It says that the last vote in Committee taken yesterday, and the calculation of the session will not last out the fortnight after the incident. It will probably last a week, or it may even drag on till Monday, the 27th inst. There will be a meeting on Saturday, and the Ministerial meeting has been fixed for Wednesday.

The early meetings of the London Joint Stock Bank in course of being held, and considered a depression of trade and the stagnation which has prevailed during the period. The reports now presented extend, the result cannot be pronounced unsatisfactory. The London and Westminster Bank at its last meeting declared a dividend at the rate of 10 per cent annu and a bonus of nine per cent; the Bank of England a dividend at the rate of fifteen per cent.

The farmers of Surrey are threatened with some difficulty in their harvest operations, the labourers are expected to strike on farms on which Irish labour is employed in the mowing or reaping of wheat. The course adopted in the counties of Berks last year. The price paid for wheat has consequently gone up from 14s an acre to 16s and 18s—a substance.

The cause of the disgraceful sectarian riots which broke out in various provincial towns with the visit of Murphy, the anti-papal agent, was stopped by the arrest on Tuesday of the Rev. Mr. Bolton, where he was announced to give addresses on his favourite and incorrect subjects. There were all the materials for a riot apparent, and the magistrates were reluctant for the arrest of the would-be disturber of peace. He was, however, liberated on undertaking not to lecture until the charge against him was disposed of.
