

... into the rear of the Austrian growing broader and driven in instant was forced into the very army, separating it at the heart and centre from the right. The and left are dismayed at bearing their rear, and are soon exposed most of all destroys the morale y shaken by surprise. The roken up and discomfited hurry ue road in something like confu among the reserves of centre gular lines of the columns below ng up, and are at last swallowed ultitude. Officers gallop to res- a regiments hold together though en in heaps every instant. The ed in its onward progress. The erals in front of them and on the e enemy waver, throw their batta- and encourage their artillery to the formidable Austrian cavalry y or enthusiastic demonstrations ght, whom long-continued fight- esses must have somewhat ener-was hope for the Austrians! Then out wheeled a force of horse with a Kellerman or a Seidlitz could and saved an empire. There, still least 40,000 men, of whom scarcely l a shot. The indomitable Austrian ned hundreds of muzzles on the ight their men in a band of fire. vally on both sides of Klum, to ntry and guns, seemed really worth lurs would have made the difference and a rout. It would have been a for such a force to accomplish or to ing. And there were no natural rom the tower to a grand charge. it, separated from its centre and been rolled down into the valley ans and utterly crushed, and the and left have been liberated to con- st with the enemy. Moments were Bismarck or his genius ruled the ile the Austrian was hesitating the sting. The line of dark blue which om the right teemed from the vales arth yielded them. They filled the nd of the awful picture of which centre. The Austrians had still an f artillery, and although its concen- the ground before its effect was lost by reason of the rising ground above, its divergence to so many points to my's cannon.

cavalry still hung like white thunder anks, and threatened the front of the ng them in square and solid columns, e trains were steaming away from cing the Elbe and Adler between enemy. The grip of the Prussians ken. Word was brought to me to leave y city gates were about being closed, s on the walls were laying their piece undations and the causeways. One owed a very hell of the fire—corn- rs, slopes, and dells, and hillsides the slain—the pride and might attered and laid low. What hap- can only tell from hearsay. But at at the last the Austrian horse at was not lost, and in bril- rolled back the tide of Prussian in- he gunners threw their pieces into the he inundated fields as they retreated ; drowned in hundreds as they crowded bridges hastily laid and sunk or burnt s could cross over ; that luggage trains, nition, guns, and prisoners, the enormous host, fell into the hands of ho remained masters of that hard vered for nine miles with myriads of ll might Benedek exclaim, "All is e! Would to God I had lost that too!"

ev. Dr. Denvir, the late Roman Catho- diocese of Down and Connor, ex- lay morning. About five or six months p's coadjutor, Dr. Dorrian, took charge diocese, Dr. Denvir having resigned the a reported to be ill. Want of sleep is ing feature in his case, and causes his certain amount of uneasiness.

4d. and 4d., and superior kump at out. we have ever had before.

Finest Tea imported reduced to 3s. 6d. per lb.,
AT
Bennis and Son.
26, Patrick Street, Limerick.
June 21.

