It is whispered in Paris—and the rumour finds many believers—that the police, acting on private information, have made a midnight vision to a house—or rather a mansion—situate in the most fashionable portion of Paris, and seized documents which implicate a large number of men, many of them of highly respectable families, as being concerned in a secret society. The objects of the Society are stated to be the establishment of a Republic on the death of the Emperor.

Much company is expected at Windsor during the next fortnight. The great attraction in the walk at Bishopgate, in Windsor Great Park, where the rhododendrons will be in full blossom.

The Monarch turret ship, 5,000 tons and 1,100 horse power, is to be launched, or floated out of the dock, on Monday at Chatham. The ceremony of naming the ship will be performed by Lady Cecil Bingham, sister of the Secretary of the Admiralty, Lord Henry Lennox.
