The revising barrister for the East Riding of York- shire has allowed the names of two ladies to remain on the register because no objection had been made to them. His Imperial Russian Majesty's screw steam frigate Alexander Newsky, 51, Capt. Kromer, 30 days from Algeria, arriving in Plymouth Sound on Wednesday, and, after coaling, will proceed for St. Petersburg.— She has on board his Imperial Highness Grand Duke Alexis, who is accompanied by Vice-Admiral Posiet.

The Moniteur states that the Emperor visited the camp at Launconerzan. His Majesty was received by the Commander-in-Chief, Marshal and General Goyot. An immense crowd was present. The people and soldiers vied with each other in greeting the Emperor with enthusiastic cheers. After a review of troops the Emperor gave a grand dinner to all general and superior officers, and returned to Paris by the night train at 7 o'clock. Everywhere on his journey his Majesty was received in a most cordial and sympathetic manner.
