

ieved to have been the origih. torship on the North-East appointment of T. K. Lowry, ship in Jamaica, has been cons, Esq., LL.D.

It, remarks the Times' corres-d in the judicial history of ervative Government has con-al consisting exclusively of the elevation of Mr. Morris, e seat hitherto occupied by now Chief Justice of Appeal) ommon Pleas, that bench is ocprofessing the Roman Catholic wever, is by no means likely atisfaction. The three mem-at with Mr. Justice Christian, e Established Church, have religion has no influence on the n of justice. The legal acumen f Chief Justice Monahan are evinced with special promielverton case. Mr. Justice shed for high literary culture rensive ability, and Mr. Justice own, while presiding at the s, how he could grapple with e satisfaction of men of all y and religious belief. That will be a source of gratification the people of Ireland, both t, there is no doubt, for the been always distinguished for ra, and is connected with one the country.

racti finds fault with the ana-rt Gladstone I will, Mr. G. points out that his own name and incisive one—"I lead sir."

ordinary advertisement occur-in the Times for the last week ave old man all alone?"
three days' hunting in Paris for and, a Royal Commissioner at on, discovered that for a sitting bed rooms, and study, in the asked 8,000 francs per month of the new boulevards, 5,000 b, always first or second floors, y from the centre of the city, quarters, where the houses are what he required for £2,500 ath, and he can find nothing se is estimated at six millions private individual, saving the hin the limits of civilization. ain these facts of so delicate y ought to be taken into the lthy and shown the private income-tax collector cannot

On the 12th Feb. 1867, at the Catholic Church, Emerald-hill, Melbourne, Australia, by the Rev. J. Driskill, and afterwards at St. Luke's, by the Rev. R. B. Dickinson, George Randall, son of Mr. Randall, Harbour-Master, Limerick, to Anne Sarah M'Grath, second daughter of Mr. Thos. M'Grath, of Rutland-street, same city.

At St. Mary's Parish Church, Dublin, Richard E. Davis, Esq., of Lurganboy, Manorhamilton, to Mary Jane, eldest daughter of James Tata, Esq., Castlemoyle, Manorhamilton.

At the parish church, Louth, William, son of W. Hyde, Esq., of The Sycamores, Louth, to Constance, daughter of J. W. Wilson, Esq., of the same place.

At St. James's, Westminster, London, William Stewart-Thornburn, Paymaster of the 101st Foot (Royal Bengal Fusil-liers), to Octavia Louise Smet, daughter of D. J. Staig Thornburn, Esq., of Sandford Lodge, Cheltenham.

At Christ Church, Highbury, London, Frank Pittman, Royal Navy, to Alice Ross Shelmerdine.

At the parish church, Bognor, South Bersted, Edwin Forbes Thompson, Esq., Lieut. R.M.L.I., to Laura, daughter of George Rolleston, Esq., of Bognor Lodge, Sussex.

At Sarrafawr, Glamorganshire, Thomas Martin Whale, Esq., R.M.L.I., to Dora, daughter of the late Edmund Chapman, Esq., barrister-at-law.

At Bombay, George Edward Harris, Esq., B.S.C., to Fanny Bevor, daughter of the late Rear-Admiral Thos. Henderson, of Bellevue, Dawlish.

DEATHS

On Sunday, at Derrah, in the 78th year of her age, Jane, wife of William Brown, Esq. The deceased was a member of an ancient and respectable stock, and deservedly regretted by her family and friends.

At Drumree, Cappoquin, Mrs. Clarissa M. Burroughs, widow of the Rev. Arthur T. Burroughs, late rector of St.
Luke's Parish, Dublin.

At Whitfield, county Waterford, William Christmas, Esq., D.L., J.P.

At Eglinton-place, Western Road, Cork, George Courtenay, Esq., late of Glenview, county Cork.

At his residence, South-terrace, Cork, John M'Namara, Esq.

At Shannon-square, Clonakilty, county Cork, Saunders Ffolliott, Esq., M.D.

At Patrick's-quay, Cork, the wife of Mr. John Galvin.

At Lisaloon House, Castlederg, the Rev. M. C. Motherwell, rector of Termonemongan.

At Clifton House, Monkstown, county Dublin, Jane, wife of the Rev. Henry Monserrat, incumbent of St. Thomas's, Kendal, Westmoreland.

At Lower Camden-street, Dublin, Anne, wife of Thomas Reynor, Esq.

Suddenly, at Usher's-quay, Dublin, Margaret Brown, eldest daughter of M. B. Lacy, Esq.

At Rathangan, county Kildare, Jane, widow of the late Daniel Mylod, Esq.

At Charleville-square, Tullamore, Mr. George C. Barbor, Knockbeg Cottage, county Sligo.

Suddenly, at Wilton Castle, Margaret, widow of the late Harry Alcock, Esq., of Wilton Castle, county Wexford.

Anne, daughter of the late Captain Alexander Carroll, 6th Dragoon Guards, Hollymdunt, county Wicklow.

At Wilton-crescent, London, Lady Georgiana Elizabeth Romilly, wife of Charles Romilly, Esq., and eldest daughter of John, sixth Duke of Bedford.

At Bournemouth, Hants, Sir John Dick Lauder, Bart., of Grange and Fountainhall.

At Dover, Admiral the Hon. Edmond S. P. Knox.

At the Royal Artillery Depot, Warley, Lieut.-Col. Stephen James Stevens, C.B.

At the Vicarage, Burnham, Somerset, the Rev. Theophilus Williams, M.A.

At Braybrooke Rectory, Northamptonshire, the Rev. John Field, M.A., rector of the parish, and Domestic Chaplain to the Right Hon. Lord Forester.

At Preston, the Rev. A. V. Hadley, M.A.

At Manor House, St. John's wood-park, London, John Campbell, D.D., lately Editor of the "British Standard."

At High-street, Gosport, Sarah, widow of Captain William Wharton, h.p. 73rd Regt.

At New Plymouth, New Zealand, George Newsom Strange-man, youngest son of Joan R. Greer, Esq., of Monkstown Lodge, county Dublin.

Patent Grease,

Ropes,

Twines,

Pitch,

Tar,

Rosin,

Sponges,

Chamois,

Brushes,

T. & O'B.'S Stock of been imported by the Continent, and recomfirst-class quality.

Just arrived a F
RAFFIN OIL, reduc

Sole Agents for ROBINS' LONDON
Cassella, Smith and Co.
For Field Gates

Corporation

VOTE OF

AT a Special Meeting of risk, held on Thursday 1867—

The Right Worshipful F
Chair.

Proposed by Town Council
by Town Councillor B mously—

Resolved—That the The Limerick be, and are her Manager and Engineer of for his unceasing attentio ment of the Gas Works, ports this day adopted by t

March 28.

A number of Benian yesterday from Kilmainha of good behaviour, and to The health of Mr. Bl prove, and hopes are ente covery.