

in 1863, 9,513; in 1862, 5,585; in 1861, 9,083; and in 1860, 9,764 head.

There was rather an extensive show of foreign beasts here today, in fair condition. The supply of foreign sheep was good, whilst there was a fair number of calves on offer. Beasts moved off slowly, on rather easier terms, but sheep and calves were steady in price.

The arrivals of beasts fresh up from our own districts were again moderate, but in excellent condition. Although the demand was by no means active, prime small breeds commanded rather more money than last week. A few breeds sold at 5s 6d to 5s 8d, but heavy beasts produced from 5s 2d to 5s 4d per 8lbs.

There were no arrivals either from Ireland or Scotland.

The Herefords and Devons were very saleable. From Norfolk, Suffolk, Essex, and Cambridgeshire we received 1,200 Scots and short-horns, and from other parts of England 500 various breeds.

The supply of sheep was tolerably good. Prime Downs and half-breeds changed hands steadily at full quotations; but heavy sheep were a slow sale, at late rates. The top figure was 6s per 8lbs. Prime Lincolns 5s 4d to 5s 6d per 8lbs.

Prime lambs moved off freely at 8s per 8lbs; but inferior lambs were a dull sale on former terms. The supply was moderate.

The sale for calves was active, from 5s 4d to 6s 4d per 8lbs.

Very little doing in pigs, at last week's quotations. Supply moderate.

Per 8lbs. to sink the offal:—

The lock-out of the Clyde engineers and ship-builders continues, and is having the most serious results not only upon the shipbuilding trade but also upon the malleable iron and coal trades. Most of the iron works near Glasgow are at a complete standstill, and unless the dispute is speedily arranged the poorer classes must suffer severely from the loss of their wages.

On Tuesday, at Newcastle-on-Tyne, William Boes, of Leeds, and his partner, George Westmorland, cattle-dealers, were charged with illegally driving 30 cattle without a pass. The bench inflicted a penalty of £2 on each head of cattle, making £60, and costs; the fine and costs to be paid before the cattle could be sold, and if not sold within four days to be slaughtered.
