DUBLIN CATTLE MARKET.

Ganly and Co's Circular.

Beasts, shown as fat, 2,748; but two thirds of the number only could with justice be called butcher's beasts. Sheep and lambs, including stores, ewes, and wethers, 5,434. Veal calves, 103. In the so-called store market 467 beasts were shown, but a large number of this class was sold in the pens before the hour of selling. In consequence of the report of a heavy, low market over the water, the necessity of the closing autumn season, and scarcity of grass for a large number on market, a reduction in beef of from 25s to 30s per head had to be submitted to, the best barely making 65s per cwt. Prime aged wether mutton, 8d; ewe and hogget, 7d to 7½d. per lb. Veal 6d to 8d per lb. Breeding ewes of ordinary quality were sought after, and fair prices given, at about 5s to 7s under last year, when panic stricken cattle feeders ran wildly into sheep, fearing the madderpest, now, happily, nearly extinct, and Ireland free from even the suspicion of that epidemic.

The corn trade experienced a slight excitement during the last few days, which was by no means warranted by actual damage. The high winds accompanying the rains, steadily drying up the damp and preventing sprouting, no serious injury to affect prices has as yet been done.

Money cheap, and affairs thoroughly purged of fictitious monetary pretensions. We have peace of all nations, and a growing disposition to replace the war of the sword with a war of honourable mercantile competition, founded on mutually beneficial traffic.

Wool has held its own in the late immense sales of colonial, and now promises well for the home-grown long combing sorts, which foreigners have not been able to substitute. Standing price, 1s 9d to 1s 10d.

Green crops everywhere abundant, and stall-feeding cattle already gradually sought after.

CORK CORN MARKET.

White wheat, 11s 0d to 13s 0d; red do, 9s 6d to 11s 2d; tawney oats, 7s 2d; barley, 8s 8d to 9s 0d; white oats, 7s 0d to 8s 0d.

CORK BUTTER MARKET.

Firsts, 11s; seconds, 110s; thirds, 101s; fourths, 92s; fifths, 82s; sixths, 66s. Mild cured—Firsts 121s; seconds, 118s; thirds, 113s. 2,191 firkins in market.

A meeting of the Cork Flax Company was held on yesterday. In moving the adoption of the report, the Chairman, Mr. Maguire, adverted to the difficulties the enterprise had to encounter at the outset and which have been successfully overcome. Already £46,639 of the capital has been freely paid up, and they had an average of 2,000 spindles at work. A dividend of six per cent. was declared, which affords a gratifying proof that the efforts of the Company to introduce this useful branch of industry into the city have been completely successful.
