

"GOD SAVE THE QUEEN."

THE AFFAIR BAUDIN.

Subscription has become a very serious matter. However annoyed the Government is by a project to erect a monument to one of the Second of December, it was most anxious to prevent a subscription. There is no doubt that such an act is most oppressive, and that the imperial lawyers may try to extend the scope of the law. The Government is generally determined to resist the Government is all but unanimous in its determination. With a public spirit and determination to give credit, the Temps has published the subscription list twice after the Government has declared its hostility to them, and most of the other papers are following the example. The Journal des Debats gives its adherence to it.
