AT a meeting of the Limerick Farmers' Club, held this day, in the office of John Gleeson, Esq., Solicitor, and at which there was a numerous attendance of members, William Bolster, Esq., of Tullerboy, the President, being in the chair, the following letter received by the Solicitor to the Club, was read by that gentleman:—

15 and 19 Upper William-street,
Limerick, May 10th, 1867.

John Gleeson, Esq.,

DEAR SIR,—As you are the Solicitor to the Farmers' Club, I beg you will convey to them, the expression of my very sincere regret for the part taken by me on the occasion of the Club meeting and dinner during the Munster Fair, and which subject is I learn to be discussed at a general meeting of the Club on to-morrow (Saturday). I refrain from entering into particulars, as such might lead to contradictions and acrimony, but generally and without reserve admit my error. I can learn that some expenses have been incurred, and I throw myself on the forbearance of the Club, and ask them to consider my resignation of all claims against them for the time my place has been occupied, with this apology as a fitting amend, and remain your obedient, servant,

JAMES M'NAY.

It was then proposed by Thomas McMahon Cregan, Esq., seconded by Mr. Robert Holmes, and carried unanimously:—

Resolved—That having heard Mr. M'Nay's apology read in reference to the occurrence of the 25th, ult., we decline accepting his offer of resigning all claims to rent during our occupancy of his apartments, but require such apology to be published, together with the payment of such legal expenses as may have been incurred, and the expense of the publication of the said apology, as an advertisement for one post in each of the four Limerick papers, and the Cork Herald and Cork Examiner, and to be paid for by Mr. M'Nay.
