

putting personalities man whoever he is—I
 to give food to the nothing in Mr Har-
 fact—and a fact it is one of the boldest
 and, should receive
 around your neck
 of your father
 at the way to give
 If I am informed are invested with that they were to give it received it, and to hang go farther than Mr.
 and, I refer to the (hear, hear). He, when the neck of his suc-do so to-day? We until to-day—until we ng to wear it (great ett (enthusiastic cheer-resolution, Mayor.
 on a proposed and se-Council, it cannot go on Mayor has ruled cor-
 be put on the minutes ene of confusion from the Mayor had ruled living been brought into bers of the Council, it as it was; but it was atest respect, as calling had been worn by their to make it legally the would formally move from their fellow citizens. That could be le-done (cheers).
 ed the motion.
 and declared the eyes a poll. He said he ly for the arguments us of. Influenced by ill "cries of turn him appear, &c.) He did not ou a fourteen days' no
 the Mayor would act
 the matter.
 go a poll. I want to the chain are misplaced, the all go on consecu-
 to address the meeting, when hearying before the poll ards. It is perfectly well this business—rograt your decision in pl.
 asked by Mr Phayer
 as they were before,
 ot
 are not.
 apped before that any h predecessor, to make he could tell was aft that of his predecesan if the same.
 waever changed before?
 ight that the question ar). Did the Mayor know s ve not been changed ansr that they were not Ev'ring was right then.
 May ought to answer he
 , onas I tall you.
 don't how; that is the sorry deed, the Mayor's sent ition, should be to a reason reflecting on sessor. I did not mean to a condor of that of those s his he was quite sure ted to halt the memory of balvery natural slip of the tongue substitute the very words that stand at the head of his letter Vdly, it is pleasant to see that the claims to immutability so modestly put forth by "ouvenerated clergy" have such firm ground to rest upon, and that so long as limrick his political adventures who are suspended over the gulph of oblivion by the brilliant and official patronage, and as long as ecclesiastics rely to leave the Sanctus to dabble in the mud and fil of secular strife and then repudiate, at the plea of their sacred character, the just verdict of law and public opinion against them—and as long as they rely on an infuriated drunken mob to sustain them, the cause is safe. To meet an antagonist or to argue by the calm attitude of reason and of truth is often inconvenient and even dangerous, but the stern logic of the brick bat, is vulgar epithet, or the lying insinuation, will confound almost an adversary! Surely the age may be thankful that there is such a sure covert where holy method patriots can find a shelter from the grim of infatigable who march under the banner of law, justice, and truth.

 But then the question will come up in our mind, "how long will this continue? and is there any relief to be placed on certain old prophetic words about "sowing the wind and reaping the whirlwind," or the examples of modern times as frisky Italy, Austria and Spain, teach a lesson in wisdom for tyrants and their slaves—as the late Emperor in review before the mind's eye—sometimes causing the watcher to grow pale under the apprehension that a day may not be distant when the enlightened self-respect and of a higher quality, the result of education and of another class of teachers shall turn those stalwart arms now raised in defence of their "venerated clergy," and has voice uplifted to shout down any honest man who dares to challenge any action of a priest or a salite, mayhap to perform the same office as leaders which outraged human nature elsewhere, when credulity and patient could endure no more.
 What did that meeting of Saturday last show? What did the violence, the curse about the un-Christian spirit manifested, declare with voice not to be misunderstood? When the Roman Catholics who have something to lose the men whose talk is "that they will accept of priestly dictation," that they are willing to judge for themselves in mundane affairs, and that clericalism ought only to be distinguished by the likeness to Him who went about doing good and claiming that His kingdom was not of this world. What did all this proclaim? What does it point to?
