LONDON TALLOW MARKET.
Tallow firm. New P Y C, 45s to 45s 3d on spot.

LIVERPOOL CORN MARKET.
A fair attendance, and a moderate consumptive business doing in wheat at late rates, any decline being exceptional on parcels. Ex-quay flour in fair request at former prices. Indian corn firm at the late advance, mixed American 37s. Other articles quiet and unchanged; Imports, inland, &c.—Malt, 136 qrs; oats, 160; oatmeal, 104; flour, 50. LIVERPOOL COTTON MARKET.
(First Report.)
Market opens steady. Sales probably 10,000 bales.

(Second Report.)
Market closes strong. Sales 10,000 bales; on speculation and export 2,000.

Weekly Report.
Total sales, 69,190; on speculation, 5,160; declared export, 18,290; actual export, 18,443; trade, 45,740; import and received, 114,339; stock increased, 50,150; total estimated stock, 511,516; same date last year, 786,230; middling upland, 10½ fair Egyptian 12; fair Dhol erab, 8½.

MANCHESTER TRADE REPORT.
The market is very quiet, and prices of Tuesday last are barely supported.

WAKEFIELD CORN MARKET.
Very choice white wheat nearly maintains its value. Other descriptions are dull, and sales made were 1s to 2s decline. Barley steady.

GLASGOW CATTLE MARKET.
Top Irish 68s to 70s; secondary, 65s to 66s; middling and inferior, 50s to 60s; sheep (top) 6½d per lb; secondary, 5d to 5½d per lb; lambs (top) 17s to 20s each; secondary, 12s to 15s each; middling and inferior, 5s to 10s. An average supply of cattle, which met very slow trade, at barely last week's rates. Sheep and lambs' supplies even larger than last week. Sales extremely slow at reduced prices, and a bad finish.

DUBLIN CORN EXCHANGE.
To-day's market for most kinds of grain was not at all so good as Tuesday. Irish wheat met a slow sale, at last day's rates for white, and red was about 6d cheaper; inferior lots were even lower. The show of barley was limited, and prices were in favor of buyers. We do not make any alteration in our extreme prices for white oats, but intermediate and black were 6d lower. Rape tending upwards. An advance of 6d on maize. Foreign wheat in good request. Flour trade also better.

DUBLIN CATTLE MARKET.
(L. Cuffe & Sons Report.)
5, Smithfield, Dublin, Sept. 3, 1868.

We had a seasonably large supply of cattle and sheep. Prime qualities of each moved off briskly at the full prices of last week, but secondary and inferior had to be disposed of at reduced prices, owing to a slight depression in the English markets for that description of stock.
