

absent from home. (who has just returned to the household, together with servants. He drove and from thence During his visit to had been warned that and the lady a the consternation of ved what they were a police inspector, body of Coast-guard and his wife's par- the rencontre would doctor also displayed ule departed at an ing. The husband is with a view of collect- may next hear of this of the Divorce Court.

AND AS IT WAS.

important to pass over stance occurred in con- of Tipperary for which division of the county ours were sufficient for usness, and there was en, for two years. The st has been, amounts fter the lapse of seven ce to be investigated may be said that this mo may, to some ex- rit of the people being shipships to which they he fall in the value out there is no ul improvement in the ed by the benefits of al, in discharging the hope that this almost ld continue; while, at contrast to the existing d in the civil business would be some records hat used to be the posi- was formerly almost a and violence; and even 1848 there were in the prisoners, no less than with conspiracy to mur- en 31 cells in the same s all charged with the government to abolish stralia has given great

JOHN HILL, Bart., of a daughter.

At Ryde, Isle of Wight, the wife of Major De Vere, Royal Engineers, of a daughter.

At Bath, the wife of Captain T. B. Fanshawe, 33rd Regt., of a daughter.

At Paris, the wife of Lieut.-Colonel Cowper, Bombay Staff Corps, of a son.

At the Royal Dockyard, Chatham, the wife of John R. Holman, M.D., of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

At St. Leonard's-on-Sea, Conway E. Dobbs, of North Great George's-street, Dublin, son of Conway E. Dobbs, Esq., of Glendun Lodge, county Antrim, to Sara, daughter of S. K. Mulholland, Esq., of Eglantine, Hillsborough, co. Down.

In Ormond-quay Presbyterian Church, Dublin, Mr. Robert Stewart, of Dublin, to Eliza Creighton, daughter of the late Alexander Farquharson, Esq., of Edinburgh.

At Kingsdowne, near Dover, James Williamson, Esq., Capt. 23rd Royal Welsh Fusiliers, to Mary Jane, daughter of Thos. Sydenham Clarke, Esq., of Kingsdowne House, near Dover.

At Dryham, Gloucestershire, Napier Douglas Robinson, Esq., Captain 7th Royal Fusiliers, son of the late Sir George Best Robinson, Bart., to Sophia Jane Wemyss, daughter of the Rev. W. S. Robinson, rector of Dryham.

At Manchester, Charles A. Dufresne, Esq., of Montreal, Canada, to Adelaide, daughter of John Brennan, Esq., of Bray, county Wicklow.

In the Cathedral, Madras, John Herbert Latham, Esq., Fellow of Clare College, Cambridge, C.E., to Rosina Harriet, daughter of Lieut.-Colonel Henry Young, late of the 24th Regt., of Bedford.

DEATHS.

On the 16th inst., after a short illness, at his brother's residence, South Devon Terrace, Plymouth, John Jacob, the youngest and beloved son of Mr. Richard Wilson, merchant, of this city, aged 20 years.

At Banroe House, county Clare, Anne, wife of Matthew Purcell, Esq.

At Castle-street, Nenagh, Frances Elizabeth, daughter of John Ryan, Esq., solicitor.

In Wexford, at the residence of his father, John Greene, Esq., J.P., in the 25th year of his age, Matthew Saunders Greene, M.A., barrister-at-law.

At Pau, Basses Pyrenees, Claudine Alice, infant daughter of John Bagwell, Esq., Lisronagh, co. Tipperary.

At North Main-street, Cork, Mr. D. Mullane, T.C.

At Pinguas House, county Dublin, Miss Sarah Goode, late of Goodebrook, Delgany, county Wicklow.

At Summer-hill, Dublin, Thomas, son of Newenham E. E. Graydon, Esq.

At Lower Dorset-street, Dublin, Mary, relict of the late Joseph Cassin, Esq., of that city.

At Ardbraccan Lodge, Fanny, daughter of the late Thomas Everard, Esq., of Handillstown, county Meath.

The Rev. Daniel O'Reilly, C.C., Upper Lara, diocese of Kilmore.

At Urlingford, John Coyne, Esq., of Kilkenny.

At College-street, South, Belfast, Mr. John Willis.

Suddenly, at Shipboy street, Belfast, Lizzie, daughter of Mr. Thomas Crawford.

At Huntley, Banbridge, county Down, Miss Dunbar.

At Ardrea, Andrew J. Graham Ferguson, son of the Rev. W. S. Ferguson.

At Jermyn-street, London, James Wentworth Buller, Esq., M.P., of Downe, Crediton.

Lady Eustace, daughter of the late Admiral Sir Eliab Harvey, G.C.B.

At Brighton, Charlotte Andrews, daughter of the late Com- missary General Harold France.

At Paignton, Devon, George Atkinson, Esq., Commander Royal Navy.

At Nice, Margaret, wife of Captain Robert Watts, Retired List, Madras Army, and daughter of Willoughby Harcourt Carter, Esq., of New Park, county Dublin.

At Hyeres, France, Jane Martha Elizabeth, only child of Mrs. Joseph Thomas Armstrong, of Upper Leeson-street, Dublin.

OF SODA,

From John Bennet Lawes, Whose Several Manures for Turnip Potatoes, and Grass, now stand the Agricultural W

New Sowing Flax

This Seed is from the same high who supplied the large quantity so and which has met with such unqu

Early Seed Potatoes

In 10 Best Selected &

Linseed and Bean Meal, Bruise Parkes's celebrated Spades and Pruning Gloves and Knives, Fel Mats, with various other Farm and too numerous for insertion here.

All Packages of Garden value sent free to any railway stat

JOHN ABRAHAM is so Lawes' Manures, Bolton's Cure for in Cattle, and Bigg's Sheep Dippin

S. GEORGE S F.

Hay, Hay. H

Joseph Case

IS favored with instructions JOYNT, Esq., to Sell, by Publ On TUESDAY, 21st day of AT BROADFOE

County of Clare

ABOUT 20 TONS OF PR

which will be set up in Lots, to su of purchasers.

Sale at 1 o'Clock.— Tern

JOSEPH CAS

Rathkeale, March 18.

County of Limerick

TENDERS FOR C

THE Board of Superintende Meeting, to be held on Sa receive Tenders for Supplying the 60 Tons of Coal

Of such description as they Tenders, marked as such, and vered to the Governor, before 1 above day of meeting.

March 18.

Despatches received by the Fr state that there is no truth in the and serious disturbances in Algeri portion of the province of Con agitation still exist. But it ackno tribes are still suspected, and that therefore kept upon their movem