 Why, as plain as words ever declared an accomplished fact—that the cause which rests on such a foundation that is sustained by such advocates as that meeting furnished, is lost. A year, or two, or three, or four, or five, or six, or seven, or eight, or nine, or ten, is a short period to wait where such issues are at stake, and much that is humiliating to good men may have to be endured in the meantime. But the crash!! Did you not hear it? "Rejoice over her ye prophets and apostles; that liberate humanity; she had time and opportunity given her to repent, but she waxed prouder and bolder, and added outrage to wrong till there was no remedy."
 Your obedient servant,
 FIAT JUSTITIA

The next, and last case, was that of Mr. George Mares Maunsell v. Mary Curtin, for 5 acres of land, near Glanville, held as tenant from year to year, at a rent of £10 per annum.
 Mr. William Maunsell was examined, and proved himself agent to his father, over this property. In his cross-examination he said the reason the ejectment was brought was to give the land to the mother-in-law of the defendant. It transpired on the trial, that the widow's husband died suddenly, at Kilmeeady, about 12 months ago, that her father gave her £370 as a marriage portion, and in addition that her father paid over £300 since the death of her husband which he had no knowledge of, but in order to keep his daughter in possession of these lands, and another farm adjoining it.
 The Court made an order for possession, in the mean time he hoped Mr Maunsell when he had the decree would consider her case, and on reflection, be favourable to the widow.
 DREADFULLY SUDDEN DEATH.
 On Thursday last, an old man named John Grady, living within a mile of this town, came into Rathkeale on business, and sat in a chair in the house of Mr. Cregan, and after conversing with the family about half-an-hour died in the chair without a struggle.
 He was taken home, and an inquest held by Doctor Enright, Coroner. Doctor O'Hanlon was called on, and examined the body, and gave it as his opinion that disease of the heart was the cause of death. The jury gave a verdict accordingly.
 LATEST INTELLIGENCE.
 BY TELEGRAPH.
 THE CONFERENCE.
 Paris, Dec. 31.
 The conference is expected to assemble on the 7th or 8th of January. Thanks to the exertions of Russia, Greece will be represented. All the powers have agreed that the discussion will be confined to the Turkish ultimatum. Greece, though she will be allowed to argue, will not have the privilege of voting.
 The seat of the conference being fixed at Paris, says Galignani, the Marquis de Lavalette, Minister of Foreign Affairs, will, of course, preside over it. The representatives of guaranteeing powers and Turkey and Greece who are to take part in it are the following:—Austria, Prince de Metternich; Great Britain, Lord Lyons; Italy, Commissioner Nigra; Prussia, Count de Solmes, Charge d'Affaires in the absence of Count de Goltz; Russia, Count de Stackenberg; Turkey, Djemeil Pasha; and Greece, M. Rio-Rangale.
 DUBLIN CATTLE MARKET.
 (L. Cuffe & Sons Report.)
 5, Smithfield, Dublin, Dec. 31, 1883.
 Our supply of stock considerably larger. Demand for prime qualities of sheep and cattle continues good, firmly maintaining former prices. Secondary and inferior sorts dull, and much more difficult to be disposed of.
 At our Corn Exchange, on Tuesday, we had as improved demand for all descriptions of Irish grain, at a slight advance.
 Supplies of wool at our market very limited. Demand good, and prices very firm.
 PROCS.
 Prime beef ... .. 65s to 70s per cwt.
 Secondry ... .. 50s to 60s do do.
 Primeutton ... .. 6½d to 7½d per lb.
 Prime inferior ... .. 6d to 6½d do do.
 SUPPLY.
 Cattle ... .. 1168
 Sheep ... .. 768
 CORK BUTTER MARKET.
 ORDINARY. MILD CURED.
 Fir quality, ... 143s ... 140s 150s ... 147s
 Seed quality, ... 137s ... 134s 150s ... 147s
 Third quality, ... 125s ... 122s 130s ... 127s Four quality, ... 115s ... 112s ... ..
 Fifth quality, ... 100s ... 9s ... ..
 Sixth quality, ... 96s ... 9s ... ..
 3rd, 4th, 5th, and 6th of Kegs, 4s. per cwt. less.
