BRISTOL CATTLE MARKET.

BRISTOL CATTLE MARKET.
here was not much doing at our market to-day, e being very quiet, and there was scarcely any ge from last week's prices. There was a large, ly of beef, but there were only a very few Irish ts on offer. The demand was not great, but late s were well maintained, best descriptions realising
1 68s to 70s, and in a few instances 72s per cwt. 1 68s to 70s, and in a few instances 72s per cut, secondary sorts 64s to 66s per cut, was obtained, y little business was done in mutton; nice analype fetched from 6½d to 6¾d per lb; heavy sheep, per lb; ewes, 6½d. The supply of lambs was, t, and trade was rather brisk, and prices advanced, o 10d per lb being readily obtained. There were 1,000 store cattle on offer, and prices exhibited

DUBLIN CATTLE MARKET. (L. Cuffe & Sons Report.)
Dublin, May 14, 1868.

e have again to report a large supply of both p and cattle. Prime qualities of sheep continue aintain firmly our previous prices. Secondary rough sorts again dull, with prices in favour of larger, yet we had a good demand for prime de-tions, at full rates. Inferior lambs almost unble.

e have to report a continued dulness for Irish at our Corn Exchange during the week.

ool more inquired after, Is 51d to 1s 6d being for prime hoggets.
