WHICH should be the foundation of most Paints, requires also to be of the purest quality, as it lasts much longer, also gives a better surface and colour.

We shall be happy to show our friends that we keep both Brandrum's and Walker Parker's Best Qualities, by documents beyond contradiction.

We also offer our friends Paint Oils of the purest qualities, and Noble's and Hore's Varnishes, which are too well known to require comment.

ROBINS & CO'S
Celebrated Portland Cement.

JUST ARRIVED, a Cargo of the above Celebrated Cement, per the "Plylymon." The various experiments made with this Cement by the Engineers of the Board of Works, prove it to be 20 per cent. above the Government test for its strength. It was awarded the only prize medal of the Great Exhibition of 1851, and for many years has enjoyed the preference in the Russian and German trade. It has also been much used by the principal builders in this city, and can be seen in front of our Concern, as also at the New Medical Hall, and the New Grocery and Wine Concerns being now fitted up for Mr. John Neiland, George-street.

To be had only from

WILLIAMS'S COMMERCIAL HOTEL
AND POSTING ESTABLISHMENT,
KILRUSH,

Where every accommodation will be found first-class.

THE Proprietor begs leave to announce to Gentlemen and parties coming to Kilkree that his Long Four-wheeled Car, well horsed, will ply in connection with the Steamers from the Pier at Kilrush to Kilkree during the season. The Car is capable of containing ten passengers, and a great quantity of luggage, and would be a great advantage to a family to travel together and not be separated. Parties requiring the above accommodation would do well by writing to the Proprietor in due time, in order that there would be no disappointment and cause no annoyance at the Pier.