 Currey—Ordinary Butter, 0s per cwt. less.
 Mild-cured 0s do do.
 Ronged Butter ... .. 2s do do.
 Ronged and Dairies ... .. 2s do do.
 1s, 2nds, 3rds, 4ths, 5ths, 6ths.
 Jan 1—30 23 91 15 2 0—131 firkins.
 Mildred 0 0 3 0 0 0—131 do.
 CORK CORN MARKET.
 Blk. 6s, 8s 6d to 8s 7d; white oats 0s 0d to 0s 1d; tawny oats, 0s 0d to 0s 0d; barley 0s 0d to 0s 0d; rye 0s 0d to 0s 0d.

BIRTHS
 At Summer-hill, Montenotte, Cork, the wife of Thomas Clarke, Esq., of a daughter.
 At Ballybricken, co. Cork, the wife of Daniel Connor, Esq., late Capt. R. M. Light Infantry, of a son.
 At Stake Hill, co. Cork, the wife of the Rev. Leonard L.
 Sullivan, of a daughter.
 At Palmerstown House, Upper Rathmines, Dublin, the wife of Benjamin Fawcett, Esq., of a son.
 At St. Anne's Vicarage, Highgate-road, the Hon. Mrs. G.
 Sproford Ham, of a son.
 At Kensington, the wife of Percival Clark, Esq., late Capt.
 9th Lancers, of a daughter.
 At London, Lady Radstock, of a son.
 At Portman-square, London, Lady Rose Weigall, of a son.
 At Gibraltar, the wife of Captain Frederick Rowlett, R.A., of a daughter.
 At The Limes, Lower Norwood, the wife of Captain George Phillips, of a daughter.
 At Dagmar-terrace, Southsea, the wife of Commander Henry Hand, R.N., of a daughter.
 At Dover, the wife of Captain J. W. Fry 91st Highlanders, of a son.
 At Glenselg, South Australia, the wife of John Souitar, Esq., Manager of the Bank of Adelaide, of a daughter.
 At Prospect, Barnuda, the wife of W. G. Don, Esq., M.D., Royal Engineer, of a daughter.
 At Plumstead, the wife of A. A. Crespin, Esq., Lieut. R. M.
 Light Infantry, of a son.
 At Beaufort House, Cheltenham, the wife of the Rev. John Magilton, M.A., of a son.
 At Killburn, N.W. the wife of Capt. Wm. C. Palmer, late Madras Staff Corps, of a son.
 At Montagu-square, London, the wife of Dr. Sherwood Stocker, of a son.
 At Cathcart road, West Brompton, the wife of Francis W.
 Rowsell, Esq., barrister-at-law, of a daughter.
 MARRIAGES.
 On the 30th ult., at St. Mark's Church, Dublin, by the Rev.
 Mr. Tomlinson, Robert Hewitt, Esq., of Granahan Castle, co. Clare, to Anne, fourth daughter of the late Edward Hedges Goggin, Esq., of Burton Hill.
 At the Wesleyan Chapel, Rathmines, Dublin, George P.
 Barnes, of St. Paul, Minnesota, U.S.A., youngest son of Mr.
 Stephen Barnes, of Youghal, to Maggie, youngest daughter of Mr. Clement Vance, of Dublin.
 At Killybegs Church, Mr. R. Patchell, of Derry, to Clara Eliza Clementine Theodocia, daughter of Mr. Wm. Brett, of Carrickmore House, co. Donegal.
 At St. Mary's Church, Bryanston-square, London, Colonel Sir Arnold Kemsall, Royal Artillery, K.C.S.I., C.B., to Anna, Fanny, third daughter of A. N. Shaw, Esq.
 At St. Peter's Church, Eaton-square, London, Capt. Sidney Carr Glyn, Rifle Brigade, son of George Carr Glyn, Esq., to Henry, youngest daughter of Mons. Adolphe Marescaux of St. Omer, France.
