MR. MAGUIRE'S LECTURE.

Mr Maguire, M.P., delivered a lecture on Emigration in the Athenæum, on Thursday night, before a large and respectable audience. The lecture was given at the request of the local Farmer's Club, and the chair was taken by Mr Bolster, President of the Club. At the conclusion of the lecture a warm vote of thanks was passed to Mr Maguire in the motion of Mr O'Flaherty. The lecturer responded in happy terms. Previous to the lecture, Mr Maguire was entertained at dinner by the members of the Club, and the proceedings in the Athenæum were followed by supper at which as well as at the dinner, a number of interesting addresses were delivered.

The subscription list of Dr. Bennett's testimony and other advertisements in type are unavoidably held over till Tuesday's publication.

The Clare assizes will be opened at Ennis on Wednesday, the 3rd of March, and the commission for Limerick on the following Saturday.

On Thursday next, the 18th, a splendid buck, from the Stoneville herd, will be enlarged before the White Hill Harriers at Carrigparsons Hill, at half-past twelve o'clock.

At the City Petty Sessions, yesterday, before the Mayor, Messrs. Tinsley, M'Sheehy, Phayer, Roger, Moriarty, R.M., M'Mahon, and Lenihan, the usual class of cases were disposed of, which were of no public interest. Three tramps, named Catherine Walsh, (from Kerry) Anthony Ryan, (Tipperary), and Michael Crofts, (Cork,) were brought up by Constable Shea, on suspicion of robbery, and were remanded. A fellow named M'Grath was brought up for brutally treating and kicking his sister in the hall of the Court-house, and he was sent to gaol for a month with hard labour.

We have just seen, at the establishment of Mr. Richard Persse, of George-street, what may be considered an object of very great interest—namely, a sword of the Great Protector, Oliver Cromwell, by whom it was given, on the occasion of the "crowning victory," to General Monck. The hilt is of silver-tasseled cord, and the blade one of very peculiar formation. Mr. Persse has very courteously permitted us, and any others who called, the gratification of seeing this very remarkable and interesting relic.