BIRTHS.
July 11, at Strandfield House, Miltown-Malbay, the wife of Captain John A. Whyte, of a son.
July 10, at 26, Thomas-street, the wife of Mr. George R. Fayle, of a daughter.
At Derrinville, Borrisokane, the wife of Robt. E. Reeves, Esq., J.P., of a son.
At Ardmayne, county Tipperary, the wife of Robert Hare Long, Esq., of a daughter.
At South-terrace, Cork, the wife of George Francis Codd, Esq., formerly of Grosvenor-square, and Ranelagh, county Dublin, of a son, who only survived its birth but a few moments.
At the Barracks, Naas, the wife of N. B. Gallway, Esq., Acting Commandant, Constabulary, of a daughter.
In Dublin, the wife of Serjeant Armstrong, M.P., of a daughter.
At Fitzwilliam-place, Dublin, the wife of Richard Litton, Esq., of a daughter.
At Eccles-street, Dublin, the wife of Capt. C. A. Martin, Royal Engineers, of a son.
At Winetavern-street, Dublin, the wife of James McClane, Esq., of a son.
At Grantham-street, Dublin, the wife of Robert D. Joyce, Esq., M.P., of a son.
In Dublin, the wife of Henry Kennedy, Esq., M.B., of a daughter.
At Carra, Leinster-row, West, Dublin, the wife of Mr. John M'Mullin, of twins—son and daughter.
At Athlone, the wife of J. Cundiffe Ingham, Esq., of a son, stillborn.
At Queen's-gate-terrace, London, the Countess of Hopetoun, of a daughter.
At Lowndes-square, London, the wife of Colonel Henry Dalrymple White, C.B., of a son.
At Whitkirk Vicarage, near Leeds, the wife of the Rev. George M. Platt, Vicar, of a daughter.
At Cheltenham, the wife of the Rev. Edward Waldy, of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.
On Tuesday, July 10th, at the Pro-Cathedral of St. Mary, Moorefields, Monsieur Jacques Joseph Monnoyeur, of Rue St. Honoré, 239, Paris, to Margaret Mary, youngest daughter of the late Jeremiah Hall, Esq., of this city.
At the Roman Catholic chapel, Camlin, Roscrea, William Burke, Esq., Lincoln-place, Dublin, to Anastasia, daughter of Mr. Timothy Maher, Clonon.
At the Church of St. Andrew, Westland-row Dublin, Anna Maria, daughter of Patrick Daniel, Esq., to Robt. Fitzsimon, Esq., Lower Mount-street, Dublin.
At St. Paul's R. C. Church, Dublin, Mr. Francis Duggan, to Nannie, daughter of John Ryan, Esq., and grand-daughter of the late James Ryan, Esq., solicitor, of Blessington-street, and Castlepollard.
At Lakenham, Frank, Lieutenant R.A., son of Robert John Lodge, Esq., The Grove, Highgate, London, to Emma Gordon, daughter of the Rev. J. C. Matchett, vicar of Easton, Norfolk.
At Summerfield Church, Washington-avenue, Brooklyn, New York, John Butler, Esq., M.D., L.R.C.S.I., of Wilton, county Kilkenny, to Agnes, daughter of H. A. Archer, Esq., M.D., of 93, South Oxford-street, Brooklyn.
At Cuddalore East Indies, Captain N. Stewart, R.N.R., Peninsular and Oriental Company's Service, to Emma, relict of Sir James Piteafairn, M.D., Inspector-General of Hospitals.
At Dinapore, East Indies, Major J. E. Corder, R.A., to Lucy Harrietta, daughter of Alfred Cheke, Esq., Deputy Inspector-General of Hospitals.

DEATHS.
At Ballybunnon, county Kerry, where she had gone to recruit her health, Mrs. Maria Loane, of Newcastle, county Limerick, deeply and deservedly regretted by all who knew her, aged 55 years.
At his residence, Barrack-street, Nenagh, Mr. P. O'Brien.
At Cappoquin, county Tipperary, Anastasia, relict of the late Mr. C. Dennhy.
At his residence, Nile-street, Cork, Mr. Patrick Lynch.
At the residence of his mother, Passage West, Cork, Henry, only child of the late Mr. Henry Ridgway, jun., of Newtown, Waterford.
At Ballycarthy, near Tralee, Sarah Anne, relict of the late Wm. M. Chute, Esq., Tralee.
At Carlingford, Joseph Denis Mullen, Esq., First-class Sub-Inspector of Constabulary.
At Rivu, Dalkey, county Dublin, Florence Stewart, child of Thomas Walter Hughes, Esq., Clonmel.
At Rutland-place, Clontarf, Dublin, Mr. Michael Flynn.
In Dublin, Mr. W. S. Oakes, printer, aged 28 years.
At Shrewsbury-terrace, Rathgar, Dublin, Miss Anne Bryan, daughter of the late Mr. John Bryan, of Castleknock.
At 63, John-street, Belfast, Rose, wife of Mr. Charles M'Anespie.
At Great Stanhope-street, Park-lane London, George John Butler Danvers, fifth Earl of Lanesborough.
At the Western Heights, Dover, Mary Christiana, wife of Lieut.-Colonel M'Leod, 74th Highlanders, and daughter of John S. Bird, Esq., Kinsale, county Cork.
On the 6th ult., at Paddington, London, Capt. Boys, R.N., in the 82nd year of his age; and on the 5th inst., at the same place, Elizabeth, his widow, aged 80.
At Micklegate, York, Lady Herries, widow of the late Lieut.-General Sir Wm. L. Herries, K.C.H. and C.B.
At Cranley-place, Onslow-gardens, London, Eliza, widow of General Sir James H. Reynett, K.C.B., K.C.H.
At Charges-street, Piccadilly, London, Lieut.-Colonel B. J. Smith.
At Leamington, the Rev. John A. Barron, B.D., formerly of Stanmore.
At Upper Holloway, Robert P. Jones, Commander E.N.
At Jersey, George Alexander, Esq., for many years Super-Intending-Surgeon Hyderabad Contingent, India.
At Mahableshwur, Bombay Presidency, Claude Ferrier, infant son of Sir Alexander and Lady Grant.
At Meerut, Bengal, John Arthur, son of Wm. Hill Chapp, Esq., M.D., Assistant-Surgeon, Rifle Brigade.

Commencing at Half-past Twelve.

