

SUBSCRIBERS.

Orders and letters of credit generally, to the CHRONICLE the Proprietors, MRS. SARAH HOSKINS, on whatever will be attended to by signature of the writer, but not for publication intended for publication in the should be sent to the on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and they will be late for insertion.

THE CHRONICLE

ING. JANUARY 13, 1866.

men in opinion on subjects fare of their country, has at all by every man possessed of the sense, to the dissensions which amongst them, is to be chiefly and backward state in which

By Englishmen of influence is given to us to be agreed on to the prosperity of our country, on at the other side of the chan- t. The journals of that coun- doned the offensive style in habit of writing of Ireland and habit a desire to know from the ntry what it is we want; and, ourselves to what are essentially the resources of the country, that they will be granted.

of the times to have observed, of opinion existing amongst bjects of national importance. vailed, on the subject of the e conjoined vigorous agitation ry demand, made upon the Go- e acceded to. There never, in try, was so complete an exem- r of unity amongst a people as l be called such) that instantly ver the country last year, when omunity was of one mind in ent to prevent the importation

It shows clearly what a people tionally united in opinion, and ommon object.

at our countrymen have agreed reat importance, and, if they upon it as they have done re- gue, there is little doubt but be acceded to. On last Tues- tation of gentlemen, from dif-

FUNERAL OF THE EARL OF LIMERICK.

On yesterday, as previously announced, the funeral obsequies of this departed and much lamented nobleman took place. At three o'clock, the hour when the train from Waterford arrived conveying the remains of deceased, there was a large concourse of the tenantry, amounting to about 200, from the Bruff, Rathanny, Bellinacorney, Ballylough, Ballydalina, and county Clare estates, assembled on the platform of the Terminus of the Waterford and Limerick Railway. The coffin was sent from London, via Waterford, to Limerick, and was accompanied by his Lordship's eldest son, the present Earl of Limerick; his brothers, the Hon. Edmond Pery, R.N.; Hon. Henry Pery, R.N.; Rev. Henry Grey, and Mr. Vanderkiste, agent of the estates.

On the train's arrival the coffin, which is of polished oak, and ornamented with gilt mountings (containing a leaden one, in which were deposited the remains in a cedar shell) was taken on the shoulders of a number of the tenantry to the hearse which was in waiting. The breast plate, on which were engraved the arms of the deceased, bore the following inscription— "William Henry Tenison Pery, Earl of Limerick, born 19th October, 1812; died 5th January, 1866." The funeral procession was then formed. First came a carriage, drawn by two horses, with a bearer holding on a velvet cushion the coronet of the deceased. Then came the tenantry of the Limerick and Clare Estates, wearing white hat bands tied with crimson ribbons. The hearse, bearing the coffin, and drawn by four horses, followed next, succeeded by two mourning coaches—in the first the Earl of Limerick, with his two brothers, as chief mourners; and in the second Sir Edward Kennedy, Bart., father-in-law of the present Earl; Rev. Henry Grey, vicar of Almondstey, and brother-in-law of the deceased; Colonel the Right Hon. W. Monsell, and the Hon. Robert O'Brien, also chief mourners. Then came in succession the carriages of the Earl of Dunraven, the Lord Bishop of Limerick, the Right Hon. W. Monsell, the Dean of Limerick, Sir Vere De Vere, Henry Maunsell, Esq.; the Archdeacon of Limerick, Alderman Mahony, Robert Hunt, Esq.; James Spaight, Esq.; John Vanderkiste, Esq.; Major Vandeleur, Richard Russell, Esq.; Arthur Russell, Esq.; James M'Mahon, Esq.; Doctor Gelston, Michael R. Ryan, Esq. In the procession we noticed the following gentlemen:—Alderman Mahony, Timothy O'Brien, J.P.; Wm Johnston, J.P.; Edward L. Griffin, Esq., B.L.; F. Ward, T.C.; Dr. Bennett, of Bruff; Thomas Bennett, Esq., Bruff; Zachary Myles, T.C., and a large number of the citizens.

The procession passed from the terminus of the railway through Queen-street, Baker-place, Glentworth-street, into George-street, and on by Patrick-street, Rutland-street, over the Matthew Bridge, to the Cathedral, at the entrance of which the remains were received by the Rev. F. Meredyth and the Rev. F. C. Hamilton. The coffin having been removed from the hearse, it was borne on the shoulders of a number of the tenantry to a catafalque placed in front of the reading desk, and the coronet having been placed upon the lid, the funeral obsequies were performed by the Rev. Messrs. Meredyth and Hamilton. At the conclusion of the service the coffin was taken and placed in the family vault.

We have to remind our readers of the performance by the officers of the band in the theatre, and that they enjoy an evening's entertainment and amusing kind.

NEWCASTLE PETTY

Magistrates presiding—T. D. H. M. Gun, M. Galway and B. Mr. Rowland, Supervisor of prosecute two gentlemen for having a dog each for the destruction game, on the 21st of August is taken out the Excise certificate.

Mr. Ward, Solicitor of Chancery prosecute, and M. Leahy, Esq., conduct the case for the accused.

John Griffin, a pensioner, was the offence, and was cross-examined to how he got his information, encouraged to bring this case by

Mr. M'Carthy, Attorney, appealed another party to prevent his answer. Mr. Leahy did not press the question that these two gentlemen denied the allegation, but they wished to know that gentlemen always make a confession—namely, to acknowledge it, and to say that the occurrence happened of the season, and being always their certificates this was a case where a penalty would satisfy justice, particularly since done so.

Mr. Ward, on part of the Excise, wish to press for any penalty more than which Mr. Rowland concurred.

The Bench, consulting, agreed to a penalty, viz., five pounds in each case, on the respectable way in which it was conducted.

Arthur Lynch summoned I. J. O'Sullivan for trespass of 88 sheep on his clover, committed, ten or twelve at a time, and summons for assault.

It appeared in evidence that Keffe's house to ask for trespass, head by Keffe and knocked down that for the trespass."

The Bench found that trespass had been proved, and gave an order for sheep, trespass at 2d. each, and for the assault case a fine of 20s. was given.

The Constabulary prosecute for having dogs at large on the streets, and small fines were imposed.

A few cases of drunkenness were tried, and fines were imposed from the court adjourned.

Captain Robert J. Maxwell, Robert Maxwell, Esq., J.P., D.I. (in this county,) has passed his examination at the Staff College.

Lieut.-Colonel C. R. Ogden (formerly in foreign service) in command of the 1st Battalion of the 1st Regiment of Foot Guards, is in command of this garrison.