

ing the place contains the graves of many illustrious French, amongst them princes, archbishops, bishops, peers, and marshals of France. The great Pascal Paoli, the kinsman of the Emperor of the French, is buried there; among the other names may be mentioned La Marche, the amiable and venerable Bishop of St. Pol de Leon; Chalmazel, Bishop of Coutances; Arthur Richard Dillon, Bishop of Evreux, Archbishop of Narbonne, and President of the States of Languedoc; the Marquis de Bouille, and the Baroness de Montalembert. The formation of the railway arches will necessarily cause some of these mouldering remains to be uncovered and dug up.

Montreal, Friday, June 1st.—Reports have just reached us that a large body of Fenians have seized the arms at Rouse's Point, and are now marching on the British fort at Isle aux Nois. About 300 men reached St. Albans this morning. Two large bodies of troops are now leaving, one to reinforce the garrison at Isle aux Nois, and the other that of St. John's. The Fenians have burnt a bridge at Fort Erie and cut four of the telegraph wires there.

The Government have just received information that the United States gunboat Michigan, has intercepted reinforcements to the Fenians; and landed at Fort Erie this morning. Those who have landed are marching pell-mell towards Chippewa, about four miles from Niagara. Troops from Hamilton are marching to capture them. 400 more Fenians arrived at St. Alban's this morning. A battery of Armstrong guns and two wings of the 25th and 30th Regiments, in addition to those mentioned in my telegram of 1 p.m., will leave in an hour to meet them.

Montreal, Friday June 1st, 8.30 p.m.—I have received a telegram from Ottawa, stating that Government has been informed that 6,000 Fenians are marching from Fort Erie to Fort Colborne, for the purpose of destroying the locks of Welland Canal. They will be encountered to-morrow by troops and a battery of Armstrong guns under Colonel Peacocke.

The eastern frontier is strengthened to-day although the movements there are regarded as feints. Plundering and burning are marking the tracks of the invaders. The Reeve of Fort Erie is reported to have been shot by Fenians while reading the Riot Act. The Government officials say they are kept well informed of all the Fenian movement. The troops from this city left this evening, apparently with much enthusiasm and threatening to give no quarter.

Buffalo, Friday, June 1.—Colonel O'Neill commands the troops that made the landing from here. He is styled "Commander of the Army of the Irish Republic in Canada." It is reported that General Sweeny crossed over into Canada with the main body of the Fenian force, but this is denied by those who should know. It is said that men are constantly crossing from this side, and without difficulty. There is no United States force here to prevent them doing so, and the United States steamer Michigan has had no orders or authority to stop parties from crossing. It now appears that a concentration is to be made not far from here in Canada, and after receiving expected reinforcements, the Fenians will move on some important city. This, however, may not take place for two or three days.

Cincinnati, Friday, June 1.—The Commerical's Columbus, Ohio, despatch says that 450,000 rounds of ammunition were shipped from that place to New York, and 150,000 to Chicago, and 30,000 muskets to Buffalo, within a few days, which it is reported were intended for the Fenians.

St. Albans, Vt., Friday, June 1.—About 200 Fenians arrived this morning by the night trains from Boston. They are in citizens' dress, without arms or equipments to indicate hostile intentions. Their conduct so far has been most peaceable and orderly. There are rumours that several hundred more Fenians are to arrive here in the next 24 hours.

Boston, Friday, June 1.—In addition to the Fenian cavalry regiment, the Third Fenian Infantry, Colonel Connor, 1,200 strong, have left this city for the Canada border. Transportation for the cavalry regiment was paid through to St. Albans by a citizen of Boston. Detachments of United States troops from Fort Warren and Independence, also from Preble, are under orders for the Northern frontier.

Elmhurst, N.Y., Friday, June 1.—The Fifth Maryland Cavalry Regiment and part of the Fenian army of invasion, under the command of Colonel Denis Donahue, passed through the city to-day, en route to Ogdensburg. They number sixty men. While waiting for the Eastern train they fell to fighting among themselves at the depot. They had with them six cases of muskets and eight boxes of rations and ammunition. A report from Corning says 600 Fenians passed through the village to-day en route to Buffalo. Syracuse, Friday, June 1.—Quite a number of Fenians left this city last evening and this morning, some bound east and some west. Officers connected with the movement are busily engaged in forwarding more men.

Poughkeepsie, Friday, June 1st.—Seventy Fenians, which the place contains the graves of many illustrious French, amongst them princes, archbishops, bishops, peers, and marshals of France.
