

... 66s to 78s; plantation, prices scarcely changed. In request.

LOW MARKET.
maintained.

IN MARKET.
Report.)
all articles. Rather more

Report.)
All spring corn steady at business.

OL MARKET.
the attention of buyers is sales of colonial wool, very transacted in this market. very firm, and most of them gher terms.

ER MARKET.
35s; thirds, 116s; fourths, 10s. Mild cured—Firsts, thirds, 124s. 212 firkins

IN MARKET.
to 00s 0d; barley, 0s 0d to 8s 0d; white oats, 7s 10d is actively carried on in itement prevails. Military invasion are being made in have been called out and d to the appeal.

rails in Canada, on the sub- sian invasion, and extensive being made throughout the neil was held on the 7th, at d to call out 10,000 volun- re enrolled, and it is expected led out immediately. The la are promptly and enthu- the Government calls. The the Montreal telegraph line rvails that the Fenians will against Canada on Saint sorted that the Canadian Go- ne Habeas Corpus Act before of Scotland states in his 365 last issued, that of the nd last year, 11,267, or one imate.

Victoria has been much better vine growers also expect to this year than they have t.

te is making the round in and gives occasion to much last week, on the seventeenth of one of the noblest families, monk masked—entered the night, and disappeared after ng lady with a basket of flow- contents an ebony coffin was containing a bridal wreath, and a paper, on which was m the world of shadows." It ough the mother became insen- s did not lose her presence of cing, and betrayed no emotion

At Grosvenor-square, London, the Lady Dufferin, of a son.
At The Shrubbery, Gravesend, London, the wife of Captain Drake, R.E., of a daughter.
At Hill-street, Berkeley-square, London, the Lady Edwin Bill Trevor, of a son.
At Boulogne-sur-Mer, the wife of Alexander Munro, Esq., M.D., of a daughter.
At Shot Hall, Barbadoes, the wife of Colonel A. Ross, Com- manding R.E., of a son.

MARRIAGES.

At St. Thomas's Church, Dublin, by the Rev. D. Massey, M.A., rector of Killeahin, and the Rev. John Grainger, M.A., curate of St. Barnabas, D. G. Massey, Esq., Bengal Medical Staff, grandson of the late Hon. Eyre Massey, to Fanny Augusta, eldest daughter of Hugh Massey Yelilding, Esq., of Glendistur, county Limerick.
At Dromore, Samuel Hanna, Esq., of Mobuoy, co. Derry, to Jane, daughter of the late J. Dearley, Esq., Arch-hill House, county Tyrone.
At Bettws-y-Coed Church, Captain G. H. Roe, of Llanrwst, to Mrs. C. Roberts, of the Royal Oak Hotel, Bettws-y-Coed. In Wellington, New Zealand, Wm. J. Lamb, Esq., C.E., son of the late Capt. J. Lamb, of Liverpool, to Annie Helena, daughter of P. J. Hickey, Esq., late of Newcastle West, co. Limerick.
At Mangalore, India, Henry Beresford Nangle, 21st Fusiliers, son of the Rev. Edward Nangle, Rector of Skreen, to Isabella, daughter of Colonel Dobbin, 14th Native Infantry.

DEATHS.

