lights and Burgesses of the United Kingdom Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament

the Petition of the Guardians of the Poor of the County of Ennis, in the County of Clare, with—

Grand Jury Cess is at present paid by the occupiers of land in Ireland, who are required to make any deduction from their amount of such payments.

Grand Jury Cess in the county of Clare is very heavy for many years, that it now covers the several baronies from 2s to 2s 6d in valuation, and that this heavy tax must be increased for many years to come, in addition to the enormous outlay of £50,000 on the erection of a Lunatic Asylum for is not just or reasonable to impose payable taxes solely upon the occupiers, many tenants at will, and, therefore, having no interest in their holdings, should not be required to contribute to the expense of building and maintaining county institutions as the Lunatic

Bill has been recently introduced into the House, by the member for the County of Ennis, making Grand Jury Cess payable by landlords and tenants, on the same principles levied for the relief of the poor. Our petitioners approve of this Bill, and our honourable House will pass it, and we shall ever pray, &c."

Resolution, after having been read, was unanimously adopted.

read a communication from the New-Edinburgh Committee, signed by the Rev. Mr. Kenny, which stated that Dr. Kenny was not able to make any payment for the visit paid by him to the workhouse, but as the Guardians had agreed that they did not wish to prevent it. They will, however, allow no more.

The Chairman directed that the 10s cheque be sent to Dr. Kenny, and if he refused, that steps be taken in the matter.
