DEATHS.

At Bishop-Eaton, near Liverpool, the Rev. James Meehan, at the early age of 25 years, son of Thomas Meehan, Esq., of Crossagalla, and cousin of the Rev. Dr. Meehan, P.P. This young gentleman was a distinguished student of Maynooth for four years, which he left to join the severe Order of the Redemptorists; but although efforts were made to induce him to abandon the clerical life, in consequence of his father having no other son to enjoy his means, they failed, and he succumbed owing to the severe studies he had to undergo in the order he adopted. The greatest sympathy is felt for the bereaved family of the deceased by their numerous friends.
 At the residence of her son, John Ellard, Esq., solicitor George-street, Mrs. Ellard, a lady much esteemed and respected.
 On the 11th inst., at Annacotty, co. Limerick, the wife of Mr. Thomas Brennan, aged 62 years, deeply regretted by her family and a numerous circle of friends.
