

Looking about for foreign, and buyers at fully late rates. Floating cargoes now in small compass. Prices favour sellers. Flour unchanged in value. Indian corn in improved demand, late rates. Barley 6d to 1s dearer. Peas and beans about same. Oats in liberal supply, with good demand at previous rates.

LONDON PRODUCE MARKET.

Sugar—Rain business; steady rates; refined firm. Coffee—Good business in plantation Ceylon. 82s to 85s; little doing in native. Tea—Few parcels selling, former rates asked. Rice—Soft grain little higher. Jute held for advance.

LONDON TALLOW MARKET.

P. Y. C. 49s 9d spot.

LIVERPOOL CORN MARKET.

Market well attended, and wheat in moderate request at firmer prices. Flour dull; no change in value. Indian corn generally held for 3d per quarter advance; demand small. Beans unaltered. Oats scarce at full prices. Oatmeal in good demand, and 6d dearer. Imports, Inland, &c—Malt, 26; oats, 501; oatmeal, 1,028 loads. Flour, 10,289 sack and 302 barrels.

DUBLIN CATTLE MARKET.

With a smaller supply of everything to-day, we had a brisk demand and ready sale for the better classes of cattle and sheep, at a shade improvement in value; but we make no change in the rates of the middling and inferior descriptions of either. We quote top beef, 60s to 65s per cwt—6½d to 7d per lb; top mutton, 8½d; extreme, 10d per lb. Wool in more inquiry, but prices no higher. Prices, 23d to 24½ and 25d per lb.

PROVISIONS.—At Spitalfields Bacon Market on Wednesday, there was an advance of from 1s to 2s on bacon and hams. Bacon—sitch, 64s to 67s; middles, 68s to 70s; American middles, 62s to 63s; gams, 51s; cheeks, 46s 8d. Short hams, 58s to 60s; long fine, 78s to 84s. Bladder-lard, 74s to 78s per cwt.

GANLY & CO.'S OILCELLAR.

Dublin Cattle Market, 1st March, 1866.

Prime heifer and ox beef brought 70s., and second quality 63s. to 65s. per cwt.; third rate and lower denominations were irregular, but saleable. A full clearance made of everything. Sheep scarce, and quickly bought up at 10d. to 10½d. per lb. Veal, 10d.

Corn steady, without excitement; farmers returning to the legitimate habit of tilling a fair proportion of their land, and practical agriculture well before the wind in Ireland. We would say to our friends—Don't relax, but go ahead.
