

sh, which refers to one of the clergy-a connection with the See, which we lays Constitution:—We understand names mentioned for the vacant is that of the Archdeacon of Tuam.
 be a better appointment, nor one accordance with the line of conduct his Government by Lord Derby, in in the House of Lords, and we at Archdeacon Cather will be the ry important diocese. Archdeacon orious life, and his success in the ilding and church extension, are hrough the diocese to need any men-need not refer to his experience and attainments of the clergy gathered me he has been examining chaplain and one of the rural deans of the is services in the Church has been to give him the strongest claim to tion. He has been ten years a rs vicar or rector, and ten years we believe, that fourteen of these in administering the extensive and union of Westport. The Irish oo many of her chief pastors who tments solely or chiefly to political only state the universal experience t these appointments have brought ad injury to the Church. We think ns to be proved that the ministers of "free churches" have any qualifiistering the affairs of any diocese, old imagine that success as a pror in a university, without any nce, would be a guarantee for episco-more common sense were shown in fer high office in the Irish Church hear of such men as Archdeacon to bishopric. We know that ap-is sort have been made with great sh in England, and we are sure that would similarly gain by this appoint-hear, is not unlikely."

CORK.

FLAX.

LETTERS TO FLAX GROWERS.

By buying any quantities of properly
FLAX STRAW, SCUTCHED FLAX, ETC.

Orders forwarded to our address will be filled, and a remittance immediately made of same.

WILLIS & POLLOCK,

CORK,

Agents of the Douglas Flax Mills.

to Margaret, daughter of the late Mr. Thomas Goodfellow, of Belfast.

In London, Patrick O'Hea, Esq., H.M.'s Civil Service, to Juliet, widow of the late Lucas Babington, Esq., of Cork, and daughter of the late James Woodforde, Esq., M.D., Hon.
 E.I.C.S.

At Sheffield, Daniel Telfer Arnold, Esq., late 76th Regt., to Agnes, daughter of William Corne, Esq., of Claremont, Sheffield.

At Kindroan, Perthshire, N.B., Francis Walter Balfour, Esq., of Fernie Castle, Fifeshire, late Major Rifle Brigade, to Jane Amelia, daughter of Patrick Small Keir, Esq., of Kindrogan.

At the British Embassy, Berlin, Major-General Sir Isaac
 Campbell Cappin, of H.M.'s Indian Army, to Catherine Eliza, daughter of the late Major John Shepherd, of the Madras Army.

At East Fourth-street, New York, Hamilton Waddell, of Brooklyn, son of David Waddell, Esq., of Seaford, county Down, to Mary, widow of Thomas Raven, of New York, and daughter of the late Archdeacon Hayden, of Derry.

At Melbourne, Francis Quinlan, Esq., barrister-at-law, eldest son of the late M. J. Quinlan, Esq., M.D., Thurles, county Tipperary, to Mary Anne, daughter of Michael Lynch, Esq., Grace Park, Melbourne.

At Brisbane, Mr. Robert Woodhead, iron-founder, formerly of Airdrie, Lanark, Scotland, to Miss Kane, recently of Gort, county Galway.

DEATHS.

On the 27th ult., at the Bank House, after a few days' illness, of apoplexy, aged 50 years, John Devitt, Esq., for nearly 19 years Manager of the National Bank in Nenagh.

At Tipperary, of scarlatina, Kate, second daughter, aged 2 years; on the 19th, Sydney Sybella, eldest daughter, aged 6 years; and on the 22nd, Patience, infant daughter of the Rev.
 Hugh S. W. Baker.

At Kiltrush, county Clare, Edward Foley, Esq., sincerely regretted.

At Kiltrush, Mrs. John M'Namara, an unostentatious benefactress to the poor.

James, eldest son of the late Mr. W. Loney, of Erryville, near Cashel.

At Youghal, county Cork, Maria, wife of Wm. C. Keys, Esq., solicitor.

At Exchange-street, Waterford, Alice, wife of Mr. Wm. J.
 Fagan.

Major Thomas Clark, 24th Regiment.

At Irishtown-road, Dublin, Mrs. Mary Anne Marson, widow of the late Captain Marson, 63rd Regt.

At Brighton-terrace, Bray, county Wicklow, Alexander Humfrey, solicitor, A.M., son of Benjamin Humfrey, Esq., solicitor, Eccles-street, Dublin.

At Caven-street, London, Colonel J. T. Mauleverer, C.B., officer of the Legion of Honour, eldest son of the late Rev. R.
 Mauleverer, rector of Tipperary.

At Highwood House, Hendon, Captain Robert Cecil Dent, late of H.M.'s 1st Light Cavalry, Indian Army.

At Northam House, New Cross, Captain William Hutton, R.M.L.I., of Ramsgate.

At his residence, at the Royal Kennels, Ascot, Mr. Charles Davis, late Huntsman to Her Majesty.

At New York, Mr. M. Fitzgerald, late of Adara, county Limerick.

At New York, Mr. W. Davis, late of Roscrea, county Tipperary.

At New York, Bridget, wife of Mr. M. Riordan, late of Tralee, county Kerry.

At New York, Patrick, son of Mr. M. O'Leary, late of Fer-moy, county Cork.

At New York, Mr. J. Lynes, late of Brooklawn, county Galway.

At New York, Mary, widow of John Kavanagh, Esq., of Ballyrop, county Kilkenny.

At Dorchester, U.S., Miss Maria S. Cummings, author of "The Lamplighter," and daughter of the late Judge David Cummings.

At Sydney, Australia, Mary, relict of Mr. P. Ryan, Clappell, Tipperary.

MESSRS. GEO

ARE OBLIGED T
 FINE

Awarded the Lon for the

that many inferio
 are pressed on Buy bearing Messrs. S taining common S

After this Noti fraud, to prevent Messrs. SAYER
 and CAPSULES, at bottles.

THE "KENS
 per lb. are being less liable
 Candles, and at the Field's patent h are also highly rec

Be
 26, PATRI

Ar
 THE LIMER
 have recently RIOR HOUSE C
 use, which they ar
 L

At which it is Steamship Office
 Limerick, 12t

Limerick D
 SEALED Tend
 Institution u
 Monday, the 5th D
 for the Attendant
 sample.

Proposals will Tons of the Best poses.

The lowest or s accepted.

November 1.

YOUR FUTU
 TRUE CA
 ARD, the Celebra Carte de Visite of and date of Marri
 answered for 2s. 6
 Send stamped
 HOWARD, Vict
 Hill, London.—