GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT).

Ennis, Wednesday Evening.
THE BOARD OF GUARDIANS.

A weekly meeting of the Board was held on Wednesday evening, the 5th inst. E. A. MacDonnell presided. The persons in attendance were—Major Studdert, J. P.; John Cullinan, Wm. Halpin, Patrick Frost, John M'Mahon, Patrick O'Keefe, and Henry Faircloth, Esqrs. House:—Remaining in the house on Monday, 493. Average cost, 2s 5d; infirmary, 2s 9d. Admitted, 20; discharged, 31; died, 1;

suggested that the medical officers consider the tenders for supplying medicine, that their duty would be merely to select the lowest tender, as the advertiser would be bound to supply the best, and if they could be tested and the guardians enforced.

The officers then retired to consider the one of the medical officers, Dr. Greene found Hunt's tender, from Dublin, to be the lowest; yet he was bound to say that some of the tenders were offered below the market price, and doctors could not know if medicine was really some of them would not take the tender if it were so.

Dr. Greene observed that lives might be lost if the medicine could be discovered.

He said that medicine was a very heavy matter, and as they were fully guarded against analysis of the medicine, if found to be adulterated, should give the contract to the lowest

He observed that the medicine could be sent to the Commissioners to be analysed.

John Cullinan said that leeches were a nuisance, and before they could be had from