On Wednesday morning, at 14, Lower Mallow-street, aged 5 months, Prudence Malvina, the infant daughter of Thomas Myles, Esq.
At Rathcoole, in her 66th year, Elizabeth, wife of Martin Quaid, Esq., Stamp Distributor, and sister to the late Rev. Matthew O'Connor, P.P., St. Patrick's, Limerick.
At Upper Johnson-street, Clonmel, Sophia, wife of Richard Ffennell, Esq., h. p. 96th Regt., and daughter of the late Ven. Archdeacon Mockler, rector of Tipperary.
At Spring-hill, Killenault, co. Tipperary, Samuel Hemphill, Esq., M.D.
In William-street, Clonmel, Mr. P. Mockler, machinist.
At his residence, New-street, Clonmel, Mr. James Arnold.
At Waterford, Margaret Harriot, wife of Major Dalzel, 53rd Regt.
At the Pouladuff-road, Cork, Anne, the wife of Mr. Francis Cottrell; also, the infant daughter of the said Francis and Anne Cottrell.
At Ashton Lawn, Cork, of heart disease, Denis Brennan Bullen, Esq., M.D.
At Passage West, Cork, Mary Anne and Henry, children of the late Mr. Leonard Ptasley, shipbuilder.
At Greenville-street, Dublin, Henry Walker, Esq., solicitor.
At Simpson's Hospital, Dublin, Mr. Henry Hobbs Cham- bers, aged 71 years, formerly proprietor and publisher of Chambers' London Journal.
At Warrington-place, Dublin, Charles Frisell, Esq., M.D., late of Castle Kevin, county Wicklow.
At Blackhall-street, Dublin, Mary Eccles, relict of Captain Jameson, late of Clonbreen, county Monaghan.
At Cambridge-road, Kilburn, after a long and severe ill- ness, contracted in India, Albert Dixon, late Lieut. H.M.'s 27th Inniskillings, son of the Hon. Mrs. Lew, and grandson of Lord St. Leonard's.
At Drewstown, county Meath, Ferdinand M'Veigh, Esq.
At Mulladin, county Meath, Caroline Eliza, wife of W. T. Smith, Esq., late Capt. 12nd Regt.
At Edinburgh, Mrs. Mary Forrester, relict of the Rev. Jas. Brown, of Kilsenny, Fifeshire.
At Hyde-park-square, London, the Hon. Mrs. Romilly.
Major Henry Evans, Chesetow-place, Baywater, London.
At Royal-crescent, Bath, Henry Johnson Middleton, Esq., late H.E.I.C.'s Civil Service.
At Hampstead, London, James Winter, Esq., M.D., for- merly Staff Surgeon 76th Regt.
Grace Elizabeth, wife of Captain James Bannister, of Cam- berwell-road, London.
At Ivelton, near Houston, Anne, relict of the late Commo- dore Daniel Pring.
At Guildford-street, London, Joseph Montague Gaudet, Esq., Assistant-Commissionary-General.
At Springlands, near Papanui, Canterbury, New Zealand, the Rev. John Lillis, D.D.
Drowned, while bathing near the camp at Patea, New Zealand, George Crichton Jenkins, Ensign in the 18th (Royal Irish) Regt., son of the Rev. R. C. Jenkins, rector of Lyminge, Kent, in the 22nd year of his age.
On board the Messenger Imperial steamship, on his voyage home from India, Lieut. Colonel Herbert Bruce, C.B., son of the late Major-General Sir Charles Bruce, K.C.B.

FRIDAY NEXT, the 23rd Inst.

P. COLEMAN

HAS been directed to Sell by Unreserved on the above day, at his Mart, 6, Street, a choice collection of Household &c., mahogany glass case, 12 chairs in brow sofa in same, tables, arm chairs, piano a stool, house presses, wardrobes, chests of basin stands, dressing tables, mahogany commodos, towel airers, French and Gersteads and palliases, hair mattress, libr case, book stand, rocking chair, bedsteps, cannisters, plated candlesticks, portable reading stand, oil paintings and engravings hangings, lot of books, a large quantity of china, kitchen and pantry requisites, &c. metal boilers, and large beam.

Sale at 12 o'Clock sharp.
Terms, Cash, with the usual Commission Cent. in addition.

PATRICK COLEMAN
Auctioneer,
6, Rutland Street, Li

March 22

THEATRE ROYAL.

MANAGER—EDWIN MARBLE.
ACTING AND STAGE MANAGER—HARL BARFOOT.

THIS popular place of amusement will MONDAY, APRIL 2ND, 1866, with and first-class company, comprising some of popular artists of the day; and the feels assured that a liberal patronage will be to him for his efforts to place in their midst able and regular place of amusement.

ON MONDAY EVENING,
APRIL 2ND,

The performance will commence with the Domestic Drama, entitled ALINE,

OR
The Rose of Killarney.

For Cast of Characters, and further part future advertisement.

SCALE OF PRICES:—

Dress Boxes,
Side Boxes,
Stalls,
Family Tickets admitting five or eight	reduction of 3s. to either of above.
Pit,
Gallery,
Private Boxes,	25s. & 18s.

No disorderly conduct or smoking allow above rule will be rigidly enforced. A will be in attendance to promptly eject interfering with the comforts of the audience

NOVELTIES PRODUCED IN RAPID SUCC Half Price to Boxes and Stalls only a