

of St. Patrick's; the Dean of Kildare.

Bart., seconded the resolution of the meeting, and adopted that the Archbishop of Dublin accept the office of President and the Lord Primate and other clergymen and other persons to become vice presidents. On the non-attendance, and expression of opinion in the objects of the meeting from the Earl of Roden, and the meeting terminated with a vote of thanks.

THE EXECUTED FENIANS.

MISSION IN DUBLIN.

... for giving a stimulus to Fenianism, was too good to be ringleader of the abortive... were mercifully spared—spared, procession of distinguished representatives against whom they had mercy was attributed to fear of such ridiculous motive. But attack upon the officers of the... re brought to justice, and the sympathisers, whose joint numbers in Dublin, are—as yesterday's... very great, instantly come forth just retribution as an act of... tunity of parading in "green," through the streets of the metro... g sympathy with the Fenians was eagerly seized and used, as... ed through the streets on Sun... with no small effect. It is not... l the people who walked in the... lly Fenians. Mr. John Martin, in his speech at Glasnevin, at the... e a slight disclaimer on their... draw the line amongst the... ose who might have been mem... and those who were only well... otic" cause, it is impossible to... ended," in the advertisement... emonstration "that everybody... tied with green ribbon, as an... So they all did. "No flags... t continued—"will be allowed."... no flags. The advertisement... hmen! assemble in your thou... your numbers and your orderly... mpathy with the fate of the... nd then it invited Irish women... of their presence, and so forth... ne in thousands, knowing that... interfered with. No obstacle... n the way of those passionists... nian holiday—for it is impossible... e.

walked irregularly, being some-... ix, and at other times and places... fifteen abreast. Probably the... ho walked was about 20,000.—... r, a number who could not be... people who joined and who left to unless authenticated by signatures of the writer as guarantee for accuracy, but not for publication.

Advertisements intended for publication in the LIMERICK CHRONICLE should be sent to the office before 12 o'clock on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays, otherwise they will be late for insertion.

THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE

TUESDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 10, 1867.

FUNERAL OBSEQUIES OF LADY GUILLAMORE.

The funeral of this truly good and charitable lady who died a few days ago in Dublin, at the early age of 35 years, took place on yesterday, from Knocklong Railway Station where the remains were received by Mr. O'Neill, manager of the large and popular tailoring establishment of Slattery and Co., George-street, by whom the funeral was supplied.

The remains were accompanied from Dublin by William R. Croker, Esq., Alston, her ladyship's agent, and nothing could surpass the demonstrations of grief on the part of the tenantry on the estate, when Mr. Croker appeared on the platform of the terminus at Knocklong.

It was an evidence of the genuine gratitude of the Irish peasant for kindly treatment such as they one and all are prepared to assert to have received at the hands of Mr. Croker.

The chief mourners were—Viscount Guillamore, Sir John Wolsley, Sir R. Blennerhassett, the Hon. Fitzmaurice Dean, Wm. R. Croker, Esq., Standish Roche, Esq., Carass; Captain E. Croker, The Grange; The O'Grady, Kilballyowen; J. B. Blennerhassett, Esq., Rockfield; James S. O'Grady, Esq., Castleconnell; Rev. Carew S. O'Grady, Athlacca; Dudley O'Grady, Esq., Prospect House, Pallaskenry; John Bouchier, Esq., Baggotstown; Hon. Roland Blennerhassett, Clement Blennerhassett, Esq., Messrs. Vandeleur, Ballinamona; J. N. Webb, Esq., Joseph Gubbins, Esq., Kilfrush; J. L. Gubbins, Esq., Ballinaloo; Rev. J. M'Mahon, Knockany; Rev. Jas. Hickey, P.P., Askeaton; Rev. Mr. Tyrrell, &c., &c.

The tenantry, in cars and on horseback, made a most respectable turn out, and their comfortable and decent look argued well for the kindly manner in which they are treated.

The line of carriages was unprecedentedly large in this part of the country, and the entire cortege extended over two miles.

The Rev. Mr. M'Mahon officiated at the Church, Knockany; after which all that is mortal of this amiable and benevolent lady was confined to the family mausoleum of The O'Gradys.

Too much praise cannot be bestowed on Mr. Croker for the manner in which the entire proceedings were arranged; also to Mr. O'Neill, who superintended the management of the procession, and who was congratulated by Mr. Croker and several members of The O'Grady family for the regularity and order which prevailed, and was a credit to the firm of Slattery and Co.

John Quin, Esq., T.C., received to-day the order from the Lord Lieutenant appointing him High Sheriff of the city for the ensuing year.

The Hon. John Massy, accompanied by Lady Lucy Massy, the Dowager Lady Massy and suite, has left Board-room at the Chamber o'clock.

There were present—Rich Spaight, J.P.; William S. Quinlan, J.P., High Sheriff; Thaddeus M'Donnell, J.P.; J.P.; Reuben Harvey Todd, J.P.; M.R. Ryan, J.P.; R. James Harris, Esqrs.

Mr. Nash read the minutes which were signed by the Clerk. A communication was read from the Treasury to the effect that Mr. Carroll a retiring allowance salary.

Alderman M'Donnell explained the terms of the treatment Mr. Carroll had received from the hands of the Treasury. He stated that Mr. Carroll was a patriotic man as one of the best men in the city, and he expressed the hope that it would be done to him yet. He stated that he was sorry for not complying with the request for granting him the full amount.

The Chairman and several members of the Board similar terms of Mr. Carroll with the Board.

The subject was referred to the Committee to whom was also referred the subject of Mr. Long as an agent.

A letter was received from the Board to the effect that Mr. Carroll was to be collector of the tolls to be collected at the bridge which he would take up on the bridge.

The High Sheriff drew attention to the inconvenience arising from the fact that all those engaged in the business of the Northern side of the river had to pass the bridge, and he proposed a resolution remonstrating against the same, and that it ought to be transmitted from the Board of Works.

The Chairman said he would refer the matter to the High Sheriff, and would propose a resolution, bearing out his views on the subject.

The High Sheriff then stated that he was in agreement with the Board of Works in their view of the vexatious interruption to the business of the city which would result from the fact that all those passing the bridge would have to pass the bridge vessels at the north side of the river.

Alderman M'Donnell seconded the resolution.

Mr. Long informed that he had about £600 worth of property which he had used in the erection of the bridge, and that he had applied to the Board of Works by his agent for the completion of the bridge. They would be obliged to him if he would be allowed to use the property of the gravings dock, if he believed there were not more stores at the canal.

It was agreed to commit the Board of Works on the subject, and to refer the matter to the Board, and Mr. Long.

A letter having been read from the Board of Works, the necessity of having a dock works, Mr. Nash proposed a resolution to perform that duty.

Mr. Murphy produced a list of £5,000 and £3,917 (the latter being the balance of the Deane) which were read