LONDON CORN MARKET.

(Aste's Report).

Small business doing, and prices for all articles the same as on Monday, except for oats, which are rather scarcer.

(Usborne's Report).

Fair supplies. Weather still very wintry. English wheat, free sale, at 1s advance. Foreign in good demand, and sellers hold for 1s more. Oats and barley scarce. Other articles without change.

LONDON PRODUCE MARKET.

Sugar—Small business; rates unaltered; refined steady; low lumps, 42s 6d. Coffee held for higher rates. Tea—Moderate business; green, dull rates; little doing in Black. Rice—Increased business, at 1s rates.

LONDON TALLOW MARKET.

Tallow, 43s 6d to 43s 9d on spot.

DUBLIN CATTLE MARKET.

SUPPLY.

Fat cattle, 1,794 beasts; sheep, 2,977; veal calves, 40.

PRICES.

Best ox and heifer beef, 70s per cwt.; wether mutton, 8d to 8½d per lb.; veal from 10d to 1s per lb.

No means of ascertaining the number of the store beasts and springers in old Smithfield. Destruction of turnips by the late frosts tells fearfully on our stall holders, driving them, in large numbers, with less than half-fed stock on the market—originally intended for May sales. The lower classes of beef much under in proportion, and in the majority of cases ruling at little over ordinary store prices.

Veal from 10d to 1s per lb. The numbers now on the market unseasonably and unfinished, must naturally cause material and serious deficiency in the two coming months, and we would impress the necessity on our clients of husbanding all their available resources until matters assume a better aspect.
