DEATHS.

This morning, at Glentworth-street, after a trying and protracted illness, which she bore with Christian patience and resignation, Sophia Deborah, the beloved daughter of Henry Brown, Esq., M.D.
On Sunday morning, Thomas, second son of Thomas Meehan, Esq., of Crossagalla Cottage, near this city, and nephew of the Rev. Dr. Meehan, P.P., St. Patrick's. The deceased, who was but 22 years of age, was a member of an old and respectable family, and his premature demise has created a deep void among a numerous circle of relatives and friends, to whom he was greatly endeared, and who, with his sorrowing parents, deplore his loss. The funeral cortege, which was large and most respectable, left at 3 o'clock yesterday for the family burial-ground at Donoughmore, attended by a large party of clergymen from Limerick and the surrounding parishes in the diocese.
On Saturday, May the 5th, at William-street, after a short illness, Mary, the beloved and devoted wife of Martin Carroll, Esq., to the inexpressible regret of her family and friends.
