

At Langrishe-place, Dublin, Mrs. Jane Maria O'Connor, wife of Mr. Bryan O'Connor.

At Lisduff, county Fermanagh, Hester, wife of Captain J. E. Matthews, late 14th Regt.

At Sussex-square, Hyde-park, London, Annie Montague, daughter of Major-General J. Ramsay.

At St. Ann's-terrace, Fulham, St. A. B. St. John, late Capt. 6th Royals.

At Woolwich-common, David Archibald, youngest child of Major-General E. Warde, Royal Artillery.

At Campden-hill, Kensington, London, Captain Gordon Gallie Macdonald, R.N.

At Bradley Rectory, Derbyshire, Mary, widow of the late Captain Thomas Archer, R.N.

At Kidbrooke-terrace, Blackheath, Mary Sarah, relict of the late Amos Greenslade, Esq., of Longlands, Foot's Cray, Kent, and daughter of the late Colonel Clarke, of Portland-square, Bristol.