

Tuesday, 14th, Oola; Saturday, 16th
el. . . Hour, 12 o'clock.

ment are confident of a triumphant coming fight on the subject of the see on the bill for closing public-houses Sundays sat on Tuesday, and examined s and another witness. The evidence in favour of the closing of public-houses Ireland.

Express announces the serious illness of the Earl of Roden, now in his 80th Holmes, son of Col. Holmes, charged with the murder of a boy in Somersetshire, has been found guilty of insanity.

A Defence meeting was held on Tuesday evening. It was largely attended. Mr.
Carnegie, Mr. Sarsfield and other gentlemen were present, protesting against the Bill on the Church, and stating that the time when all Protestants, both Churchmen and dissenters, should band themselves together in defence of the Church.

It is reported to hold a Roman Catholic demonstration.

On the night the house of a shopkeeper in the city of Cork, was visited by four armed Fenians with arms. The proprietor was absent at the time. The men presented revolvers at two of the men, under threat of being shot, were under an old sword, which was the only weapon.

The informer, accompanied by a police-officer, departed from Kingstown, yesterday, on the steamer, for London.

Mr. T. T. T. has published an address to the people of Belfast, announcing his willingness to stand for the constituency if desired, and to retire with such unanimity as to afford assurance of his return.

Mr. Browne has nearly finished a picture representing the after-scene of the execution of Mary Queen of Scots, wherein the Sheriff of Northampton is shown placing the body of the Queen to the official surgeon.

Mr. T. T. T., a native of Clonmel, who died at Venice some time ago, bequeathed upwards of £600 to the Mechanics' Institute, and £200 to another institution.

The death of a man was passed on Monday at Shrewsbury by the coroner, for the murder of Catherine Mapp, on the 22nd December last, under circumstances of excessive brutality, which are already

The law requires young men to marry at 19, and women at 16.

A strike has just terminated in England.
The men of South Derbyshire, after having remained out for twelve months, during which period their wages is estimated to have amounted to nothing, have returned to work upon the masters'

At The Island, Rochestown, the wife of the Rev. J. W.
Benn, of a son.

At Loughlinstown, the wife of Wm. Collum, Esq., late Capt. 94th Regt., of a son.

At Sydenham Park, Belfast, the wife of James Combe, Esq., of a daughter.

At Belfast, the wife of Alexander Frazers, Esq., of a daughter.

At Harrowgate, the wife of the Rev. Edward Bell, of a son.

At Berlin, the wife of Frank C. Lascelles, Esq., third secretary to H.M.'s Embassy, of a son.

At Richmond, Surrey, the wife of Wm. J. Crossley, Esq., Bank of England, of a son.

At Gibraltar the wife of Lieut-Colonel Bredin, R.A., of a son.

At Cowes, Isle of Wight, Lady Slade, of Maunsel, of a daughter.

At Wandsworth, the wife of T. English, Esq., R.E., of a son.

At Barbadoes, the wife of Captain Grant Blunt, R.E., of a son.

At Montreal, the wife of Captain Lea, of the 16th Regt., of a son.

MARRIAGES.

At St. Peter's Church, Dublin, Robert G. Newbigging, Esq., Adjutant 80th Regt., to Jeanie Urquhart, daughter of the late Wm. Henn Hunt, Esq., of Leinster-square, Dublin, and Ligadoon, co. Limerick.

At Trinity Church, Rathmines, Dublin, John E. Wilson, Esq., to Lillie, second daughter of Wm. Jones, Esq., C.E., of Rathgar.

At St. George's Church, London, Henry Bucknall, youngest son of the late Thomas G. Littlewood, Esq., of Lincoln's-inn-fields, to Alice, widow of the late Charles D. Craven, Esq., of Lincoln's-inn, B.L.

At Brighton Church, Henry Boys, B.A., F.R.A.S., Scholar of Jesus College, Cambridge, formerly of H.M.'s late Indian Navy, and eldest son of the late Rev. Henry Boys, M.A., R.E.I.C.S., to Sarah Louisa, second daughter of the late Chas.
Prince, Esq., of Uckfield.

At St. Thomas's Church, Dehra Doon, N.W.P., Arthur Sells, Esq., Bengal Civil Service, youngest son of E. Porronet Sells, Esq., of Ferring, Sussex, to Catherine Loveday, youngest daughter of Major-General E. A. Cumberlege, of H.M.'s Indian Army.

By special licence, at Melvern, Victoria, John Frederick Tasman, eldest son of John Hassell, Esq., of Albany, King George's Sound, Western Australia, to Isabella Johanna, second daughter of the late Roderick Morrison, Esq., of Stornoway, Scotland.

DEATHS.

On the 25th inst., at 100, George-street, in this city, Henry eldest and beloved son of Samuel Bradshaw, Esq., solicitor, aged 10 years.

At Ballinasloe, Mary, wife of Mr. Stephen E. Goggin, late of this city.

At Glenogra, Bruff, co. Limerick, Mr. Edward O'Brien, jun.

At Bray, John Carmichael, Esq., J.P., of Riverstown House, Cork.

At Fermoy, Michael M. O'Sullivan, Esq.

At Lower Glanmire-road, Cork, Mr. Wm. Henry Oakshott, eldest son of the late Wm. Oakshott, Esq., of Cork.

At Cork, Mr. Richard Sunner.

At Launceston, South Australia, Wm. Kent O'Keeffe, Esq., J.P., Commissioner of Education, formerly of Cork.

At Stephen's-green, Dublin, Wm. T. Archer, Esq.

At Dublin, Mr. John Fitzgerald, formerly of Mountmellick, Queen's County.

At Dundalk, Miss Harriet Gubbins.

At Dublin, Emily, wife of the Rev. H. Herbert Stepney.

At Portrush, Harriette, relict of the Rev. Charles Henry Crookshank, late of Tyholland Glebe, co. Monaghan.

At Calcutta, Assistant-Surgeon James R. Purefoy, Bengal Army, eldest surviving son of T. Purefoy, Esq., M.D., of Lucan.

At Jersey, Davidson, third son of the late Major-General B.
Beatson, formerly Governor of St. Helena.

At Nice, France, John Augustus Vivian, Esq., late of the 3rd Buffs.

To (Formerly the r
Dining a Drawing
Six Bed
Large Nu
Two Pan
Servants's
Pleasure Gro Garden at rere of about, placted
Yard; Pump, Fo
The House is i papered, and fit
Immediate poi
Apply to PET
rick.
March 26.

ALL
PLUMB
4, (Op
BEGS respect prices of is always prepar
Kitchen Sinks, a
Orders from th
March 26

FREE OF D
MANUF
RICHMONI
I N Eng?and t has long be
3s. 2d, per lb. pl
use. The late that Tobacco L
Sheep-wash, Ho
WITHOUT

The Richmo
availing themsel nection with the fitted up a speci
Tobacco Juice.
By careful at the law being al
sold in this Cou
the gallon.
The Juice is 42 Oz
Pr

Sold
Thos.
CA
34, DAW