LIVERPOOL CORN MARKET.
 (First Report.)
 Market opens with moderate attendance, Wheat and flour quiet, at late rates.
 (Second Report.)
 Average attendance and fair trade, at last Tuesday's prices, except for Indian corn, which is fully 1s lower. Mixed 42s to 42s 3d.
 Imports inland, &c., wheat 587, malt 2, oats 174, peas—, oatmeal 410 loads, flour, 234 sacks. Foreign—Wheat 15,300, barley —, oats 106, beans 1569, peas —, Indian corn 9290, oatmeal — flour 1182 sacks, 1905 brls.

LIVERPOOL COTTON MARKET.
 (First Report.)
 Market steady, both on the spot and to arrive. Sales 10,000 bales or more.
 (Second Report.)
 Market closes steady. Sales 10,000 speculation, and export 2,000 bales.

BRISTOL CATTLE MARKET.
 Our market is better supplied with fed stock, with a brisk trade. The best finished cattle 70s per cwt; secondary 66s; coarse cattle 60s to 63s. Fed bulls 56s to 60s. Wether mutton 8d to 8½d per lb, ewes 7d. A lot of fat hoggets sold by weight at 9½d per lb. Demand good for all descriptions of store cattle and sheep.

WAKEFIELD CORN MARKET.
 Wheat trade at last Friday's prices. Little doing. Barley in fair demand.

DUBLIN MARKETS.
CORN EXCHANGE.
 To-day's market was a repetition of Tuesday, but slower of the two. The scarcity of Irish wheat secures full prices; second-class bere 3d to 6d lower; scarcely any demand for oats; the increased demand for Indian corn and meal has been checked by higher prices; foreign wheat firm; flour steady.

DUBLIN CORN MARKET.
 (Green Brothers' Report.)
 Weather very fine. Attendance moderate. Wheat, Irish, supply short. Sales made at about last day's prices. Foreign held at last day's rates, but not saleable thereat. Oats and barley each in buyers' favour. Maize, retail sales, without change in value.

DUBLIN CATTLE MARKET.
 (L. Coffe & Sons Report.)
 Dublin, March 12, 1868.
 We had a much smaller supply of both sheep and cattle at market. Prime qualities in request, at an advance from previous prices, and an early clearance effected for every description.

At our Corn Exchange during the week we have no alteration to report, except barley, which continues dull.

We have to report a better feeling in wool, several sales having been effected during the week.

Her Majesty's screw Indian relief troopship Crocodile, Captain George W. Watson, sailed from Portsmouth at 9.30 on Tuesday for Alexandria, with detachments of officers and men from various regiments, under the command of Colonel Turner, R.H.A., on board for Aden and Bombay.

The Daily News says:—Advices from Marseilles describe an unfavourable reaction in the wheat market, owing to adverse winds having delayed arrivals from the Black Sea and elsewhere. At the same time there has been a sudden accession of orders to purchase, especially on the 8th.
