

cedy, C B.

General Sir Alfred Horsford, K.C.B., is near for "special service."

states that assemblages of workmen in the Quartier St. Martin, in consequence of the closing of some of the workshops, dispersed on the first summons of the authorities some arrests were made.

The Express, in reviewing the corn trade says that the changed aspect of politics has something to do with prices, not in the way of depression. There is firmness on the Continent. France, Holland have been further looking up, prices have fluctuated in Dantzic and rates both of wheat and rye keep tight for a vast and poor population, under the influence of the panic of the in London, has somewhat yielded in a very little is coming forward thence. It is thought that to spare the lives of the perished at Manchester would be an act of madness.

Foreign men-of-war have lately visited the Mosquito, Prussian brig of war; the cadet training ship; and the Swedish Vanards, 23, and Gazle, 8.

In circles in Paris the officers are rabid for Prussia. The common talk in the cafes is that the consummate French make the Prussians manoeuvre till they are exhausted and then fall upon them and destroy Property of the late President Lincoln's Springfield, Illinois, amounts to 85,000 dollars, does not include the congressional apportionment for Mr. Lincoln.

At the theatre lately a dandy youth was seated next to a gentleman's wife, through some oversight, when the married man took the "Taken," which lay on a reserved seat and held it up before his wife. The wife said no more.

Mr. Luynes has sent 50,000 francs to the Pope.

During the days of the Great Exhibition Bazaar the average of between 100,000 and 120,000 people to see the last of it.

Several negroes have engaged passage in the Colonization Society's ship Gleconda, to Charleston, South Carolina, for Monrovia on the 11th.

In the Hotel des Invalides there are at present 10,000 pensioners—officers, non-commissioned soldiers. The admissions diminish every year; in 1862 they were nearly 15,000.

At present only three Irishmen in the service—Lieutenant Darcy, Lieutenant and Dr. O'Flynn, of the Zouaves; while upwards of twenty Englishmen in the son.

At Chester, the wife of Surgeon W. B. Wallis, 74th Highlanders, of a daughter.

At St. Petersburg, the wife of John Este Vibert, M.A., of Christ's College, Cambridge, of a son.

At Upper Berkeley-street, London; the wife of Staff-Surgeon Major Babot, of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

At Drumcondra Church, co. Dublin, William Dartnell, Esq., of Rathkeale, co. Limerick, to Catherine, only daughter of B. N. Hindes, Esq., of Clontarf, co. Dublin.

On the 24th of July, at SS. Peter and Paul's Church, Emerald-hill, Melbourne, by the Rev. John O'Driscoll, Michael, eldest son of John O'Gorman, Esq., formerly of Broad-street, in this city, to Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Robert Byrne, Esq., Member of the Legislative Assembly.

At Waterford Church, Thomas M'Carthy, Esq., of Dungarvan, to Josephine, eldest daughter of the late Mr. Jeremiah Morris, of Dublin.

At St. James's Church, Ingersoll, Ontario, Edward J. Denroche Esq., of East Saginaw, Michigan, to Mary Carlisle, daughter of the late Rev. Robert Ferris, of Fethard, co. Tipperary.

At Ballyclough Chapel, Mallow, Mr. Cornelius Ahearn, of Macroom, to Lucy, eldest daughter of Mr. William Tarrant, of Crossfields, Mallow.

At St. Kevin's Church, Dublin, Mr. William Murray, of Bray, to Emily, second daughter of the late Mr. Richard Yates, of Dublin.

At Farnborough Church, William W. Hackett, Esq., son of the late Rev. Thomas Hackett, vicar of Boyle, to Maria, youngest daughter of the late Joseph Watkins, Esq., of Elm Park, co. Dublin.

At the Parish Church of Helywell, Peter Clifford Browne, Esq., Captain 88th Regiment, to Margaret, eldest daughter of the late Thomas Mather, Esq., of Glyn Abbot, near Holywell, Flintshire.

At St. Barnabas, Kensington, William Samuel, son of the late F. T. Wintle, M.D., of Headington-hill, near Oxford, to Caroline Sophia, daughter of the late George Whiting, Esq., of Clinton Villa, Kensington, and of the Master of the Rolls' chambers.

DEATHS.

At the Square, Newcastle West, Hester Fitzgerald, relict of the late Thomas Edward Fitzgerald, Esq., of Movlady, co. Limerick.

At Newport, co. Tipperary, Jane, the beloved wife of Patk. Cullen, Esq., aged 70 years.

On the 3rd inst., Mrs. Nagle, who, for over 50 years, was the valued and faithful servant of O'Grady, of Kilballyowen, and his late father.

At Woodhouse, co. Waterford, Frances Constantia, widow of the late Colonel George John Beresford, R.A., and eldest daughter of the late Robert Uniacke, Esq.

At the Abbey House, Waterford, Sarah Jane, wife of John Waring, Esq.

At the Augustinian Convent, Drogheda, the Rev. Patrick Kelly, O.S.A.

At Dublin, Mr. Timothy Gilligan.

At Stillorgan, co. Dublin, Mr. A. Moran.

At Sydney House, Pembroke-road, Dublin, Phillis, wife of Joseph H. Doran, Esq., solicitor.

At James's-street, Dublin, Mr. John Reilly.

At North Cumberland-street, Dublin, John Cullen, Esq.

At Kilmore House, Artane, co. Dublin, the Rev. Barnaby Kelly.

At Upper Rathmines, Dublin, Thomas Trant, Esq., late S.I. of Constabulary.

At Kingstown terminus, suddenly, Mr. Michael Healy.

At Glendoyle, Dunadry, James G. Brown, Esq.

At Waterloo-road, Dublin, Henrietta, widow of the late Martin D'Arcy, Esq., of Houndwood, co. Mayo.

At North Great George's-street, Dublin, Nathaniel Montgomery, Esq.

At Monkstown, Dublin, the Earl of Rosse.

At Dublin, Emily Rose Pauline, the infant daughter of Henry Currie, Esq., 74th Highlanders.

At Gravesend House, Cornwall, Caroline Ellen Georgina, youngest daughter of Lord and Lady Graves.

NOTICE

ONE of the 1 undergolds, Retiring Rooms, No 16. Forms to Apply to JOHN

J

WOULD FEEL OBL

FINE O

At 30

4, G E O

(Oppos

Sept. 17.

T

THE REV. M St. John's, ENCLOSURE W CATHEDRAL Plans and Specific WM. E. CORBETT street.

The tenders to MICHAEL FITZ on or before NOV The Lowest or cepted.

Limerick, Octol

Boro

COU

THE MAYOR will hold RUTLAND-ST 7th day of NOV days, for the Rev year 1867-8.

The Court will at 4 o'clock p.m., B

November 5.