 At St. George's Church, Hanover-square, London, Hamilton O'Leary, Esq., Royal Artillery, youngest son of the late Frederic A. Geary, Esq., of Broadfields, Isle of Wight, to the Countess Anastasia Zancoroff, younger daughter of the Count Spiridon Zancoroff, of Corfu.
 At St. Paul's Church, Edinburgh, Capt. Wood, late of the 4th Regt., to Blanche, daughter of the late Sir William F.
 Blyth, Bart., of Scots and Wells.
 At St. Mary Abbott's Church, Kensington, Basil P. Freeland, Esq., of Liverpool, to Helen Elizabeth Jane, only daughter of Lieut-Colonel Charles Ashcraft, of the Bombay Army.
 At St. Mary's Church, New Plymouth, N.Z., Arthur Cecil Manners, Esq., 18th Royal Irish, to Ada, third daughter of Frederick A. Carrington, Esq.
 At St. Mark's Church, Regent's-park, London, William Baas, Esq., M.D., of Manchester, to Bertha Mary, second daughter of Edwin Hill, Esq., of 22, Fitzroy-square, N.W. and of the Island Revenue, Somerset House.
 At Aliphington Church, Devon, C. De L. Faunce De laun, Esq., of Sharsted Court, Kent, to Annie, second daughter of the late George Stockard, Esq., of Ballendrick, Perthshire, and formerly H.B.M.'s Consul at Madeira.
 At St. Luke's Church, Paddington, Abraham H. H. Hite, Esq., of Wiltshire, Cambridgeshire, to Elizabeth Maria, eldest daughter of the late Clerke Burton, Esq., Master of the Supreme Court, Cape of Good Hope.
 DEATHS.
 At Carlow College, William Francis, second eldest surviving son of Justice D. Rice, Esq., J.P. of Bushmount, Kerry.
 At Balfour, Charlesville, Patrick John Clancy, Esq., second son of the late John T. Clancy, Esq.
 At Prospect, Ellen Mary, infant daughter of Charles J.
 Swan, Esq.
 At Castlecomer, co. Kilkenny, John Andrew Kirwan Esq., D.L.R.M., of Hillsbrook, co. Galway.
 At Coolacree House, Cadamstown, King's County, Helen Jane, daughter of G. T. Benwell, Esq.
 At Mountpleasant, Ranelagh road, Dublin, Gertrude Jane, daughter of Mr. Samuel Metcalf.
 At Leeson-street, Dublin, Alexander James Ferrier, Esq., J.P.
 At Aughnacloy, co. Tyrone, Caroline, wife of the Ven. J.
 W. Stokes, Archdeacon of Armagh, and daughter of the late Thomas Worthington, D.D., Bishop of Ferns.
 At Balfour, Lieut-Colonel Henry Morland, late of H.M.'s M.N.I.
 At Dundee, Captain Arthur C. Young, Staff Officer of Pensioners.
 At Cadogan-place, London, Marcia, wife of Admiral F. E.
 Vernon Harcourt.
 At London, the Hon. Arabella Catherine, widow of the late Edward Breton Wolstenholme, Esq., and sister of the late Viscount Bangor.
 At The Palace Chichester, Elizabeth Hutton, daughter of the late Capt. Gilbert, R.M.
 At Lansdown-terrace, Bath, Jane St. L., wife of Lieut-Colonel Charles St. L. Mallet.
 At Elderslie House, Renfrew, Archibald A. Spiers, Esq., M.P. for Renfrewshire.
 At The Deanery, Worcester, Sophia, wife of the Hon and
 Rev. John Porteus.
 At Albany-street, Edinburgh, Major-General Walter Hamilton, C.B. late 73th Highlanders.
 At Nething-hill, London, Elizabeth Ellen, wife of Captain Horatio Phillips, and fourth daughter of the late Lieut-Genl.
 Griffiths Holmes, C.B. General Army.