Case which is, no doubt, properly decided, has passed between Dr Anthony, Dungarvan Town Commissioner, 1st Adjutant-General, in reference to the charge of "drunken and disorderly conduct" on the part of a speech, against a detachment of the 1st Highlanders, stationed at Dunmore, Nairn, requested to be furnished with the grounds for such an accusation. It is alleged that it was based upon the testimony of respectable inhabitants. The Chairmen, Sir Nugent Humble, and the Constabulary and resident magistrate, ought to know, and would be very glad if any improprieties, were applied to, and the best testimony to the excellent conduct of Dr Anthony was informed of this, and the vague imputations, alleging at the Lord Strathnairn had not consulted the qualified to inform him. He has not, as it would appear, vouchsafed to the Commander of the Forces with any special view was challenged and bound to do.