This Concert will be conducted by Mr. WILLIAM POWER O'DONOHUE, (Mus. Bac. Oxon.) and as several Amateurs—both Ladies and Gentlemen of this and the adjoining County, of first class musical talent and brilliant vocalists—have kindly volunteered their services in conjunction with some well known Professors, a rich Musical Treat may be anticipated.
Return Tickets, 1st and 2nd class at single fares, to Rathkeale, will be issued from all Stations on the Limerick and Foyles Railway by the 10 o'Clock down and by the 11.35 up trains, and parties attending the Concert will be set down and taken up at the flat crossing in Ballingrane, within 100 yards of the Concert Room.

ADMISSION, ... 2s. 6d.
Tickets to be had of Mr. LEDGER, George's-street; Mr. P. CORBETT, 40, George-street; Mr. Wm. P. O'DONOHUE, Adare; Mr. SAMUEL PLUMMER, Rathkeale; Mr. W. EVANS, Newcastle West; or, by Post, from
REV. A. COGLAN,
Nantenan Glebe, Askeaton.
An early application for Tickets is desirable, as the number of admissions is necessarily limited.
July 7

Portarlington School,
ARLINGTON HOUSE,
DAY PUPILS NOT RECEIVED.

Rev. JOHN A. WALL, Ex-Sch., T.C.D., Principal; Assisted by
F. H. WALL, Esq., B.A., First Prizeman, First Honourman in Classics, Prizeman in Modern Languages, Trinity College, Dublin.
First Classical Master:
J. H. BOUSFIELD, Esq., B.A., Hastings' Exhibitioner of Queen's College, and Graduate in High Classical Honors of the University of Oxford.
First Mathematical Master:
H. P. WALL, Esq., B.A., C.E., F.T.C.D., Fellow of the Royal Geological Society, Ireland; First of the First Honorem, First Prizeman in Mathematics, and Prizeman in Modern Languages, Trinity College, Dublin.
Professor of Modern Languages and Music:
Herr ADOLF LIEBERMANN.
UNIVERSITY INTELLIGENCE.

HILARY TERM, 1866.
Mr. W. M. J. Morgan (Sch) First of the First Honors in Classics.
Mr. W. M. J. Morgan (Sch) Honor in Experimental Physics, First Rank.
Mr. W. E. Ormsby Honor in Ethics, First Rank.
Mr. W. Bird Honor in Science, First of Second Rank.
Mr. Th. Drapes Honor in Ethics, First of Second Rank.
TRINITY TERM, 1866.
Mr. W. E. Ormsby Honor in Ethics, First Rank.
Mr. W. S. Bird Honor in English History and Literature, Second of First Rank.
Mr. Th. Drapes Honor in Classics, Second of First Rank.
Mr. J. H. Townsend Honor in Logics.

SCHOLARSHIP EXAMINATION.
Mr. L. Drapes Classical Scholarship.
** Young gentlemen are carefully prepared for the Army and Navy Examinations, and for Mercantile pursuits.
School will RE-OPEN (D.V.) on the 3rd day of AUGUST.
July 12

add in Fee Simple	144	10	0	136	2 14
add in Fee Simple	50	15	0	92	3 22
add in Fee Simple	29	10	8 1/2	154	1 15
add in Fee Simple	121	7	3 1/2	331	2 38
add in Fee Simple	18	15	9	247	2 27
add in Fee Simple	68	10	0	68	10 0
add in Fee Simple	142	10	0	142	10 0
add in Fee Simple	55	3	7	55	3 7
add in Fee Simple	78	9	8	78	9 8
add in Fee Simple	124	13	6 1/2	124	13 6 1/2

Dated this 26th day of J
HENRY ROI

DESCRIPTIVE OF THE KILMOI
Lots 9 to 15
This Estate is intersected Broadford to the City of I distant about five miles. T divided into seven Lots, have and sound, and are well wor talists, as from their vicinity they are admirably adapte villa residences.

FEENLEA, KILLESTI
ESTA
Lots 16 to 1
Lots 16
These Lots are situate Town of Killaloe, and be value, a considerable rise expiration of existing lease Lot
This is a well secured H Townland of Killestry, wh Killaloe.

Lot
This Lot consists of up Shops and Premises in the Killaloe, all of which, u existing lease, will come purchaser, when a very be expected.

The Tenement Valuat each lot, but being far bel ledged value, no correct e lots can be formed from it
The Biddings will be the time and place above mitted to the Honorabl Landed Estates Court, D day of July, 1866, withou son.

For Rentals and part Estates Court, Dublin; t
Mr. JOHN
George S
CHARLES
the Own heronolis
JOHN RY
worth St
JOHN F
Limerick
WILLIAM
11, Step
Messrs. F
Co., Sq of the Abbey S

July 8