

Valuable Inves

SALE OF POLICIES OF
BY AUCTION
AT No. 6, RUTLAND
ON MONDAY, O

P. Coleman

HAS been instructed by the late EDWARD H. G. Perfectly Unreserved Auction, Rutland-street, on the above day at 1 o'clock sharp, the following Valuable Lot 1.—Effectuated in 1865 with

Temperance Association
David George Boyd
yearly premium £31
policy.

2.—Effectuated in 1863 with
Life Assurance Company
£300 annual premium

3.—Effectuated in 1863 with
Assurance Company
O'Shea, for the sum
premium £15 14s; age

Any further information can be had on application to

P. COLEMAN
Auctioneer

October 17.

Gun Manufactory and Warehouse

No. 2, ELLEN

MESSRS. MORTON & CO. have the above establishment, for the supply of the Nobility and Gentry of the Counties of their large and well-assorted stock of superior Breech and Muzzle-load Guns, Rifles, Revolvers, &c., regards finish and shooting London-made Gun, having a large branch of the trade.

Messrs. MORTON can give every satisfaction with their orders.

Their stock consists of Pa Pin-block Double and Single loading Rifles, Revolvers, and and Harveys celebrated Sporting grain, Joyce's and Elgin's Cap Bristol Patent Shot, Dixon's Ammunitions of every description, Shot Pouches, and Draw Flasks. Guns refinished, and muzzle-loaders on the best principle. Please observe the address.

No. 2, ELLEN
No. 5.

At Gosport, the wife of Henry Seames, Esq., R.A., prematurely, of a stillborn child.

At Clapton-square, Hackney, the wife of Commander W. H. Comber, R.N., of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

On the 15th inst., at the Wesleyan Chapel, George-street, by the Rev. Mr. Locke, of Nenagh, the Rev. James B. Gillman, Wesleyan Minister in this city, to Rebecca, only daughter of the late Thomas Merrick, Esq., of Rathbane House.

At Dunamway Church, Mr. William H. Jones, eldest son of Mr. Richard D. Jones, of New Zealand, to Anne, second daughter of the late Mr. George Chambers, of Dunamway.

At Gleun, the residence of the bride, Margaret fourth daughter of Mr. Daniel C. Delea, to Mr. Bernard Doyle, of the Prince of Wales Hotel, Skibbereen.

At Booterstown Church, co. Dublin, William, eldest son of the late Mr. W. D. Green, of Liverpool, to Elizabeth, second daughter of Mr. W. Lawrence, of the General Post Office, Dublin.

At St. Kevin's Church, Dublin, Walter Keating, Esq., of Charlemount-mall, youngest son of the late Walter Keating, Esq., of Kells, co. Meath, to Fanny, eldest daughter of the late Wm. Deane Cooper, Esq., of Stephen's Green, Dublin.

At the Free Presbyterian Church, St. Kilda, P. M. M'Callum, Esq., to Charlotte Matilda, third daughter of John Faris, Esq., solicitor, of Dublin.

At the Parish Church of Llanrhaidr, T. Augustus Greer, Esq., son of John Robert Greer, Esq., of Monksdown Lodge, Dublin, to Selina Margaret, daughter of Thomas Hughes, Esq., of Denbeighshire.

At St. Peter's Church, Eaton-square, London, Gilbert H. Stracey, Esq., son of Sir Henry Stracey, Bart., of Blackheath Park, Norfolk, to Louisa Anne, only daughter of the late Richard Groncock, Esq.

At Leasingham Church, Richard Lewis, eldest son of Sir W. de Capell Brooke, Bart., to Mary Grace, eldest daughter of the Ven. Edward Trollope, Archdeacon of Stow, and Rector of Leasingham.

At Cheesbarn Grange, Northumberland, Captain James Creagh, 17th Regiment, son of Major-General Creagh, of Westbourne Park, to Annie Young, daughter of the late John M. Tobin, Esq., of Montreal, C.E.

DEATHS.

On the 27th of August, at Bhurtpore, India, of fever, Lieut. John Menton, R.A., aged 31 years (fourth son of Robert Gee. Maunsell, Esq., late of this city), deeply and deservedly regretted by his family, friends, and brother officers. He died in the full hope of a joyful resurrection.

At Parsonstown, William Ramsay, Esq., barrister-at-law, of Sligo.

At Henry-street, Cork, Isabella, daughter of the late John Pyne, Esq., of Lisgood, co. Cork.

At Harcourt-street, Dublin, Edward Trevor Hughes, Esq., solicitor.

At Rathmines, Dublin, Hannah, wife of Mr. Wm. Watson.

At Maryborough, John Blackham, Esq., barrister-at-law.

At William-street, Kilkenny, James Quinn, Esq., solicitor.

At the Park Kilkenny, Johanna, daughter of Mr. Richard Read.

At Manor-street, Waterford, Mrs. Mary Todd.

At Glasgow, Mr. Wark, brother of John Wark, Esq., of Tramore.

At New Orleans, Anne, wife of Mr. John Colbert, of Callan, Kilkenny.

At Port Hope, Canada West, Maria, wife of Peter Mensell, Esq., late Ordnance Storekeeper, and formerly of Haulbowline, co. Cork.

At New York, Mr. Francis M. Barron, a native of Ennis-killen.

At New York, Mr. John Rohilly, a native of Killarney.

At London, the Lady Caroline Thynne.

At Southampton, Col. John L. Wilton, C.B., Knight of the Legion of Honour.

At Jersey, Major-General Bugden, late Royal Engineers.

At Kingston-on-Thames, Elizabeth Sophia, widow of the late Lieut.-General Sir Richard Jones, K.C.B., of Werthing, Essex.

(loud applause and some the priestly order leads to or master in every house—place of the husband and eruption, caused by the and cries of "No, no," We believe—and all history—that this priestly feeling and establishing a human, man and his God (renewed opinions, and I have your ear." and laughter). Let since the art of printing of books throughout the ledge ceased to be the ex-clergy—there has been no tion of the people not to England (great applause, and on for a moment imagine quity, attached to memor-liking sudden changes in ings, would have made that re of the Reformation un-the influence of strong feel-on of a priestly caste?—ou imagine that a nation has been one of its greatest resent to receive William as its King unless this de-priestly rule had been in-ay these things with very how many clergymen there sent my life under the in-love them, I love Oxford, am convinced that unless it a of the laity by the clergy more admirable, or more exist—(loud cheers)—that d at, the Church will soon d ceasing to be established l, and ceasing to be that do s to keep unhallowed hands uments, which now flow for the good of the people eering).

son's) Royal Lancers under a R. W. Cave-Brown-Cave, ge Barracks at nine o'clock route to Cloamell. Lieut. proceeded with his troop. A non-commissioned officers rps, under the command of et, proceeded from Island ame time as the preceding rrick-on-Suir. Two troops lay, and one troop with the iment, under the command P. Johnson were to proceed troop (Capt John Hardy's) on and recruits. Soldiers' ital baggage will be sent to ions by rail on Wednesday