

on the subject, that the salary of the school-be raised from £26 per annum to £34, which the amount Miss McNamara would receive the board of National Education outside the house. He thought there ought to be no ob-to increase the salary of a deserving officer, ally as the expense was to be born in future
 re consolidated fund.

Major McDonnell seconded the proposition, which id unanimously.

the absence of Captain Stacpoole, M.P., who given notice of motion to increase the poundage Ir. R. Sweeney, Poor-rate Collector for Ennis, sixpence to ninepence.

r. Talbot said that he received a communication Captain Stacpoole, which stated that he thought ncrease ought to be limited to the rural portion e collection. He (Mr. Talbot) was of the same ion, and he therefore moved in the matter at ain Stacpoole's request. The rate in Ennis was d, and only eight pence in the rural districts n average, and he would not be for raising the adage for the town collection.

r. Greene remarked that according to the argument, Mr. Sweeney would only get a small inse of £3 3s per annum.

he motion was carried, Mr. Keane dissenting.
 he Board shortly after adjourned.

ALLEGED ATTEMPT AT SHOOTING.

he discharge of a shot in Jail-street on Saturday ing, on the arrival of the Kiltush mail car at
 -past six, which was supposed to have been erronously intended for some one on the car at the time, as to have been, in all probability, caused by one ne passengers, a dealing man having discharged a led pistol, as he had arrived at the end of his ney, and had no further use of the charge.—
 occurrence took place opposite the post-office, can only be accounted for in this way.

PROTESTANT DEMONSTRATIONS.

Ve (Mail). are requested to state that in order to at a very generally expressed desire, the Dublin uestant Association will hold a public meeting y in December with the same objects as that at laborough, of which due notice will be given by ertisement, and it is hoped that the announce-at will not interfere with any other meeting for a ilar purpose that may be contemplated.

* Route-marching" is to be commenced at Aldertt station early in the ensuing month.

It is rumoured that three regiments now at Aldertt station will shortly leave to supply ordinary efs, in addition to what may be required on special vice with reference to Fenianism. It is rumoured t Brigadier-General Sir A. Horsford, K.C.B., who ndered such valuable service in Ireland last year,
 l be selected to again proceed to this country, uld there be any cause for sending out flying unna.

The 52nd Regiment, headed by their fine band eeded to the King's Island to-day for exercises afterwards returned.

bert, R.N., of the gunboat Rainbow, to Laura Maria, second daughter of Commander Synge, R.N., of Ardfield House, Conality, and niece to Sir Edward Synge, Bart.

At Longford Church, Thomas Walton Chamberry, eldest son of Stephen C. Fussell, Esq., of Kinsale, to Mary Lydia Pepper, only daughter of Lieut.-Colonel Maulwauer, Staff Officer, Longford.

At the Church of the Catholic University, Dublin, Edmond Renayne, son of Martin Mahony, Esq., of Cork, to Mary, eldest daughter of Henry Greene, Esq., J.P., of Court Hill, co.
 Meath.

At Holy Trinity Church, Sleane-street, London, John
 Samuel W. Allin, Esq., C.E., only son of the late John Allin, Esq., of Monabeg, co. Cork, to Annette Mary Anne, only daughter of W. Henry Haines, Esq., of Sleane-street.

At Ballypay Church, John B. Waddell, Esq., of Lisnariffe
 House, co. Monaghan, to Jane, youngest daughter of the late Col. Ross, 3rd West India Regt.

At St. Kevin's Church, Dublin, Mr. Henry G. N. Clarke, to Elisabeth, eldest daughter of William Hardie, Esq., County Dublin Light Infantry.

At Hebron Church, James, eldest son of C. Murland, Esq., of Ardnabannan, co. Down, to Ellen, youngest daughter of John Davison, Esq., of Northumberland.

At Kurrachee Church, Wm. Alexander Delaselle Eden, Esq., 33rd Regt., eldest son of Col. Eden, agent to the Governor General of Rajpootana, to Lilla, second daughter of John Scully, Esq., of Springfield House, co. Wicklow.

At St. James's Church, Piccadilly, London, Captain H.
 Hamilton Beamish, R.N., son of the Rev. H. Hamilton Beamish, Chaplain to the Earl of Bandon, vicar of Wimbush, Essex, to Blanche Georgina, youngest daughter of William Majoribanks Hughes, Esq., and granddaughter of the late General Sir Loftus Otway, K.H.

DEATHS.

At Florence, Antonio Publicola, Prince Santa-Croce, Duke of Corchiano, Count de la Torre, and Grandee of Spain. The deceased nobleman was married in March, 1847, to Catherine, eldest daughter of the late Denys Scully, of Merrion-square, Dublin, and of Kilsacie, co. Tipperory, and for many years represented the county of Cork in the British Parliament.

On the 30th inst., at No. 1, Pery-street, in this city, Joseph R. Gordon, aged 18 years and 9 months, deeply regretted.

On the 30th inst., at Odell Ville, the residence of his son, Edmund Morony, Esq., of Spy-hill, Queenstown, late of Ballycough, co. Limerick, aged 74 years.

On the 29th inst., at St. Oswald's Grove, Manchester, James Enraght, infant son of the Rev. Thomas Lindsay, curate of St. George's, Manchester.

The Rev. Henry B. Poer, rector of Templeroe, Templemore, diocese of Cashel.

At Abbey Athassel, William Dalton, Esq.

At Kilkenny, Daniel, only son of Mr. Price Costelloe.

At Sydney, by a fall from the rigging of H.M.'s Corvette Brisk, John O'Connor, jun., of Valentia.

At Manchester, Robert O'Rielly, Esq., M.D. and B.A., a native of Killorglin, Kerry.

At Dublin, Alice, wife of Robert W. Meade, Esq.

At Monkstown, Mary Bridget, daughter of Mr. C. J. Danc-kert.

At New York, Mr. John Kennedy, a native of the county Limerick.

At the Dominican Convent, New Orleans, Mary Angela, third daughter of the late Edward Byrne, Esq., of Dublin.

At Dublin, the wife of Mr. John Jones.

At Phibsborough House, Charles Alexander, sixth son of James Taylor, Esq., of Phibsborough House, Dublin, and Castle Bank, Scotland.

At Foster-place, Mrs. Smith, relict of the late Daniel Hunt
 Smith, Esq., of Newgarden.

At Wrotesley, Lord Wrotesley.

At Kensington, William James Levinge, Esq., seventh son of the late Sir Richard Levinge, Bart., of Knockdrin Castle, co. Westmeath.

At London, Lady Elizabeth Ann Smyth, widow of the late John H. Smyth, Esq., of Heath, Yorkshire.

At the Coast Guard Station, Bangor, N.W., the Hon. Frederick O'Bryen Fitzmaurice, Commander R.N., third son of the Earl and Countess of Orkney.

At Richmond-terrace, Whitehall, London, Charles Wm.
 Packs, Esq., M.P.

At Glasgow, William Muir, Esq., merchant.