ries and Sitting Rooms are admitted (by the Government Authorities) to be comfortably and well furnished, with the advantage of Billiard Tables for both sexes, with a variety of Periodicals and Books.—Carriage and horse exercise can be provided for those Patients who have been accustomed to such resources in their better moments.

The Demesne comprises 75 acres of prime land, very beautifully and ornamentally planted with fine old timber, some of which is of a rare description. The Gardens, Pleasure Ground, Conservatory, and Grape-ries are unusually extensive, and in perfect order.—Every inducement and facility is afforded the Patient to cultivate Flowers, while others look after Farming operations and other suitable employments, all of which, more or less, are soothing and grateful to many disordered minds. Gentleness and kindness, with firmness, are the principals upon which the social and other duties are enjoined. The consolations of religion for each persuasion is invariably provided when deemed salutary.

Dr. PEPPARD, who has been engaged in the treatment of insanity for the past 28 years, is enabled to state that, in no instance whatever has there been a suicidal, or other accident, in his previous or present Establishment, which is a satisfactory proof of the supervision observed.

COOKESTOWN HOUSE is within 3 miles of Carrick-on-Suir Station, with a like distance from Fiddown, both on the Waterford, Kilkenny, and Limerick line and in connection with the Great Southern and Western.

For Terms and Form of Admission, apply to the Resident Physician,

JOHN PEPPARD, M.D.,
Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, &c., &c., Cookestown House, Piltown.
