KILRUSH INTELLIGENCE.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

Friday.

KILRUSH RACES.

Our second day of races was a complete success. Thousands were present. The racing was pronounced very good, but the course was very unsuitable, and gave little satisfaction.

KILRUSH BUTTER MARKET.

Our butter market on Wednesday was well supplied, prices up; farmers in good spirit. The harvest promises to be exceedingly good and early.

KILRUSH PETTY SESSIONS.

Nothing important at our Petty Sessions, except the conviction of a female pickpocket for two months.

AMNESTY MEETING.

An amnesty meeting is to be held here publicly on Sunday, 2nd inst. A large meeting is expected, but it is hoped that the magistrates will see that the Sabbath day will be duly respected.

The Portuguese Cortes were closed yesterday by the King in person, with the usual ceremony. His Majesty delivered a short speech, in which he said that every effort was being made to restore the financial equilibrium, and to revive the national credit. He also stated that the Minister would seriously consider how to augment the imports and diminish the expenditure. His Majesty, in conclusion, stated that the independence of Portugal would be scrupulously preserved.
