

TALE LOVE OF FINERY.

Ms of Waldegrave was present last week amination at Wigton, and delivered a in the course of which she said:—"I to the females present, especially mois a subject which I believe a great in with me in thinking important in which we live, and that is the subject in all ranks of life, but especially who attend our schools. I regret to say a good deal of what may be called use-mong the young girls of the present ould think that probably mothers are lame in that particular. I have ob-assion to be on the increase during all as God's mercy has spared me through I think I may speak from ex-the subject I must say I think it a e on the part of mothers to dress to the utmost extent of their means, lucing them to lay by their pence for a rainy day, or to collect clothing for ace of which they allow the girls to spend money, and what they can add of their on what I should call unnecessary and I am very glad to find that you eduren well here, and I am delighted to see ork is made a very particular point of ex-many of the schools; because, in seek-e servants, we all want those who can those particulars, as well as in knit-ning, for which I have had pleasure in in my own country on various occasions.
children are taught to spend all the they can get together on little bits of st thing the mistress has to teach her tis to dress neatly and properly, and the great mistake of mothers who help forward in unnecessary outside cloth-ry often I regret to say, the inside is exicient (laughter and applause). I theret mothers who have such opportunities eir daughters educated—and you have red to those enjoyed in my part of the learnedly strive to give them that deicty and neatness in their dress which spectable, useful, and efficient. I trust se me, coming such a distance as I do, mention of what many, if they would ally feel in their hearts (applause). I am mothers, 'Well, ma'am, I can't help it.
go to the second-hand shop and get these were they are cheap. And it is only a
; and a flower doer not wear so soon as a hter). Well, but that is not neat, nor is
; and when they get into service, most ill object to that kind of finery which is to the station in which it has pleased se them (hear, hear). I hope my female excuse me for giving them these hints, the result of long experience."

At Thirsk, the wife of Mr. Charles Swadrock, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

At St. Francis' Church, Melbourne, Henry, eldest son of the late W. C. Bennett, solicitor, of Cork, to Mary Rose, daughter of the late Henry O'Hara, Esq., of Mansfield House, co. Cork.

At St. Dunstan's Church, Fredericton, New Brunswick, North America, Austin P. O'Malley, Esq., of Burrishoole, co. Mayo to Mary Eveleen, daughter of the late John M'Giacy, Esq., of Fredericton.

By special licence, at the Church of SS. Mary and Peter, Rathmines, Dublin, Patrick Brady, Esq., M.D. of Rathmines road, to Frances Madeline, eldest daughter of John Shaw, Esq., of Dublin.

At Trinity Church, Rathmines, Dublin, Charles Kough, Esq., A.B. R.M.I.C.S., third son of Thomas Kough, Esq., of Enniscorthy, to Jane Mary Elizabeth, third daughter of Wm. Newport White, Esq., M.D. L.R.C.S.I., of Downpatrick.

At Trinity Church, Eastbourne, Lieut.-Colonel Henry W. Mawbey, R.M.A. to Katherine Susan Townshend, eldest daughter of the Lord Bishop of Meath.

At the Friends' Meeting-house, Eustace-street, Dublin, R. Middleton Perry, Esq., of Ballinagore, county Westmeath, to Anna Sophia, third daughter of Dr. Evans, of Dawson-st., Dublin.

At Oak Hall Church, Woodstock, N.B., George R. Anderson, Esq., of Halifax, N.E., eldest son of the Hon. John H. Anderson, Senator of the Dominion of Canada, to Susan Helen, eldest daughter of the Hon. Charles Connell, Surveyor General of the Province of New Brunswick.

At St. George's Church, London, Viscount Milton, to Miss Beauclerk.

At All Saints' Church, Norfolk-square, Lieut.-Colonel Ellerman, late 98th Regt., to Emily, relict of George Grey Byrne, Esq., barrister-at-law.

At St. John's Church, Oxford-square, London, Charles A. Davies, Esq., 3rd Dragoon Guards, to Madeline, daughter of the late Alfred S. Jee, Esq., of Oxford-square, and Hestington, Sussex.

DEATHS.

On the 13th inst., at Heathfield, after a short illness, Edward Lloyd, Esq., J.P., aged 74 years. He fell asleep in Jesus, trusting in His precious blood, which cleanses from all sin.

On the 12th inst., at the residence of his son, in Fermoy, at an advanced age, Mr. John Murray, of this city, professor of music, deeply regretted.

On the 10th inst., at 38, Henry-street, in this city, Mr. Michael Cusack, Walter Lambert, Esq., J.P., of Castle Lambert, county Galway.

At Carrick-on-Suir, the Rev. William O'Leary, A.B., formerly curate of that town.

At Portarlington, Harriet, daughter of Constable Featherston.

At Cork, Charles G. Gibbons, Esq., of Ballinspittle House, Kinsale.

At Dublin, Mr. W. F. Davies.

At Dublin, John O'Galligan, Esq., M.D.

At Cork, Mary, daughter of Mr. David Molony, of H.M.'s Customs.

At Bray, George Hudson, Esq.

At Kingstown, Dublin, Mary Hamilton, relict of the late James Merrow, Esq., of Dunganon.

Richard Sherwood, Esq., eldest son of the late Thomas Sherwood, Esq., of Kilbride House, Arklow.

At Dublin, Margaret, widow of the late Lieut. Thomas Clarke.

At Dublin, Francis Gerattee, Esq., solicitor.

At Virginia, co. Cavan, Thomas Love, Esq., M.D.

At Coolkenno Rectory, co. Wicklow, William, son of the Rev. Frederick Owen, and late Captain 107th Regt.

At Hollyville Park, co. Dublin, Wm. Henry Richardson, Esq., of Dundalk.

At New York, Mr. Patrick Long, a native of Tipperary.

At Wiesbaden, the Lady Stuart de Lecies.

At Tripoli, Grace Letitia, wife of Edward Henry Walker, Esq., British Vice-Consul.

First Class do., Very Choice do.,
Marsala,

SOA

WINE

15,

Red

THE Board of will, on Wed
consider Tenders f 150 TO
Of the quality t
Red Ash, Orrell
in Tender, and the
the entire quantity
In addition to a Board of Guardia satisfactory docum
of the quality cont
The Person who
be required to ente
two solvent suretie
performance of th in the handwriting
quired to be enclos received by me u above day.

(By
M

Board-Room, 7t

V.

Your Futu
True

MR. HIND,
M loger, wil
your Intended, v
riage, for 16 Stan
2s. 6d. State ag
Send stamped
HIND, Victoria
London.—Nativi
Just Published
free 12 stamps.