The trial of this season of the College was held last evening in the Trinity College. The Rev. Dr. occupied the chair. Mr MacDonal, A.B., delivered the address, which was a very ably explained the principal doctrines of the Chris-

GENERAL WILLIAM HALPIN.

Dublin Monday.

The judges—Chief Baron Pigott and Baron O'Hanlon—took their seat on the bench, and opened the dock, guard rails, as usual, by the orders, and proceeded to address the jury. His speech was a remarkable

He commenced his speech by adverting to the "rights of man" carried on in the country. He mentioned the lives of citizens and strangers in the hands of policemen, who are forced to fill up the gaps left by the At-

After his arrest he was left in Kilmore for four weary months, without his charge was preferred against him, and no Commissions had been held. For he was furnished with the information on the 18th October, and he then asked one of the prisoners, Mr. Brosnan, if he was refused him, and he wrote to the general representing the matter. The general thought proper not to answer that Mr. Brosnan was even removed from the be no communication between them, by sign or any whole conduct of the Government been to examine witnesses, he would have been Crown Solicitor, the jailers, the head deputy jailers of Kilmainham and the chaplain of that institution, had the night to all the witnesses—to the prisoners with the Bible in one hand, and the other. He would have shown how they were got up by the Crown in Ireland.

He showed how there existed, under the private of the basest wretches that ever took away the lives and liberties of men.
He represented the law, another the gibbet in the gaol, and another was supposed to re-march militant. When they found the Baron said he did not think that he was a prisoner to reflect upon the characters who had not been produced in evidence could not allow the prisoner to assail those who had been examined in the case, or permit their conduct to be questioned unless they themselves were witnesses.

He said that he had tried to introduce the progress of the trial.

Baron—You did, but I was bound in

On Friday evening last, the long-expected Dr. T. G. O'Sullivan, late resident medical officer of the Limerick Workhouse, was served on the Board, through the Clerk. The action is to be tried in Dublin during the sittings after Michaelmas Term, and the plaintiff claims £1,000 damages for wrongful dismissal, and £210 10s 2d on account of arrears of salary alleged to be due to him.

The weather has turned out extremely cold, and to-day and this evening frost prevailed to a considerable extent.

We publish the letter of "A Citizen" in another column on the subject of the dearness of bread. The law he refers to as prevailing in Cork and Dublin was in operation in this city till the year 1813, and since then the bakers make their bread of whatever size they please.

It is with pleasure we observe that Richard Eaton, Esq., of Kilduff House, Pallasgreen, has been appointed a Stipendiary Magistrate in the room of Neil Brown, Esq., resigned. Mr. Eaton is a highly educated gentleman, of more than average ability; his knowledge of the law is considerable, he being a barrister-at-law; and no more judicious selection has been made for a considerable length of time than that made in his appointment.

On the recommendation of the Lord Lieutenant of the County, the Lord Chancellor has appointed John William Finch, eldest son of William Finch, Esq., of Kilcoleman, Nenagh, to the commission of the peace for the county Tipperary.

A meeting of the Band of Hope Society will be held in their rooms, Thomas-street, at 7.30 p.m. to-morrow, and we would strongly recommend parents and their children to attend this meeting, which will be for the purpose of impressing on the young the desirability of beginning life as total abstainers.

DEATH OF MR. P. LYNCH, SOLICITOR, T.C.

We regret to announce the death of this gentleman which took place at his residence, in George-street, on Saturday night, after a lengthened illness.
He was a member of the Town Council for several years, Solicitor to the Market Trustees, the Board of Conservators, the Messrs. Russell, and was also Notary Public. He conducted at several contests here the election of Mr. F. W. Russell, M.P., and he was generally esteemed for the many good qualities which he possessed. As a member of the Liberal Party he was a strong partizan, but when the heat of the contest was over, the events of the past were forgotten, and he became the friend of those with whom he conscientiously differed on political subjects. The funeral took place to-day at Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery, and was largely attended by the leading gentlemen of the city in their carriages.
